I am a simple poet who started wrting poems when i was a freshmen in highschool, and continued through out highschool my first poems i wrote freshmen year are: The Way It Come, Memories Hope, New beginning, Loves Beginning and Forever Loved. Weightless was among these but i could not finish it, so i left it. Then during My senior year, i somehow found weightless in the back of my folder and fixed it so it would not go unfinished, in the end weightless made it, i wrote many other poems that are not on here but some are in the process of being edited. But from freshmen year and up, i have written poems, each poem is based off random things some are based off my Stories i write, some off peoples lives some even off a book or movie but they are all written from the heart. I was 15 when i started writing poems as a hobbie, they just came to me outta nowhere.

As the wind blows
Across the sea
Gentle as a leaf
Flowing to the ground

Shinning bright
Under the sun
Sparkling light
Like glitter floating upon the sea

Waves flowing gently
As the fish swim peacefully
Like a river relaxed
On a hot summer day

A Mothers Love

You are my light
My glowing joy
The day I first met you
My heart lit a new fire

My love for you
One only you can have A love to you
As mother and daughter

One I cannot sing
But actions I can show
A poem of joy
One of true love
A love of a mother

Your beauty
Lighting up my life
You give me strength
To move on with my life

There I cannot be
But my love forever remains
One only I can give Love of a mother to her daughter

Kellz Decker

Blessed I Am

Blessed I am
To have you, at my side
One who loves me
For who I am

You make my world
Turn upside down to a place of love
A world of happiness

You hold my heart
As I hold yours
The love we share
A bond, we treasure

One we hold deeply
Upon our loving hearts
That glows upon our eyes
As the moon shines

The way it feels
When you are near
A love so true, everlasting
One i forever hold, in my heart

The bond we have
That's ever so pure
Stronger than light
Upon the night sky

The love I hold
For you alone, one I treasure
Upon my loving heart
That races when your near

All I see upon your eyes
Is the universe
That shines
Ever so bright

In the midnight sky

The love we hold
Within our hearts
A everlasting bond

I love you forever
As you love me always
One so rare, so pure
That hasn't been seen
In a eternity

Blessed Or Cursed

Blessing or a curse
I'll never know
For sorrow always takes hold
The shadow in my heart
Darkness on my soul

The ache the hurt
When ever my heart breaks
The smile the love
When im blessed

Blessing or a curse
Yet love is so beautiful
Its a rose in the valley
Reddest of red roses

No beauty can compare
To such a flower
A one of a kind
For it gives up
To those who are in love
Like they are soaring in the sky.

Centaur Christmas

There was a farm
Full of life
Fields of snow
Trees decorated

Caroline stands outside
Listening to the wind
As it blows gently

Fiddle Lays down
As Fufu sits next to him
Saverra watches the snow
As it hits the ground

Memories of her family
Repeat through her mind
Dutches sleeps in the hay
Thinking of her mystery man

Rose serves the hot cocoa
To everyone who's cold
Caster lays in his stall
Hiding from the snow

Angel rings the bells
As everyone sings Christmas carols
Noran sleeps through the night
Not a sound or peep he could here

The sound of doors closing
As Juiro heads outside
To be by Saverra's side
On this Christmas eve

He wipes the tears
From her eyes
The joy she feels
When he is at her side

Blair Builds a snowman
That looks like Noran
With Alli and Rae
By his side laughing.

Constant Night

As i close
My eyes
I walk
Under a

Moonlit night
Stars shining
Never ending

As i touch
For the sky
I open my eyes
To realize

The constant night
Ever so graceful
Full of beauty
Shining in the night.

