Kavana D Rajan()

Well I can call myself wanderer and explorer of life and its philosophies. Poetry writing makes me express more about it. The works by me you see in my profile is a compilation of my own works since many years.

A Gaze...

Everyday in the morning
When i gaze through the window
The only thought that comes to me
Is what does life hold for us...

I see the snow falling
I see the flowers blooming
I see the leaves shining
When the bright rays of sun
Fall on them; giving them life...

Days roll by, years pass by...
BUT it is only THE nature
That never changes its course...
Well, this is what i call life....
A gaze through the windows...

A Moment..!

There comes in life
A moment so beautiful
That gives the wings
To the dreams you hold dear

There comes in life
A moment so unique
That makes you feel
Your ability is unmatched

There comes in life
A moment so sweet
That urges you to feel
You are meant to stay in it forever

There comes in life
A moment so scary
That makes you question
All the paths you have walked

There comes in life
A moment so dear
That becomes a moment
That stays in your heart forever!

Moments define us
Moments refine us
Moments make us feel the life's worth
For they are the guiding factor
To the directions of our life
All we strive for..is That moment!

An Encounter

'I am not afraid of flying
But when I look below,
I fear I'll fall down'
Said a pigeon

'I am not afraid of swimming
But when I see the waves
I fear I get washed away'
Said a tortoise

Human psychology too is very much the same.
Often we see what might cause the failure
But do not see what makes us succeed
Self doubt is one of the blocks to success
But, never should we forget
It is this doubt, when twisted right Gives the confidence within

The confidence that makes us fly high Teaches us to trust our wings against currents

The confidence that makes us swim deep Teaches us to sail through against turbulence

The confidence that makes us walk miles
Teaches us to trust our feet against rough path

For when you are confident,
You are unstoppable.
Believe in yourself
and negativity can never embrace you :)

As I Pass By...

as i pass by the stage of life,
where a phase ends and the other begins,
i see all those myriad memories lying down my lane.

new is the world,
new is the destiny
and new are all those thoughts, which is bringing new hopes in my life.

everything is appearing hazy but still there lies an uncovered truth that is sailing me ahead
in this unknown phase of life...

Born To Live! ! !

there are times
when we feel life is gloomy
there are times
when we feel life is very pleasant situations go wrong,
when the time is bad things become alright
when the good time is back its all the ups and downs of life but one should not lose faith the belief in self getting into blues should we seldom do after all its not we are living because we are born..
life's cool,
so lets live it...
because we are born to live! ! !
we are born
to see the mysteries of nature
we are born
to experience the adventure that nature has set for us...: -)

Feeling Numbed...! ! !

The mind is having the feel of being blank
Even though there are innumerable tasks to accomplish
Sometimes I feel why is this happening? ? ?
Lots of job but still jobless...
Is it because of the reluctance to do
The tasks which is being assigned? ?
Or is it because of feeling the loss...
The loss of something that once seemed everything...
Or is it because of some incomplete tasks...
The tasks that meant everything for this mind...
True, the mind is having the feel of being blank...! ! !
But at a distance i feel the light...
The ray of HOPE passing through me...
I am feeling the light but not knowing where it is from Making me feel the freshness in this blank...! ! !

Hail The Spring! ! !

look at those beautiful flowers they are blooming with grace to the brilliant rays of the sun giving us a cheerful note...

look at that blue sky
its inviting the dark grey clouds to give us the dro[ps
of the first monsoon rain...

look at those lovely birds happily fluttering their wings ready to enjoy the blossoms in the eternity of their freedom...

ah! ! hail the spring! !

Life Sans Wings...

on my terrace one day
i saw a beautiful bird
it was lying on its back with its yellow chest open struggling for freedom! !
struggling to flutter its wings! ! !

someone said the bird is hurt someone said the bird is shivering someone said that it is too young someone said said 'it is beautiful'

we tried to make it turn we tried to make it fly we tried whatever we could but the bird did not fly away! ! !

it was craving for its mother but she did not come too we could do nothing but watch the bird struggling for the strength...

we left the terrace in despair
as we could not see it die but later we saw through the window that bird flew magnificently towards its eternal freedom! ! !

My Little Angel, This Is For You...

I don't know how to thank God
For having given a beautiful angel like you
You make the purpose of my life
You make the essence of my being...

Am standing miles away from you
But your memories, i always cherish
The smile that is like a dream
The eyes that is filled with wishes...

You came into my life like a little doll
Who could be the best gift I've ever got You showed me ME with your little fingers
Now your voice echoes in my ears,
Asking me'sis, when will i meet you again? ? ? '
GOD BLESS YOU DEAR! !

