We are now away from each other and We're getting farther, as We getting old

It's your 21 birthday
Your heart was like sky
Open for me in anytime

I used to be your 20 stars and now Am nothing more than who I am Lonely star, which has come up from the sky.

Some told me
Your heart is open for anyone
But it was closed front of me

I saw you in your 21 getting more shine
You shine like a star, but a soon I see Your heart's talking about your past

In this year nothing I could wish Nothing I could ask more, I wish to be,
With you forever.

This is your 21 so tell me how would my look like

A Cross Heart

time-in this time, i was the man.

lonely- a lone,
i was the a lone.

trying to fight,
to listen to your heart again.

i will die to kill things that kill our love, because i'm still love with you.

my love this can't be end, it discards from heart to your heart it's not like how people draw it?
heart with a cross arrow

it's like an ocean above the moon covering most words, with love and happiness.

so give me a chance to renew our love.
or give me a reason to end it now.

Brothers

Brothers, brothers the lights at heaven's gate shining

And my B.F.E becomes like one of the angels..
Flying to the heavens

He went up there, let me locked up alone with the devils

I miss the flower, I miss the rain and I miss the sunshine.

I miss them as I miss him around me Ya around me...

Winking may help his golden eyes to forget our past days
And remember our great days.

My loudly voice would rise, rise and rise Asking for forgiveness and waiting to get you back

While am locked up with the devils
My loudly voice won't reach you anymore

And the screaming in my head won't go

But my heart beat will rise up, pumping your name, Discard from my heart to your heart.

While am bleeding, while am in fire, crossing the snow Facing the cold weather, front the fairy queen! .

Ama call my B.F.E name only, wishing we are back Telling him sorry

Live all the sorrow somewhere out our heart
Where we can't find them again.

Burn In My Inside

Burn in my inside

Tears in my eyes

All coz of what has happened

I have tried to make the change

But the confusing is demon

It always gets me back! ...

My avowal are just like mercy

But you were still impious

In my thoughts you are my love

My destiny you are...

In every moment of my life I think of you

But in true life

You were so heartless

Never think of me

Never feel me...

If you are like what am saying so you are so selfish!

Of this life I feel suck

Coz all what was about me and you, was just a dream

I spend my life dreaming of you.

The word impossible I use it just for you...

I loved you..

My eyes was for you like home..

And the happy song, I sing it just for you.

I wish you can come and tell me why you played with me

And you turn around just like how the world turns around me.

khalid alalawi

Could I? ?

I drive through the ocean

Looking for my heart

Searching just for you,

Hoping that i could own wings

Wings so i will be able to flay to you

While am facing the hard weather

And dreaming to be near you

You were so simply shitting me

So why can't i be stronger than this love

And live things just like demon

ya just like demon

And now do you still think I might save

Do i survive alone in this volcano?

Galaxy {said}

Let the heaven gets open And listen to these words.

Let them say what ever they want to say..
Let them see me cry like a baby Coz i don't care any more.....

Let them know that i lose my soul
That i have lost part of me That my brother has gone... [let them know]

Even if they made say that I'm crazy
I keep say his my soul
I keep say his my brother..
And how come body live without soul.

Never feel scared as i have felt to day Never feel alone as i have felt to day

Feel like the world getting to the dark side And there is no way to get out of it.

Never think that place we met going to phobia..
Could it be my destiny to be alone Or its just part of our sinister life..? .

I'm believing that he is in abetter place
So God plz tack me to that place with him...
And let me be with him for my rest of my life...

Her Lies Funeral

It been so fortune to have her in my life Unfortunately without her

She was like candles on my room Illumination the room with her smooth dancing flam

But a soon as her flam went off
The light went out my life

Living today to be with her tomorrow was my aim
And her promise was tomorrow will be all about me with her

Clock, clock! tak tak! time has gone
And tomorrow has came as her promise has been gone

Bary me today with your lies Cause tomorrow will be your lies funeral

khalid alalawi

How Did I Felt

I felt so alone

I felt so cold

I felt darkness around me

I saw the night so long and the day so short

And 'ama' keep trying to climb the highest mountain

Trying to get spark of your light

Trying to reach to your heart

Trying to feel that warm feeling I used to feel with you

I wonder if I could get the time back before this war starts

To tell you how much I love you

To dance with you my last dance

Sky's raining, city are sinking, but ama keep swimming

To reach back to your heart

To reach back to my home land

Let us stop this war

And build the city back

Let us heal our selves and stop the fight

We only live ones, so live it like it's your last night

khalid alalawi

In The Funeral

I worked alone at his funeral wished to be mine

I say

you left me alone in this scary world so I closed my eyes hoping wind will come to change the places.

I worked to the west and saw his face smile and raising up sky

I asked him why you leave me alone but he gone away... away from me.

I'm now in the south in the place we met for the first time I looked around, searching for you just for luxury life

I woke up to realize my BROTHER has gone

I worked at his funeral holding with me all my sorrow even if life and people separate us..

I'm going to love you in my whole life even if you are going to be away from me I always wanted to be with you out there.

khalid alalawi

Its Something Else

I drive in the ocean

Looking for my heart

Searching just for you, hoping that i could get wings

Wings so i will be able to fly to you

While i am facing the hard weather

And dreaming to be near to you

You were so simply shitting on me

So why can't I be stronger than this love

And live things just like demon

Ya just like demon

No Love, No Lover and No Lost

khalid alalawi

Just You

look in to your eyes

into your face

searching my heart into my your heart depressing my life

into your love

I'm just a victim of love

khalid alalawi

Love Surprise

I shouldn't be surprise when you will hate me tomorrow

I cant believe I just let you go away

And now I will be some how chasing you there is nothing I could do ells hoping and wishing.

