Kendria Holley()

I am a 39year old mother of 5 that once lost the love to write down feeling though, but now I am more inspired by my family friends and begin to write again. Hope that my poems send some message to those that may be struggling as I do. Yet remembering at the end of that victory that God above will pull you through. My poems are basically my thought and feelings about my daily life. I would encourage others never to lose the desire to write

I Don't Know What To Call This....

You know I have been thinking about all the things I wasn't consistent with or didn't follow through one because of worry about what people would say think and feel or maybe being told that I couldn't etc. It has discouraged me and make not want pressure my passion and dream. But now today I can say none that stuff matter will I be prosperous yes. Will I be successful yes. Do know when or how or what it maybe no. But what I know the most my faith never dies my Spirit never dies I know things are coming not just for me but for my family friends and love ones. I can't help that I am different I can't help that I don't see things the way most people May see but things I learn to love about me. Is when I see others happy and doing whatever they need to it brings a smile to me. I mean look I like to do for others even if I don't have much to work with. Some may say well that's crazy you don't really have much to even be giving but you do it. Well look I am a Humble Genuine Gem I always been I have tired to fit in I have tired all type of things just not me. Its point in life when you come to well I just have be the way God made me. That's all I have say on this day

Take A Look At Me...

Take a look tell me what do you see. What you think I am dumb naive don't know anything. You think I worthless so in denial that I blinded to the things that have happened and have changed. You know nothing about me how dare you take advantage of me and my dignity. Take a look at me tell me what do you see. What you think that I'm going to let the look at me side eyes and let you downgrade me no I don't think so that's not me. Take a look at me tell me what do you see. You think I would sit here and let you make me feel like that I done nothing. Take a look at me tell me what do you see. Just imagine me at the age of three wanted that love and affection. Wanted to be love unconditionally and accept it always felt different from others people are always judging me people always misunderstanding me people never listen to me taking about words out of content. Go in one ear out another not even try to hear or understand what I've tried to say, it's funny how people always want to say they does something to help somebody but forgot what you done for them. Take a look at me tell me what do you see. I see you want to know what I see, I see me.

A Peom

Only a dreamer knows the powers of their dreams
Hence dream big to be happy and wise because only dreamers know how to pave their way
They are the only ones who live life on their say I know that it can't be true

Dreams when I know can't be true
Then also have some hope within
Dreams I know will take away my pain
For a moment or even for a sight
Getting there to a pleasant night
When things I can do and want to Dreams can let me do what I wish to do
Its me and my dreams tonight!

For a night is going to be so bright! For dreams are the only way to make our life gleam
Life without these dreams would be a dark black cloud
Without a silver lining, no beauty in it is found
Dreams sometimes is life.

A Mother's Love

There's no love like a mother's,
Her heart is filled with care.
With Christ as her example,
Her Savior's love she'll share.

A mother's love is endless,
Not changing for all time.
When needed by her children,
A mother's love will shine.

God bless these special mothers,
God bless them every one.
For all their tears and heartaches,
And special work they've done.

When days on earth are over,
A mother's love lives on,
Through many generations,
God's blessings on each one.

Be thankful for our mothers,
Who love with higher love,
From power God has given,
And strength from up above.

As Others....

As others were I have not seen
As others saw I could not bring
My passions from a common Spring
My love is from a summer rain
As I wonder what to type or write
Trying make sure all that oh so right
As others were I have not been drained
Use to hide all the heartache and pain
But as I think about what I have been through My sorrows and struggles are what Pull me through
As other were I have not seen
As others saw I could not bring

Look Up And Smile

When you're feeling down and nobody is around don't frown you
Just look up and smile

When you are broken into pieces family and friends are not around you just look
up and smile

At times it may be hard, and times may be broken into pieces You just look up
and smile

When you feeling down and nobody is around just look up and smile

Sometimes we get weak and attention we sometimes seek but don't frown you
just look up and smile

Where the crown with authority You just look up and smile

At times we may seem so close-minded but we have be strong and hold on you
just look up and smile

When you are feeling down and nobody is around don't frown you just look up

When you are broken into pieces family and friends are not around you just look
up and smile