Kellz Decker

Faded Away

She gazed to the sky
Tears upon her eyes
Sadness upon her heart
Aching deep inside

She reached for something
That she could not reach
For it was too far away

Goodbye was hard to say
For words she couldn't say
Lay upon her aching heart
For she misses her love so much

It has faded into the distance
Leaving her heart broken
As she closes her eyes
A smile appears, one she bares
For she alone knows
She will be home soon
Its only 3 months away

Forever & Always

The way it was, when I first met her
Felt like nothing I ever felt
The way her eyes could melt my heart
Sending butterflies down my spine

The nerves that came, so quick
On that one faithful day, a day
A day I met my Forever and Always
The girl, I'll never forget

The way it felt, as we locked eyes
An instant jolt that Flared upon my heart
Like needles piercing my skin
Her love, unlike no other

How it was when she was near
A feeling that came into my heart
Feeling her warmth is all I desired
To hold her close, and never let go

Time from time I would say hello
But no words could I speak
For Hello wasn't enough
Not enough for me

The way I felt for her
She alone, was unlike any other
For she caught me unexpected
With her beautiful green eyes
And that smile that shimmers so bright

Days may go by, but she I cannot forget
For since the day I first saw her
My world has changed, for even now
As I lay here in bed with her
Side by side, snuggled together

The only thing I could think of
Was the day when she said 'Yes '

For on that day, I got my one wish
I got the girl, my forever and always.

Forever In Our Hearts

On this day, you awake
To a place far above
One you alone can be
For God has chosen thee

To live with him, Our God
In a world, so high above
A place you alone can be
For heaven Is now your home

Memories you leave behind
In boxes upon the bed
Pictures we cherish so dear
Ones worth 1,000 tears

Loved ones you leave behind
Ones you'll miss so dear
As you walk above
Guiding us with love

No love can be lost
For you alone, know this well
The distance may be far
But you'll always be, In our hearts

You are not forgotten
For you alone were loved
Loved so dearly by family
Ones who hold you close

The tears we cry
Ones filled with sorrow
For you were a gift
One we were blessed with

A life you leave below
On a journey, Now you go
Upon the path, God has set

Set for you, alone to follow

Now with God, You are
Our lord, we Cherish so much
One who will guide you
Through heaven above

Kellz Decker

Forever Loved

As our eyes meet
I can see it
The future
Us fallin deeper

Holding eachother
Till the last
Hoping for a greater life

Seeing it everyday
The spark in your eyes
Bright as the stars
As you look into my eyes

Every minute
Every second
Every hour
We spend together

Holding my hands
As our eyes lock
You pull me close
As you kiss me

Kellz Decker

Forever With You

In your arms I wanna be
At your side dressed in white
To be your future wife
For I wanna spend forever
Forever with you

As I say "I Do"
My heart takes flight
Because with you
Everything is right

The vows I exchange
At your side, gazing into your eyes
I see our future so bright
Our vows of eternal love
As I become your wife

Forever with you
Is where I wanna be
To grow old with you Live forever with you
For when im at your side
I see a future ever so bright

Kellz Decker

Freedoms Night

Like thy night
I look up
To thy sky

Lurking for answers
Upon thee sky
Within thy stars
As they shine

Upon thee night
Hoping to be free
Where I belong

Kellz Decker

Heavens Angel

Death took an angel
Quiet in the night
Silent as the sea
Her spirit now departed
To heaven above

Her words are silent
As the night, so quiet
You can hardly hear her speak
For now she is in our hearts
If she could, she'd say smile

Her memories forever with us
Edged in our hearts
In boxes in front of us
For each picture is worth 1000 tears

Gone now to heaven
To be with our lord
There she will be waiting
For everyone she ever loved

Though she is gone, she is not forgotten
She was an angel so pure so loved
Her heart was of gold
No one could ever forget
For she alone was truly amazing

Each smile that came Joy was brought to those around
Every member of our family
Will forever remember her
As the one who was gold.

Kellz Decker

I Am

I am kind
I am strong
I am stubborn
I am sarcastic
That much you know

I am weird
I am difficult
I am strong willed
I am unique
Unlike anyother

You may hate me
You may love me
You may judge me
But you wont change me

You say you care
You say you understand
You say you get me
But do you really understand?

Yes i may fail
Yes i may fall
Yes i may screw up
But it doesnt mean im trying

Yes i am emotional
Yes i am tempermental
Yes i am broken
But it doesnt mean im not strong

Yes I have been emotionally abused
Yes I have been used
Yes i have been cheated on
Yes i have been left for someone else
Yet it doesnt mean im busted

I may be broken
I may be depressed
I may be wounded
I may be emotionally unbalanced
But that doesnt mean im weak

So before you say you get me
Walk in my shoes for awhile
Then tell me you get me
For untill then dont say i understand

Only when you walk in my shoes
Is when youll truely see
See who i really am
And why i do the things i do

For only then, youll get me
That is when you can tell me
Only then you can tell me
I Understand you
For untill you walk in my shoes
Youll never know what ive gone through.