My only memory when u are not around of me is singing your name.

I know that we are surprise cause there is gap between us.

but at the end i know we are going to find that sine of our love some may call it love surprise, but I will call it my true love if i could see the future before being in love

I know it will looked like how it it looked before.

but after going throw all the sorrow am sure its not love surprise.

Mum Don'T Cry

Mom don't cry, i hope you get your head up.
even if it destroys your heart, never give up.

I know mom you feel down,
But I'm going to change it now.
Relax, no matter what people say about me.
Just single thing you need to know.
That I'm your lonely son.
SO no matter what they say.

Mum don't cry, i hope you get you head up.
even if it destroys your heart, never give up.

I know, that I'm doing wrong, to save pennies and earn some pince.
I swear that I'm sorry, Mum.
But I couldn't banish that page.
coz after all what they have done.
I couldn't forget when the cops were round me and the fellas behind me, or one day you might find my body on the roof.

but Mom don't cry about this.
even if it destroys your heart, never give up.

khalid alalawi

Never Goes Down

Glad until I die like great worrier Who never goes down?

Even if I know I'm lonely man, but I never go down

So back to back! ! ! ! .
I live my life like worrier,

Somewhere alone in this road, I'm going to be telling a story Of great worrier has lost his life in this road.

So plz my god, I'm waiting for it
For some to come and take my soul like, that great worrier WHO NEVER GO DOWN, BUT I'M ALONE.
So what the hell you waiting to take my life.....

Somewhere alone in this war
I'm looking far by my eye, wondering where is going to be my end.

I make so much to save this war.
But I get so much to hate this war.
So how could you still didnt take my life.

Pictures

Some pictures are not just photos.
Some of them are memories.

memories which have been saved in my heart In place no one can take it

Few of the photos I have stick them in my room
I looked at them when I left the room Wish if my day will be like one of them

And when am back, I asked God to renew this memory once again.

Remember that day when I was whispering your name near the window, with silent tears.

If I could just forget about who we are and what we become Ama start new life, with noo love Until that time ama say I love you

khalid alalawi

R.I.P

I'm just so fuckup depressing... i can't live without my soul.

coz without u I'm just living in the darkness.

could it be my destiny to live depressing alone in this life..

since i saw the red light shin.
i couldn't see the sine...

since 7: 16 to 10: 15 i was calling him.... asking him to answer my calls... wishing he was still alive....

So plz plz, the lark at heavens gates open.. open for his peaceful soul... and let his soul live in peace...

khalid alalawi

Reasons

reasons came to forget bad thoughts i give 100 for your lies i live for you.

warra "eureka" love is not easy as i think someone should spot me from my life i have been for you.

tell me why you lie.....
teach me right from wrong.....
stay with me, stay with you.....

warra keep behold to her angelic eyes remember the good things that we have done i know your manner.

neither avoid looking to her, devil smile i keep remembering my past i sing for you.

so, tell me why you lie.....
teach me right from wrong.....
stay with me, stay with you.....
I sing for you.

khalid alalawi

Sige Of The Love

It's not a question, what is love?

cooz I know you know what it is

All the things that you have done

Or things that you are doing it

It's just sign of our love

When you look at the sky

Or when you listen to the ocean

You can't just let it go

Coz that is the sign of our love ya sign of our love

So baby come to me, together we are batter

Even if some people don't understand

I will keep walking through the ain Feeling soo warm coz of your love

So why don't we get together And live the life together

Before this love will explore the earth

Our tears are nothing more than sign of our love

So why don't we save them
And say to others
I love you.

khalid alalawi

Wanna Try

every one wanna try
every one wanna go

wanna lovely she is my super star she's completely my life.

she a just little star up the sky wanna lovely she is.

how far she is far away from me she completely my breath

i can't stop thinking about her all the time wanna purify heart.

every one wanna try
every one wanna go

even if i know i'm working so alone i keep work desolate.

even if i know my love is dim i keep fight through it.

even if i wanted to try i may know it.

punks alot and wisdom a rarely so every one wanna try.

khalid alalawi

When I

when i look at the star

up the sky

to me you are so far i wish i could fly

what a lovely you are you complete my life

i wish i could die with you how lovely you are

khalid alalawi

Who I'M

I'm higher than rain, colder than snow when I wanted to be,

But am be hottest than lava, loudly than thunder

I'm looking to my target like rushing Hurricane

Your heart is my target and your friends are my enemies.

Am be biggest than anything around, but I'm still nothing to your heart

So small to reach your mine. So weak to call you my love.
So lost without you.

Those words could never stop pumped as much I still have some feels are discard from my heart.

I could call you my hero, my super human or even my hunter but I can't never ever show you what you mean to me.

Or to my heart, Coz you always been more than that! ! ! .

khalid alalawi

Who Would We Be

where are you when am seating alone, needs you where are you and you the one who used to say: 'together for ever', you the one who used to say: 'i feel u by my side even in this far distance'...

you are the who used to say no one can seaport us unless allaah takes our soul, you used to say: ' yarb, take my breath before his! '

where are u now...

where are u now when the night is so long, silent in everywhere and darkness in this love! .

we used to be one hand, one team, one family.... you used to hold me up when i was going down and i give you hope when you feeling down...

who are we now when this all start to turn to be a story! ..

How would we be when was our last wish that we will be together..

khalid alalawi

You

being far from you kills me coz of word miss.

And being near to you makes me crazy coz of the word love.

How I supposed to treat you far you kill me, nearness makes me crazy and without you i can't find my breath.
