You And I (I Thought We Were Meant To Be)

Sometimes I feel like we are so well connected
Like nothing can separate us
But then I learned that you have a girlfriend and now
I don't know everything just seems so trivial now

I try and forget my feelings for you
But you know what Even I can't
I don't know why because you're nothing special

But to me you mean the world...
The only thing that calms me down is thinking about you....
So what if suddenly I forget my feelings then what will calm me?

When will it be my turn to be your girlfriend?
I laugh at everything you say even though you love someone else...
It seems like you and me have a private joke....

But the weird thing is I doubt either of us knows what the joke is....
We laugh and act shy when we're near each other....
My friend says you get this weird smile on your face, but you know what so do I...

I might only see you twice a week but that is enough for me to get all weird....
I know you have a girlfriend but I wish you were mine....
I was really hoping to be able to kiss you this summer

And maybe I can I mean I still have 6 more weeks give or take....
And maybe I'm not meant to kiss you
Maybe just maybe I will find someone else to kiss.....