Kellz Decker

I Await The Day

I sit in the dark waiting another day
Hoping to see
Your face once again

Our part for now
On such sweet sorrow
Missing you
Every time I think of you

Our break soon
To end
So I can smile
And see you once again

To look into your eyes
To hold you close
Dying inside for our time
Will come to finally see

Your face once again
Our love growing
Yet as we don't speak
Grows more

To see you
Once more
To sit
There in

Your arms
Cuddling to you
Looking at your eyes
Seeing our love shine

I miss you
More than I can say
My heart dies when Your away

Kellz Decker

If I

Your smile so bright, your eyes
Ever so blue making my heart race
For so long ive dreamed of this day
The day i tell you i love you

Yet fear strikes my mind
Making my heart wonder
If i were to tell you
What would you say

As i gaze to the sky
I start to wonder
Thoughts upon my mind
If you would be mine

Would you be there for me
Forever and hold me
When times become tough
Would you love me throught it all
Even when were old and gray

If i were to cry
Would you hold me in your arms
Telling me everythings gunna be okay
Not letting the darkness take hold Keeping me in your warmth

If i were to fall ill
Would you stay by me
Bring me to health
So we can walk once again

If i were to become injured
Would you support me, and stand by my side
Always helping me recover
So i can be healthy once again

If i were to lay gazing at the sky
Would you lay by me laughing and smiling

Making my day better and our love stronger
So no matter what, we will be forever

If i were to say i do
Would you say i do too?
For your my one true love
The one i wanna marry

Life Is A River

Life is a river, on going
Till it cant flow no more
For its always struggling
Through twists and turns

Its a creek trying to survive
To stay strong on its own
Even when its low on water
It continues never giving up

Life is a pond, so small
Only goes for so long
For soon itll fall ill and dry out
Forever gone, only leaving behind
Soil for a new life to begin

Life is the river that flows
Only for so long till its end
Where it lets go into a lake
For heaven above calls you
To where everyone else is.

Life is the sea where all before us
Live so peacefully and happy
A place above where we will eventually reach
For no river can run forever
They all eventually lead to the sea

Kellz Decker

Life's Life

Life is life
It rises like
The sun and Falls like the moon

It shines like
The stars
It dims like
The night

It feels like
A rose
It dies like
The night

It glitters like
A gem
It darkens like
The river

It burns like
A fire
It hurts like
A thorn

It feels like
A river
Going through life is like
A river flowing.

Long Lost Forgotten

As the sun rises
Awaiting the day to start
Like the rising sun

The suns rays shine
Through the curtains
Like an angels wings
I open thee curtains

Watching the sky
As if it were my guide
Its beauty glowing

I think of you
As i look up
Imagining that
It was you by my side

Kellz Decker

Love Is

Love is true
Love is pure
Love is sweet
Like Maple sugar

Love is strong
Love is difficult
Love is strength
Like roses in a valley

Love is kind
Love is gentle
Love is caring
Like a feather in air

As the sun

Kellz Decker

Love Me As I Am

Love me as i am
Give me a fire
One i desire
A feeling of being alive

Boy kiss me so true
Pour your love on me
Light me a fire
Give me your passion

Take me to your heaven
Higher than ive ever been Love me like you mean it
For your what i desire most

Tell me you love me
Like i love you
You give me a passion
One i hold true
A fire inside raging forward
Full speed leaving me enchanted

No words can i say
Because your amazing
Perfect in every way
For in my dreams your flawless
Good at what you do best

Love me as i am
I want only you
One i love the most
For your the one
No one else does what you do
Because you do it the best

Kellz Decker

Loves Beginning

Into thy night
Way above the clouds
Weightless
Like a feather

Sweet as can be
Falling into thy arms
Like a gentle wind
Blowing on the trees

Watching every moment
As if it was going to end
Knowing loves everlasting grip

Growing closer
Everytime we meet
Falling into your arms
The way it was meant to be

