Bi-Polar Love That I Feel

No regrets,
Don't kiss and tell,
Not like this,
Heaven and Hell.
He isn't there,
Not always,
She wasn't there,
Neither stays.
Falling in love,
They were together,
In heart and mind,
Always and forever.
Things change,
There was another,
That one night,
During the summer.
Bruised and broken,
Crying out in the rain,
As she stands there,
Screaming out his name.
He was a user,
That boy got laid,
She was a believer,
That girl got played.

Dreams

The dreams
I dreamt
Of you last night
Are gone.

I don't want to remember,
The times we spent together.
Life is moving
Time is wasting.

Never again will I,
Look beyond the stars.
To find my one true love,
Or to find anyone at all.

I am done looking.
I'm just going to wait,
For someone to come along,
And steal my heart.

Freedom

A bag blowing in the wind,
A bird flying high in the sky,
A bilding standing tall and mighty.
So what really is freedom?

Someone captured the bag and throws it away,
A bird is captured and put in a cage.
A building is orn down for new parking,
That is not freedom.

I wish i could blow around in the wind,
Or fly freely in the sky,
Or stand tall and mighty,
I want that freedom.

But I'm always getting thrown away,
Or being put away in a cage,
Or being orn down.
I have no freedom.

Looking

I am searching for an answer,
To all my problems.
But I can't seem to find any.
I'm looking for the reason why,
People hurt me,
Poeples hate me.

I am a good person, I didn't do anything wrong.
People blame me for everything.
I get kicked,
I get punched,
I get picked in,
I get called names.

Names like worthless,
Slut, useless.
Poeples say Im a waste of space.
People don't think twice about me.
No one ever has,
No one ever will.

I feel like running,
But theres no place to run to.
No where to hide.
I cry myself to sleep,
And pray to God,
I dont wake up.

Marry Me

I hear voices, calling my name.
I feel a presence touching my skin.
I taste your cologne in the air.
I see you laying next to me.

The one thing i really want,
Is to wake up next to you.
I want to spend time,
Thinking about our future.

Nobody thinks we belong together.
Nobody thinks we are good together.
Well I Love You.
And I think they're wrong.

I want to spend the rest of my life with you.
I want to spend all eternity together.
Will you take my hand,
And marry me?

Misery

Stars shining bright,
Moon high in the night.
I lay there thinking,
Of what you might be doing.

Wondering if your thinking of me.
Sure that you may still be in love.
I know I am, with the one who,
Stood by me through thick and thin.

Sitting here alone, I look at my mirror,
I see nobody interesting.
When i looked at my reflection in your eyes,
I could seee the love.

The love in your eyes
Hypnotized me into a deep world
No one could ever wake me of.
I would never want to leave.

My Secret Pain

You hold my hand
You move my sleeve
You see my dirty secret
My nighttime reprieve

You look at me
In the eye
And see that I'm
About to cry

You move your hand
Close to my heart
And promise we'll never
Be apart

Why is it
I can't believe
What you say
Is not to deceive-

Me in my
Fragile state
These feelings
I must debate

Is this truth
Is this real
Is this how you
Honestly feel

Or is this false
Is it all lies
To keep the tears
From leaving my eyes

You know my secret
It's out at last
Now you know
My hidden past

Can you love me
For who I am
Can you live
With what I can-

Do to myself
Without second thought
It's been so long
That I've fought-

This war with pain
My secret strife
To at last
End my life

You say you love me
Is it true
If so, what do you
Plan to do-

To keep me away
From my best friend
So hard and cold
And sharp on the end

He gives me such pleasure
Every night
He gives me a rush
And he takes my fright

I feel the pain
I see the red
Tonight at last
Will I be dead

Then I remember
I have you; my love
This brings me back
From up above

I make it through

The night again
Maybe tomorrow
Maybe then

No! You will see
I will make it through
Because I know
I will wake up to seeing
"Beautiful, I love you"

Open Up Your Eyes To Me.

I ask myself the same question over and over again each day...
what is it? well I want to know what I have ever done to you to make you dislike me, because it's truly making me sick, I must say! ! !
I have Always done what I was told, Always been that good one... and now, I am so tired of trying to win your love, that All I want to do is run! !

I have been trying for so long now, what happened to us?
we used to have such a good relationship, and now I don't believe we even have the trust! !
It's a sad thing, and yes this is a fact! ! And I cannot do this alone, unless we work together, we will Never be like we should of...
I have tried, at least I can say that much. Can you? The day will come when you will say "I could of".

