Katerina Anonymous(12-15-89)

I really dont know what to say about myself. I guess you could say for my age I have been threw a lot. This is just my way of getting things out.

the fear of not knowing drives me it takes me over the edge i need something to calm me down my heart slows i barely feel the beat not knowing who i can trust not knowing who is really there and not just using me as a passtime i need reassurance something to let me know that the people around me really care i'm begining to feel as if i have no one no one to count on that scares me i cant handle everything on my own.

Before I Fall

i think i have so many people who would be by me and stand by my side but when it comes down to it no one is there cant anyone see i'm crying out for help all i am beginning to feel is pain and im just trying to hold on please someone help me
before i fall
at the hands of myself

Come Back

This isn't fair but who said it should be i need the help but its to hard to ask i want you to notice i want you to care i know you cant cause she'll always be there she took you away now we are lost your the only person i had your gone your changed i need you back the real you

Guilt

I hate seeing you two together all though I know its for the best I know she makes you happy but will you ever notice me I've stood by you through everything but you dont notice will I ever be the one you think about at night I used to be but those days are over oh how I wish I could go back to days were I was more than just your best friend I feel guilt because I know it's my fault that we had to end

Intoxicated By The Feelings

nothing can bring peace not even death falling into the depths of human emotion so strong you begin not to feel at all dead inside your soul decaying to nothing numb to all emotion numb to the world

Intoxication

the dreary smoke surrounds me it consumes my soul but still I keep breathing in the forbidden I understand the consequences and I know the horrible outcome but I cant stop Gradually my fingers begin to tingle the tingle soon consumes the rest of my body my mind goes next I'm easily fooled by all around me all is a haze
I forget my past I forget the future and for once my present is peaceful

Learn To Forgive

I know there are people who have had it worse.
But that doesnt mean I haven't suffered.
I have tried every day to move past All the things that are hurting me.
I have friends who are there for me And I know that they wont understand If I choose this end I need them to know I never ment to hurt them They never knew the pain I felt
I hope they can learn to forgive

Peace

Peice by peice
Bit by Bit
I break myself down
One step at a time
The destruction tells me I'm alive
My breathing shallows
The pain is strong
The same pain that releases me from All the things I run from The real pain comes From my demons
I am afraid to face
This night the pain hits strong
I grow weaker and weaker In my last moments
The pain was gone
And a feeling of release washed over me

Shock

I still cant believe it happened waking up to you you told me it was ok then you took it to far i fought you what you were saying is constantly going through my head i just dont understand i now feel broken and violated i dont know what i'll do if i see you again i hate you for what you did to me

Stupid

how could you be doing this at a time when i've never felt so alone i need you now more than ever it seems you left before things got to be too much i wish i could have seen it coming everyone told me this would happen i had faith in you too think i thought you really cared i told you i was done and thats not the part that hurt its the fact that you didnt fight for us you didnt want us you didnt want me

Thank You

You took so much from me Who do you think you are you took my emotions and toyed with them as if they didnt matter you shattered me in everyway I gave you so much to get nothing in return I still have to say
Thank You
for turning me back to reality

Time

Time goes by things fade the hurt remains the same time heals they always said but the pain just soaked deeper into my soul not prepared to leave some pain stays with you to remind you of the past its hard to think how we last with pain so deep it burdens our soul

Whirlwind

Life is a whirlwind It's easy to get caught up in the spin Sometimes you get so lost You forget everything that matters Eventually the wind will die down Dont forget the person you want to be When your feet touch the ground