Kellz Decker

Memories Hope

Once upon a fairytale
Like its always been
At loves first site

The calling of joy
Nerves getting tense
Not being able to relax
Scared wondering is this real

Hearts coming closer
As the kiss connects Falling into eachother
Hoping to be forever

Dreaming everynight
Of loves beginning
A memory so pure

Memories Never Forgotten

I stand by the sea
Glancing at the waves
Crashing upon the shore
Memories that remain
Flash through my mind

As if it were real
As I realize
Its only memories of my past

Your words still enchanting
Keeping me forever strong
The sunsets beauty
Reminds me of your smile

Glancing upon the sun
I feel your warmth
A warmth that you showed Upon your words and kindness

My heart echoing Screaming far
Trying to reach you
But cannot touch you
For your too far away

A memory you have become
One that will never be forgotten
I walk upon the beach
As the water flows gently across my feet
Smiling as the sunset fades
Remembering it was you who saved me.

Kellz Decker

Memories Upon A Stary Night

He sits on the porch
Watching the moon and stars
Memories of her
Repeating through his mind

Stars glowing high above Lighting up the sky
Like a lanterns flame
Upon the night

Tears falling down his face
As her smile appears
In the memories
That sit on the table

Photographs and cards
Smiles and joy upon each
Memories that will last a life time
Like the stars lighting the sky

Every smile is worth 1,000 words
Each card given with love
Presents that were once collectables
Now worth 1,000 Memories

The tears upon his face Forever remembering her Through time as he Waits to take flight

Kellz Decker

Midnights Fallen Love

She walks upon the night
Looking to the sky
Gazing at the stars
Looking for a sign
A sign of hope
That her brocken heart would heal

The tears, that fall from her eyes
On the floor, so clear
Like a lake in the carribians
So clear you can see its scars

She falls to her kneew
Hands in her face
A pain in her eyes
Her alone can feel the ache
The ache upon her brocken heart

The shadow of her past follows
Right behind her, in her past
A sorrow in her heart
One she alone feels

A ache she alone can feel
One she knows too well
A pain of losing someone
Who once meant the world
To her alone a long lost love
Lost in the shadow of her past.

Moonlight Walk

As thy night rises
Our love grows stronger
When were together
Under thy full moon

Walking by my side
In thy moonlight
Looking into thy eyes

Seeing you
Seeing me
Showing me
Thy beauty

Under thy moon
Holding me
In your arms
As the night closes in on us

Kellz Decker

Moons Guiding Light

The radiant moon
That shines so bright
Upon the moonlit sky
Glistening upon the sea

Its reflection glowing Upon the dark sky
Glowing ever so bright
Throughout the night

The way it Glows
Radiant as light
Along side the beautiful sky
As the stars stand by its side

The Joy, the love
The moon shows
As it beams high above
Upon the luminescence night

As we walk upon the sand
Side by side
Hand in hand
Under the guiding moonlight

Kellz Decker

Morning Flower

Like daylights
Rising sun
Shining high

I rise
Above all
Strong and heathy
Like grass

I bloom
Gently and sweetly
Beautiful and unique
Like a rose

I grow
Strong and tall
Brave and Determined
Like a tree

My Last Walk

As I entered the room
In cap and gown
I look around
Cameras flashing

Kids yelling
Adults crying
Grandparents waving
I smile with joy

I sit down
Eyes on speaker
As the hours pass by Our names are called
We go up one by one
I await my name

I finally hear my name
Standing up and walking up
On the stage I see smiles
I see clapping and tears
My nerves become tense
I take my diploma
As it is handed to me

As I walk off the stage
I smile and feel emotional
A vision of my of my first day
Repeats through my mind
When I reach my seat
I realize its my time
My time to shine

