As I Watched Him Die

It was a cold and windy day when my friend sadly passed away.
this was the day when a boy with a knife, took away my friends life.

I shut my eyes,
praying it was just a dream, but unfortunately it was reality.
the most awful thing i had ever seen.

The knife was in the killa's hand went into him like a dart and ripped out his heart apart.

I still remember his last scream and the fear in his eyes, and his last word were
I Dont Want To Die! !

I can still see him lying there on the ground with his blood all around as a great big tear rolled down his face, his killa's left with out a trace.

he was only 14
such a young age to die, and it was all because of that boy with a knife.

I rember my head,
looking down at him,
and i kept thinking to my self,
why him and why not me?

He killed my friend an i will never forgive him for all the pain his killa's put me through and my family and friends too.....

I watched him die
there was nothing that i could do,
as he died

apart af me died too.....

now his killa's have life in prison whis is good enough for me as in my eyes
behind barsis where they should be.....

P.S.: THIS IS TRUE

Black Heart

so so black as black as black can be so so cold
so hard
with no love in it
no care
no feeling
no heart acke
no no that cant be right a heart should be filled with love

Broke The Locked Key

A key can unlock a heart, if you can match it up right one turn of motion, can envolve alot of emotion.

not every one can hold the key,
not every one has a locked heart.
some have been broken, and some fell apart, and those stuck with the key will never have the chance to try.

never do i want to trust you with this key, i hide my heart, but i know my feelings wont deplete.
its hard to tell you that you are hurting me i should not trust you..... now i sit hearstaring at the pieces, nothing is left that cant be put back together, no reason left for me to smile.
the day is ending quick, my eyes are sinking in tears, and they are not clensing my soul any more.
tonight i will fall apart, and there is nothing,
you can do,
but image what you did.....

Love

I say i love you all the time, but do i really mean it, you say you love me but is it true.

I fell like we have drifted appart, and there is no affection left, you hold me tight and you kiss me but do you really mean it.

you say you do love me, and i have to take your word, i wish that there was another word, to say but, i love you will have to do for now
