Memories

Now.

In verge of destruction

A far gone world

With memories cherished

In blemish thoughts

Two souls

Parted by destiny

Crawling with words

To gather stuffs

Wandering in the darkness

Refining every promise

To search those tiny bubbles

Lifted in air of vicinity

Two parallel lines we are

Simply two banks of a riverside

Never supposed to meet.

Sand Dunes

You are like sand dunes
Of my memory lane
Solely reducing
In that desert of darkness
My memories and you
Forever in thrist
To glimpse
The pain of endurance.