Kellz Decker

My Life With You

As thy night rises
I look upon thy sky
An think of you
Of your smile

The way you
Hold me
Look at me
Kiss me

Our love
That grows
Everyday

Like an angel
You came into my life
The one i love
The one i want

Kellz Decker

My Shooting Star

Like the night
You make me smile
Brighten my days
Bring joy to my life

Your my shooting star
Bright in the sky
Always there
Every step of the way

Your my life
The one I need

When I'm at your side
I know I belong
Right here in your life

As you hold me
Under the stars
I look at you smiling
As you look at me

Our eyes meet
Then like a knight
You kiss me

Kellz Decker

Never Forgotten

As we look
To the sky
we feel you near guiding us

Through life
Though your gone
Your still here

Like a candle
That glows
In the night
You glow

In the sky
Never lost
Always looking down

You light
our way
When we our lost

Trying hard to find
Our strength
Helping us

Feel lost
Showing us
We'll be fine

Shining high above
Telling us to be strong
Even though its hard
Just know I believe

You can do it

Your smile
Always here
Never lost
Always there

Our down
You show us You'll always

Be here
Helping, Guiding
Believing in us
Your in our hearts

Always an forever

Kellz Decker

Never Lost, Always There

I cant go on
Not another day
The pouring rain
That falls upon the lake

I look up lost
wondering "are you really gone? "
The tears upon my face
Falls upon the concrete

I sit on my knees
Hands in my face
Yelling "NO NO you can't be! "
I cry cover in rain soaked

I open my eyes thinking
Maybe if I blink twice you'll still be here by me
I blink and when I open them

Your not here still the rain falls
Upon me as the night turns to day
I look up to see a light
An angel smiling at me

I wipe away my tears
Seeing now that I can
I have my life now seeing
You are always with me

Never gone
Always here
When I need you

Kellz Decker

New Begining

Its as if the night
The dawning light
Rose above the sky

Lifting the pain
From my broken heart
Blowing gently

Into the night
As I open
My eyes
Seeing the light

The life
I begin
The long journey
Ahead of me

Many struggles
Many Hardships
As I follow my road
As my life begins

Kellz Decker

Once Or Twice

Once every life
You find a place
Yet can fall behind

Like thy wind
You can slow down
Lost and alone

Fallin apart
Piece by piece
Like broken glass
Shattered on thy floor

Tears and blood
On thy floor
Deaths upon the night.

Kellz Decker

Shadowed Soul

Once hated, Always hated
Never to be loved
Always to be left in the distance
Alone never seen

She becomes unknown
Invisible to many
Alone to suffer in pain

One of loneliness
One of sadness
A fear she holds

Her heart falls into a pit
Of darkness falling deeper
Living a life of shadows
Forgotten and lost

Everything turns upside down
Tears on her face
Heart aching

She sits in the corner
Tears in her eyes
Ache in her heart
Forever to be invisible

Sincerely Life

I know words cannot express
What i have done to you
Made you rise, then fall
Like the sun & moon

Yet i cant help but feel sorry
For how many times ive hurt you
Left you to fall in love
Then watch you cry, from a brocken heart

So i know saying sorry wont make up for the pain
The pain that i caused you
Nor will it heal the wounds
Left upon your aching heart

I know sometimes its hard
But you must stand strong
And make things work
Work to your advantage

The chills i recieved the day
Day you found your true love
You met him at college
He was truely the one
For love at first site is rare
So know i found someone for you
So forgive me if you can

I am truely sorry for the rain
But the happiness i felt that day
The day you got engaged
On your graduation day

Soon you got married, the pride
One that makes me proud
To see how far you truely have come

Becoming a strong loving person

Watched you become a family
Even helped you conceive
For i really am trying to say sorry
I even granted your wish
Giving you a baby girl

Did my best so she wouldnt cry
I even granted her every wish
That she said on her birthdays
I guided her through school, protecting her
From the bullies that wouldve harmed her

So forgive me as i ask
For her going to college
Was at my hand, she is smart
I even helped her understand
What she was learning to do

Now heading out to college
Far from home, away from you
Leaving all behind to a new place
On journey of her own.