Perceptions...

Man's perceptions is really strange... sometimes you laugh and sometimes you cry... sometimes you are angry and sometimes you are sweet... sometimes you feel to be on the top of the heaven
sometimes you feel to be down to hell...

i know mind is not a steel ball to not get broken by a heavy hit... whereas its a glass house
when hit, breaks into pieces...

many a times you perceive what you are doing is right you tend to follow only that path without considering what would world tell about this...

many a times you also perceive what you are doing is wrong you never understand which path to follow and end up stranded on the way for long...

but sometimes you are on a way
because its only your fate just a chance destiny has given you you just move along that path and take the twists as they come...

but sometimes you are on a way because that was what you wished for its your choice to take that path and you make your own turns in it...

hmm! ! and all these is caused because of the way you think because of what you have wanted its all in your perceptions... which weighs just too much to define...

Standing On The Hilltop...!

a strange feeling...
of standing on the hilltop...!
not the heights of joy... but the heights of something amazing.... that can make u feel that your feet is not on earth....
had felt the ripples somewhere... and the whirlpools somewhere...
but now feeling the heights of hilltop... heights of excitement, a feeling... of gliding through these mountains and see what lay ahead...ahead of sky itself...! ! !

Standing On The Seashore...

standing on the seashore
i can see the mighty sea
the waves that come near me tell how forceful they are...
but i want to swim
the waves are dangerous
i may get stuck in the whirlpool
i may be eaten by a giant too...
but i want to swim
and see what exists on the other side of the sea...

The First Rain Drop...

well, its the pre monsoon season...
the clouds poured in their first drops of the year... it was simply so delightful, something that's so uncertain yet so promising... felt like collecting innumerable pearls from the sea shells... beautiful days, beautiful hours and the beautiful feeling... but things aren't the way they seem...
all the unanswered questions seemed answered... but then...
the question itself is very different! !
is that what the first rain drop teaches us? ? ?

The Sea Of Tranquility

it was a calm morning when i heard the waves of the sea that conquered me i felt the breeze through my hairs and saw a distant ship sail to the shore many waves passed through gathering the sand beneath me but none could make me fall... somewhere i felt the wave of TRANQUILITY had conquered me
taking me into its direction and i was swimming through the deep blue sea of life
it whispered to me
to walk slow
it whispered to me
to feel the walk
as the walk took me into the world of TRANQUILITY! ! !

The Three Magical Words...

Hope, Trust and Confidence
Are the three magical words
Which sails us through obstacles
To the ultimate destiny of life...

Hope is the word
A newborn has from the world
Before he opens his eyes
To see what lies beyond...

Trust is the word
A child has from his surroundings
To explore into the facts of life
And to understand the truthful way...

Confidence is the word
A young man possesses in himself
To fight all the hurdles
That pass by him and make him build his way...

These are the three things
One should never lose
Because life is nothing
If any one of them is lost

Have hopes, for there is too much in the world
That you can achieve
Have trust, for that is the basis
To have peace in life
Have confidence, for you are the one Who makes all the differences in your life...

Truth...What Is It? ? ?

truth is bitter truth is hard truth is cumbersome to define truth is difficult to swallow truth is what you see truth is what you feel truth is what you analyze but truth is beautiful truth is sweet
truth is eternal truth is.....hmmm.....truth...! ! !

Walking By The Woods...

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the roots
You stand firm at a place
When your roots are strong

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the stems
It is the initial nurture
That gives your life a structure

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the branches
It's the diversity you see in life
That brings out diversity in your ability

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the leaves
No matter what's thrown at you
You stay light and happy

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the flowers
Life blossoms in spite all the hardships
And gives out fragrance so unique

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the fruits
Never lose hopes
All your efforts bear the fruit you deserve

Walking by the woods
I learnt from the woods
It's the diversity in nature
That makes the woods so beautiful!
It's the diversity in the humankind
That enhances us as human beings after all!

When Uprooted...! ! !

when have you felt you are uprooted? ? ?
when your expectations are something...
but later you get something else...
when you wish for something...
something else is gifted to you...
you feel you have reached your destination...
later you realize that's the beginning of your journey...
then you enter the virtual world... the world of dreams where you see what you have wanted to...
but again it's just a dream, an illusion...
even the mirror shows only your virtual image...
but then what is the truth? ? ?
you have not made hay when sun shone...
it's the world around you that shows your true image...
but look at the light outside...
the sun is still shining... and the stars are still twinkling...
you don't think you are a tree to be uprooted and dead...
think you are a grass that can withstand any storm! !
