Lew joy()

Hi my name is lewis.

I like to write poems now and again
when i feel im in the mood :)

Friend

Your a friend il always cherish
Our friendship will never perish
You look after me when the shade is near
But it always fades
As brightness appears.

Lily

A love so strong
our eyes so bright
nothing can stop us
not even at night.

A heart so bold
my mind set to you
nothing can stop me
all the way through.

A flower so piercing it pierces me right through straight in to the heart
i love you.

The Moon....

The piercing orb
silk in the sky
a wonder above
i wonder why?

The circular dream
shining so bright
A elegant piece
spreading earths light

The blossoming halo
glimmering on the sea
oh what beauty
what is thee?
why is it there?

No one knows just sits in its beauty
in the crisp clean air.