So once again forgive me
If you can, but i cannot apologize
For keeping her safe, growing up
She alone was truly a blessing

I even help her find her path
To stay away from what could harm her
So forgive me please i ask
Because i did it all for her

You may think life is harsh
But believe me, its a journey
One we all eventually take
When we become able to make our choices

Now that she met her true love
She is heading off to the world

To live her own life, but know
The tears you cry are not pain but joy

Im sorry, she grew up too fast
But know she truly is loved
For without you, she'd be a mess
So be proud as you walk her down the aisle

I am sorry that your first grandchild
Was a boy not a girl like you asked
But know she wanted a little boy
One to name after her dad

Believe me when i say im sorry
But the things i do are not easy
People say they hate life
That really hurts me alot but What i do is to help those who need
Who need guidance so forgive me
I know life was not easy nor perfect
But know you did good.

Sincerely yours,
Life

Slowly Falling

I'm slowly falling in love
Falling for my best friend
He makes every day worth living
Because A day with him is everything

No words can I say
When he looks my way
Smiling his smile
The one only I know
For he knows it makes my day

Every minute, Every hour
That I am away from him
My world feels so alone
For he is the light
The one that shines in my night

When I'm hurting or crying
He is always at my side
To wipe away the tears
Comfort me trying to cheer me up

Each Moment I'm with him
Just for a moment everything freezes
I never want those days to end
For they are so special
Because its only him and I

No one else makes me feel
The way I do with him
For I'm slowly falling in love
In love with my best friend

Kellz Decker

The Boy Of Her Past

She gazes to the sky
One thing on her mind
A boy she once loved
Lost in her past

Memories of him
A smile Rises
As she thinks of him

Her heart races
At the thought
Of his perfectly, Imperfect blue eyes
That shine so bright
When he looks
To the starry sky

The way it felt
When his lips touched hers
A kiss of love, a confession
With no words, his eyes Glowing with love

Two people, United as one
Her first kiss, her first love
Was the boy she loved so much
That was always at her side
Never forgotten, forever ingraved
Upon her loving heart

The Girl Of His Past

He gazed to the night sky
One thing on his mind
A girl he once knew
One he alone cared for

The way she smiled
Lit up his life
Her beautiful Green eyes
That glowed in the moonlight
Like stars in the night sky

His heart raced
Every time she was near His like grew to love
His heart fell spellbound
When he looked her in the eyes

The way it felt that day
When goodbye was hard to say
Tears that were in her eyes
Made his heart ache

The pain, the ache
His heart felt, that day
When he had to say goodbye
His Love could not go unanswered

A confession with no words
A love so strong
He didn't want to say goodbye

His heart belonged to her alone
His first kiss, His first love
Was the girl, who remained by his side
All his life, the one who lit up his world

The ache he felt as he went away

To the place so far away
From his one true love
The girl of his past.

Kellz Decker

The Player

You played me like a fool
Left my heart in a trap
Fighting truth for lies
But yet you continue this game

At day your in the gym
Gazing In wondering
My mind starts to think
We're you ever worth it
Worth losing my self over

In class you keep looking Looking her way smiling
I can't help but roll my eyes
For she don't know your games

You always tell us girls
"I love you, I mean it"
Do you? Or you just playing
Because it don't seem like it
For you always leave, after a week

I can't sleep at night
For your always on my mind
Those girls you played
Did you really feel that way
Yet I can't help but wonder
Are you worth fight for?

They gaze and flutter all around you
Batting there eyes, smiling
Yet do you ever think
Maybe someone out there loves me
Even though I'm way I am

Soon enough in years time
You will see the truth
You lost a diamond
Searching through all those rocks

The Shadows

Words cannot reach me no more
There's a sorrow deep in my soul
A pain I can't seem to bare
For no one knows how I really I feel

A loss of words I am at
For life has me trapped in blackness
The shadow always at my tail
Whispering things in my ears

The devil in my head, darkness
Darkness in my heart, scaring it
Blood that lays on the floor
From the cuts on my arm
Not a soul can reach me now

Black is all I see, darkness inside me
No light do I bare anymore
For the devil took my soul
Now forever in the shadows

Knife in my hand, slits on my wrist
For not even light can save me now Scars left on my heart and soul
Forever locked away, never Never to be seen again

Body on the floor lifeless
No movement of motion left
For this world was too dark Even I alone couldn't stay long

