

Poetry Series

K A Werline
- poems -

Publication Date:
2007

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

K A Werline()

My God Flushes

The heat of the sun
Blasts down on me
I awake to the world
Covered blood and something
I ate the night before
The stench of vomit
And stale beer fills the air
I work my way to the altar
And let out a chant
To Never do it again
With the closing hymn
I flush away my sins

K A Werline

No Way

I see all of you
Looking back at me
All the faces have
The same look
What have I done to you?
The faces show
The same disbelief
I want to run and hide
You can all go to Hell
I am not worth your time

K A Werline

What The Hell Does Love Have To Do With This?

What I would give
To be in love
With a woman again
To come home
From work
And see her
Smiling face
To feel her
Cold feet in bed
Oh! To feel any thing
To do with love again
To feel
Her hands
Her breast
And her heart beat
But all I feel
Is the self pity
And guilt
That I have placed
On to my self

K A Werline