Hopefully you will wake up in time to realize that you "can" Now! !
and if for some reason you don't want that relationship with me, then well what can I say but 'wow'! !
Should I be shocked? ? I really don't know, for neither one of us is the same...
funny, because I carry your genes, and I am Nothing like you, that's right I don't play stupid mind games! ! !

My Love for you and most other's is Nothing but TRUE... tell me the truth, does that disappoint you? ?
I have Always been the Loyal one of the bunch, I will tell you No lies... holding so much in, with every lonely tear that I cry! !

Realizing I Lost You

Losing you was my worst rejection
I wish I had you & your protection
I am scared of repeating the same story & then losing you again
I don't want to cry for love anymore,
I don't want to be sad and have nothing else to take
I don't wanna lie down in tears again,
I just want everything to be like the old days,
maybe you miss me, maybe you don't,
maybe you hate me or maybe you don't
I can't stop assuming I am sorry it's the truth
I think if I text you, you'll get mad
Instead of being happy I'll be sad
I need to realize I lost you forever
and I need to realize your gone forever.

Someplace Quiet

I search and search
But can't seem to find it.
I'm looking for my perfect place,
Someplace Quiet.

A place I can call mine.
A place where there is no one around.
No one to call me names,
Or kick me while I'm down.

A place where I can be happy.
A place i can actually look at myself.
A place where I wont be hurt.
But it don't exist.

I just wish people would look,
Deeper than my outer shell,
And notice a wounded girl,
A girl going through Hell.

I want to be able to look in the mirror,
And tell myself im beautiful without lying.
Soneday I will get up the courage,
And say F*ck off!

Sometimes...

Sometimes when i sleep,
I cant stop thinking about you.
Your always on my mind.
But I always wake up crying.

Every time I think about you,
My head gets hot and I start to cry.
It makes me not want to sleep,
Or even think about you.

I'm so torn and broken.
This time it wasn't my fault.
I never want to fall in love,
Because I know it will happen again.

I don't know how i feel right now.
Its so weird being this confused.
Its not normal.
Its not healthy

Every time I talk to you I cry,
Every time I see your face,
I just wanna shoot myself,
And see if I'm better off dead.

Sometimes i wonder why Im alive.
I wonder why people want me around.
I don't want to be here.
I wish I wasn't me.

Stars

The stars in the night sky,
Tell a love story.
It tells you what happens
To a couple who's lives are lost.

Two, in love, never saw it coming.
A head on collision.
Decided to take one,
But both are lost.

One is in heaven
While the other was left
On this earth to take the blame,
Of the accident only one had caused.

That one person is unbelievable.
He only takes the ones who,
He has another plan for.
A better plan.

So those stars in the sky,
Not only tells true stories,
But they were there,
When 'He' was born.

Story

Once upon a time...
Is'nt that how it always starts.
A magical place, prince charming,
and the best thing of all.... A Happily Ever After.

Ha, it dont happen like that.
None of that happens.
None of that is true.
Story books are all wrong.

No such thing as a magical place.
No such thing as a prince charming.
No such thing as a happily ever after.
There is only one way of ending.

Everyone lives,
Gets pushed around in school,
Gets a job, raises a family,
Then they die.

No happy ending,
Not one that everyone wants at least.
So those story books, Once Upon A Time...
Not true for anyone.

When

Kenny :)

When I look into your eyes,
I see starlight.
When I see your smile,
I see happiness coming alive.

When your holding me,
I feel safe and portected.
When your kissing me,
I feel the love I've been longing for.

When I think about you,
I get butterflies.
When I talk about you,
Im always bragging how great you are.

Your the best thing in my life.
Your the moon that lights up my night,
Your smile is what I look forward to,
Your kiss is what I hunger for.

I love you baby
I miss you baby
Im never gonna leave you.
Me and you, together forever!

Till death do us part,
Till the end of time.
Your hand in mine,
Your lips on mine.

If only you actually knew,
How I felt about you.
If only you knew,
How bad I need you to stay.

Your the light to my life,
And the beat to my heart.

I love you so much.
Promise me you wont ever leave me?

I love you Kenny Brown<3

Worthless

So many people I know
Have turned on me.
All my friends and family,
They act like I never existed.

Worthless, useless, whore, stupid,
All these names cut me deep.
Everyone thinks they know me,
But no one does.

No one wants to get to know me.
No one even cares.
Expectations are bringing me down,
Because I know im not her.

Im not the person, who,
Everyone wants me to be.
I am ME!
And people will have to deal.

So this is for all those people,
Who think its funny to bully.
But sooner or later,
You'll end up working for me.