The Way It Comes

The flames claim the heart
As the calling is near Feelings so clear

The way it heals
As if all was fine
Growing stronger
The closer it seems

Eyes so bright
Opening my heart
Lifting my spirt
Setting it free

Pure as night
Holding the heart
Not letting it fall

Kellz Decker

The Way It Feels

Radiant as the sky
Scattering my heart
Light it a fire

The stars that shine
Upon your blue eyes

A flame you lit
When you came Into my life
Lighting it with life

A heart that was once dim
Now, Flows with love
Vanquishing the darkness
That once laid dormant
Upon my Aching heart

Your heart filled with love
A love that shines so bright
Like the sun in morning sky
Way it glows, so beautiful, so bright
As if it could shine for days at a time

The warmth i feel, when you are near Like nothing ive ever felt
The joy that gleams upon my heart
As you hold me close, upon your loving arms

The life that shines, a glow so bright
For the love we share, is unlike no other
The way it feels as you hold me close
In your loving arms, as we close our eyes
The way it was meant to be, my forever and always

Thinking Of You

As i close my eyes
I dream of you
I dream of us
Happier than ever

Living a dream
Being forever
A perfect harmony

Looking at you
As if you were All i needed
Hugging you

As you wrap your arms
Around me
Looking into thy eyes
Saying i love you for the first time

Kellz Decker

True Loves Passion

You hold me tight
In thy arms
That truly care

Looking at me
Thy passion
That shows

Thy love we know Glowing bright
Holding thy hand
Pulling me close

Looking into thy eyes
Holding me
Closing our eyes
As the kiss connects

Was It Me

I stare in wonder gazing
Couple's around hand in hand
Then I fall into my mind
Wondering was it me?

Words stuck, heart locked
Caged up inside, lost
No light can save me now
For the chains have me trapped

Tears fall into my hand
Making me wonder
Was It me?
The one that made you leave

So many doubts on my mind
Leaving trapped in darkness
My shadows surrounding me
Deamons on my tail

Was it me? What did I do?
All I can think about
Is what wrong I did
One that lead you to leave

Tell me please why?
So I may understand
The reason im now alone
Lost in my shadows
For the deamons are after me

Kellz Decker

Waters Rage

Like the water
That slams
Against the wall
Smashing the concrete

Breaking even more
As i stand tall
Being Strong

Smashing others
Who come
In my way
Hurting them

Showing my way
My strength
That i hold
Will Never end

Kellz Decker

Way It Felt

The way it hurt
That day of goodbye
Not wanting to go
To leave those i cared for behind

The ache upon my heart
That flies like a trigger
When your name is mentioned
Upon someone's conversation

How it reminds me Reminds me of what We once had
The way we cared

So many memories
Flash upon my mind
When i stare at our picture
One i couldn't Hide

The love we had now gone
Not one day have i smiled
Since the day you left me
Left me shattered in pieces
Wondering why i wasn't enough

How you told me you loved me
Now you don't even speak to me
The pictures of us, that sits
Sits upon my window sill

I look at it day after day
Wiping tears from my eyes
As i look to the sky
Thinking of you, and the love
The love i still hold for you

You may say you don't care
You may say it's over

Yet you don't realize
True love last forever.

Kellz Decker

What If

Tonight i made a wish
Upon a shooting star
Wishing to be yours
Yet to you im just a shadow
But still i wonder what if?

What if you noticed me
Saw me looking at you
Would you speak to me
Aknowleding my existance

What if we were meant to be
For it seems to me
That we are a perfect fit
Because when i see your eyes
I can see us, and a beautiful life

What if you were mine
Here at my side
Holding me in your arms
Would you stay by me
Through the thick and thin

What if i became your wife
Living by your side
Till death do we part

What if we had kids
Are they gonna be like you
Charming and wonderful
The sweetest children alive

What if is what i keep asking
For when i think of you
I feel my heart racing
Wishing you were mine
One that i want to fall in love with

Not a word can explain
How my world turns upside down
When i see your green eyes shine
Under the moonlight sky
Like a star in the night

When I loved
Never was I so happy
Blessed in so many ways
For there was no one like him
He was one of a kind

