kenneth cobey(3-22-1985)

I am that kinda poet that write from the mind. i know that when u read what i write it will take u into my mind. alil bit about me: 25yrs old black male, from potomac, md i love to write music and poetry, travel, work out, cook, clean, play sports, hang out with friends and family, and more

Found Something In You

You are Beautiful, You are an Angel, Your Smile light up the world, Your Hugs Warms My Soul, Your Eyes i could get lost in, i never knew i could fine a person that i could enjoy all my time with, i never knew that god would hear my pray, i never knew that the first time i saw you i told God He is Showing Off Now, when i sit next to you i am lost for words, when i hear your voice you blow my mind, when u toch my hand my heart skip a beat, my world was dark but when u came into to my life it became whole, i cant see my world without you in it, i couldn't see me founding any one that can do it better then you, You are my sun when i wake up and my moon when i go to sleep, i am happy to call you my baby...i know one day i will feel your lips but still that day i will be happy just to be next to you..

I'M Still

i'm still fly, i am still flying high, i am the cant be stop, i'm still here, i'm i cant understand why i have all thses haters, i'm still the greatest, i been through the pain and the rain, i'm still that person u want to be like, i'm still the best of the best, i'm still got them words that cant know one beat, i'm still that man ur woman wish she could be with, i'm still that man that ur woman think of when she with u, i'm still that man that ur can do it better then u can ever be, i'm still fly, i'm still flying high, and cant know one stop me

Take It

Life is what you make it, Make it how you take it take it how you like it, like it how you love it, love it how you feel it, feel it how you want it, want it how you take it, take how you need it, need it how you had it, had it how you work it, work it how you planned it, planned it how you give it, give it how you took it, took it how you dream it, dream it how you well i let you think about where i am going from here....
