Everlasting Depression

everything about him, his eyes, that hair, the smiles, the hugs. and though i bring to you the things i love, your telling me your in love? in love with the guy i cherish, and the things i wanna tell him are perished, becuae of the love and your feelings, im taking a pain thats like dreaming. i long for to tell him my love, but im keeping it away.... becuae our friendship i know is important but him to my heart is like fortune... taking a daily dose of depression, lusting for my taste of reclemption. you breaking me down with 'i love him.' affraid with 'my love to confronthim. cant awake from this dream of dread feeling, i take through my heart that is as for my everlasting depression.' i bring from this script my recession.

Forgiven

mountains high valleys low, no matter where, i am feeling cold, as destiny sinks into my heart, unselfishness has took its part.

addressing fear with spaclous hum, of a dreaded meaning like to a gun.
im feeling down, my candles out, overwhelming feeling of this selfish dought.
my pain is gone but im dead again, pretending fun is my dream of him.
i want to die, yet im awake, my heart is furious of my pending mistake.
confused alone with richousy, left to rome my privacy.
i wanted us, not him then me, a selfish love with tendency

L-O-V-E

Love is really hard to understand we travel across continents to follow love we do the weirdest things to prove love but if we have to prove love i dont know trust whatever but then again maybe lately trust aint so bad love comes in all shapes and sizes it can be good bad, ugly it can make you happy or make you sad the past i just dont get it you say i am over it you'll find someone new but but what there is no buts life keeps moving so i'll keep moving looking through the eyes of a teenager who's learned a little bit about love, life, trust, and distrust but we all must stand strong against those who oppose true love, missed it, abused it never true to it leave them in the past true love will forever last

Stronger

you think you know him then you find out you know nothing after all and thats what hurts the most we loved each other then we lost each other but in the future it was found again but what i need to know is how to let him go i dont know how i dont know when but i just cant let him in again he hurt me countless times but after all the cries it made me stronger in the end