Each moment was special
I cherished it day after day
Was hoping it'd be forever
For to me he was perfect
I loved him for who he was

Times were so precious
Whenever I was with him
Everything was frozen in a moment
Leaving me so in awe

Was it fate or chance?
That I will never know
Because with him
Life was so amazing
So enchanting, so beautiful

When I loved
All was right with the world
Not a day, did I doubt
For I had the love of my life

I awoke today
Thinking to myself, was it worth it?
Answer was yes in so many ways
Because one thing, I know for sure
I'd do it all over again, in a heart beat
Because I love him ever so true

Not in a million years
Would I have guessed id find him
The one who changed my world
Turning it upside down

When I loved, I was blessed
Because I found the love of my life
The one I won't ever forget
For life was so amazing

When Will I Learn To Fly

Like a sunny day of May
I sit by the lake
Watching birds fly
Wondering to myself

“When will i learn to fly”
The birds soaring above free
Free as can be
They fly to wherever they please

I sometimes dreamed
Like an eagle so gentle

I walk to my room
Looking out the window

I sit on my bed
As i close my eyes
I wonder to myself
“When will i learn to fly”

Kellz Decker

Why Me?

Once in a while, I smile
Yet deep inside I'm crying, broken
No one can see what I'm hiding
For a sadness like mine may burden
There's not a joy left in me

At night I'm in my head
Wondering to my self "Why me? "
Why must I live in the life I am
A life of sorrow and sadness
One I cannot bare to live no more

I do what I can to survive
Smile day after day doing my best
To hide the sorrow in my eyes
Hiding the pain with a smile
Hoping one day the pain goes away
For as of now all I can do is smile

A place I alone can be
One where I can be me
For I alone only want
Want to be free understood
Yet somehow they still ignore me

Why must I always be invisible
Out of site, never seen
For to some I am nothing
A nobody that's unwanted
Why must it be me? Why?

Not a hello or goodbye
A lost cause, like I've never existed
Tossed out like yesterdays trash
Forgotten pushed away
For everyone despised me so

Once more I asked why me?
Why must I live in this life

One that has treated me wrong
For if only they knew
Knew I just want to belong

I smile day after day
Laugh night after night
Always hiding behind a mask
For being strong is all I can be Yet I still Wonder "Why me?"

Every now and then
A smile appears for real Yet can they hear me scream saying "just except me"
For not a day goes by do I wonder
Will I ever see the day I actually smile?

Winds Glory

I fly
The clouds

So pure
So soft
As if
An angels wings

Took flight
To the sky
Soaring bravely
Guiding me

Through the darkness
Where I rise
Free to live

Kellz Decker

Wishing Star

Wish I may Wish all my might A wish I wish
In the sky tonight

One that is true
For only I alone know
The wish I wished tonight
On the wishing star

A wish I held dear
For no wish is alike
Mine truly is one of a kind

Wish I may Wish all I might
For my wish to come true
On this wondrous night

Oh wishing star
If you heard my wish
May it be true
For ive been waiting
Many years to come

You alone know my wish
That is true so you alone
For I have been waiting
Many years for it

Oh wishing star
Grant me this one wish
One Ive been waiting for Since Ive been with him

Sincerely yours,
The girl who saw your shooting star

You Boys (Girlsworldbook)

What is it? that we cant see
Your so confusing on everything
One minute you care, next you don't Yet when things get hard you leave

You tell us "i love you its true"
But do you truly? its hard to see
Loving us is all you wanted
For its why you choose us right?

Choosing who you want to love
Then next minute suddenly another
Is this a game you boys play
Or you just playing with our heads
For we don't get your aim

Sayin we are the one
Next minute your on the run
Searching for a new love
Because we didn't let you control us

You think you need someone new
When we don't play your games
So you go and run searching again
Hoping you find someone who will play
For you need someone to hold

Sometime in the near future
I hope you teenage boys learn
Playing these games, breaking hearts
Only ruins your chances at true love
For no one will love you, knowing your a player

Boys lets be honest, us girls
We only want loyalty, honesty
Not lies or games
For breaking hearts really hurts

So boys go ahead play your games

For only you will suffer in the end Playing with rocks breaking them
