khadeejah roberts(june 6,1994)

My name is Khadeejah Roberts, & I am a student at Riverdale High School. I started writing music since I was in the fifth grade. I would always on my free time would write songs or poems. I would usually write about things I see going on or something I experienced. People always love my poem. As a freshman, I am taking an elective, which is chorus. I have been taking chorus for two years now & it's amazing. I have been in choirs before that which is why i love poetry and writing songs! ! !

About Love

Love is like a fairytale you can dream it and it may come true

Wish it, think it, love it just to see what comes through

Love can be like a flower you can sense the morning dew

Spread your arms open wide to see who hugs you

Love can be like frosting on top of a cake

Because it's something you give and something you can take

But be careful who you love
Because your love can simply break

Because love is love
And it loves your life to ease or complicate

Darkness

In a world of all dark
No sun will ever shine
Sliced by a tree's bark
Get you out of line
    It's all pain
It's pure hurt
No one for help
Let the blood burst
    Blades are the outside of pain
Inside is just held back tears
Watch it pour watch it rain
And everything goes to shears
    Your crying and dying
Your face shows your fine
You fell from flying now hiding
Can't let the sun shine
    So used to the darkness
Can't stand the bright light
Stay hidden away
Along with the night

People want you to bare
They now know it's useless
They can only try to help but stare
You stay in the world of darkness

Grandma

Sweet as a rose Seen every where
To me is she so close
With the tender of her care
Shines more yellower than a daffidile Loving me til' end she will

Sweet like candy
Everyone really loves
Nothing close to sandy
Can put nothing above
So sweet you'll save the wrapper
If it gets trashed, that you'll go after

My grandma is that lady
A special mother too
One who I be lost without If my life she never came through

Jealousy

Ignore a chick
Who just wants to hate
She's only jealous
She can't appreciate
That the fact of envious Gets her no where Chick can dogg you all she wants
Act like you don't care
Until she gets all in your face
And has words to say
You can get in her face right back
Or just simply walk away
So ignore the chick
Act like you don't care I say
She's just envious
So let her hate

Made Just For Me

When I came in this world
I knew what God wanted
For us to be together
Or our lives would be haunted

You dropped out the sky
Made just for me
Even though it's early in life
It still meant to be

There's no reason to ask the world why it goes round
Or why the ground grows clovers
As the same no need to ask
How are we made for each other

It's a simple answer Straight up meant to be
That you fell from heaven
And made just for me

Romeo And Juliet

A girl so truly in love
She thinks of Romeo and Juliet
Says he's her man
He just doesn't know it yet
Their heart for each other is secret
For now that's how they'll keep it.
Decisions to be made
Compassion to form
Hearts may break
Because the love is forlorn
Their heart for each other is secret
For now that's how they'll keep it.
Now things become serious
A love and hate moment
Makes situations so delirious
But don't really show it
She'll secretly continue to love him
For one day she'll know it be
She feels it will come
For now she waits and sees

She dreams of a man who's not hers yet
She has love for him like Romeo and Juliet.

Tears

Tears are words your heart can't say
They get so bad
'Til you want to take wings and fly away
The clear drops of tears
Shows a sign
Of all the pain that's hidden inside
You shut you eyes
And let the tears dropp
You it's already out
So you don't want to stop
Some people are watching
Some people want to help
But inside your crying & dying
And let yourself yelp
It's a pain that happens
When your heart hurts
It bubbles inside
Then outside it all burst
You wish you could take wings
And fly away

Teddy Bear

Your like my teddy bear
That I can hug non-stop
That cuddly, pretty piece of me
That floats on top

As sweet as you are
I feel comfy as home
Who I hold on to Like I do when I'm scared or alone

If you were a teddy bear
At a store to buy
I would reserve you for myself
To make you all mine

I'm in love with you so much
Like my own cuddly teddy bear
Even if they paid me many bucks
I still wouldn't want to go anywhere

Unsafe

When I'm alone
I consider myself safer
You with me at home
Makes me wanna change places
You make me want to leave & go
Your my mistake
Comes to look like emo
Where I bring in blades
My friends are more safer
They won't drive me out of insane
With them I don't suffer
Or don't lose cells to my brain
You to me are unsafe
Considering the fact that your real close to me
It's just a complicate
And a sad thing to see

Why unsafe you feel to me?
Is hard to explain to let it be

What Is

What is a heart without the warmth of a friend

What is the use of saying forever if you won't be there 'til the end

What is the point of breaking for you if you don't want to bend

What is. what is, what is the reason of my friendship for you if you don't want to be true

So, what is is the question for the 'friendship' we have

What is the reason for trying to fix it
But there's no use of going back
