A Perfect World

We were in a world;
The world pushed us
into another world.
With river of tears,
We reached the other world,
But we saw trees, stars, mountain...
We saw different faces.
Then, we heave a sigh of joy.
A sigh saying:
This is a wonderful world.
We thought,
We have reached our world.
We thought,
We have reached our destination.
We embraced her glory.
Alas, her glory is sinking us.

The world has unveiled her paths:
A path of transient bliss,
And a path of lasting bliss;
A path to a perfect world.
Which path should i take?

A True Friend

Oh trust! why did you betray me?
I embraced you.
I confided in you.
But you stabbed me at my back.
You throw into the prison of trauma;
Pushed me into a coma.
Who can i trust?

Trust me.
embrace me,
And confide in me

Diamond Memories

The pen of your life is writing.

Can you erase the text that has been written?

Please, don't stop the pen
Squeeze those sad and painful memories.
Throw them out of
The window of your mind.

Let the pen writes
More golden memories.
Give God the pen of your life.
And let the holy spirit writes
Diamond memories into your life.

Enveloped By Love

On a sunny day,
I saw a glamour girl.
'What is inside this beauty? ' I thought
Her surface beauty called to me,
Like an angel's voice.
I walked to her like the wind,
And we became friends.

A million of days opened
The door o her surface beauty;
I walked inside,
And i saw a gracious girl
Sitting on her heart
And love enveloped me.

Golden Evening Sun

Golden evening sun
Beam your warm rays
On us.
Sail us in a romantic flight
With your golden light.
Ride us in your romantic atmosphere
To your golden sphere.

Maximize The Moment

Hands wish they could Push the hands of time backward.
Alas, time moves only in one direction.
Spitting her sad and exciting seconds.
Where is time taking us to?
Laugh with time,
As she ticks away to her death.

My Girl

what will i call her?

An epitome of beauty or an enchantress?

Eulogistic words collided and danced in my mind.

Look at her endearing and alluring smile, that placates and lifts my soul.

Her mellifluous voice,

enthraling than that of a nightingale,

creates an atmosphere of tranquility around my soul.

In her mesmeric eyes, beaming like a star

i see a world of my fulfilled dreams

Look at how she sways her captivating hips, sending a signal to my nerves,

setting my nerves into motion.

i want to taste her sensuous lips;

inhale her breath

I want to caress her gorgeous curvy body;

feel her soft and glamorous skin,

that reflects the sun rays.

What will i call her?

She is more than an enchantress

no word to describe the charms of my mistress.

The scorching sun

Withdraws her hot rays

When she sees her.

The downpour

Changes to drizzle

When she sees her.

Her fragrance is sweeter

Than the rose.

I want to sleep in her fragrance.

My girl is more than enchantress.

Her beauty is a heaven;

Her beauty is my haven.

Sound Of Music

I was depressed and sad
I took a walk down the street
searching for solace
i heard the sound
the melody filled the air penetrating through my ears to my melancholic mind
engaging my mind
to her words

Oh, the rhythm!
moved my feet
and caused my head to nod
immersed in the lyrics
drove my mind
into reminiscence and imagination even visualization
seeing old friends and past events
seeing life without birds

Oh, immortal sound!
you have drowned my mind
a requisite for the soul
a lullaby,
that makes babies to sleep
An antidote to worry
saddens hearts
moved eyes to tears
tides of the ocean, rainfall...
glorious God!

The Greastest Treasure

The grass withers, the flower fades,
And there was light
The world is like flower
He spoke the word;
The world came into existence.
Diamond, silver, and gold came into existence.
What do you need in your life?

The word is like air
Inhale it everyday
The word is like water
Drink it everyday
The word is food
Eat it everyday.
He gave you a heart.
Meditate on it everyday.
He gave you a mouth.
confess it everyday.
Can that negative situation
Stand the word of God?

The word is your everything
Create every good thing
You need, from something;
The word of God
Fly to heaven; kiss God!

The Greatest Fear

Clouds covered the sun
with their dark blankets.
The sky was very unusual.
It was not as dark as night.
They complained:
A figure is in the sky.
This is not solar eclipse.
it is the second coming of Christ.

I was looking through my window.
Some eyes were quaking
With fear.
Some legs were running
To no place.
Some bodies were frozen
Like ice.
Anxiety has dried their blood.

A mere illusion!
That caused a wonderful apprehension.
It was just the heralding of rain:
A heavy rain

We Are In Love

Where is my heart?

My heart has jumped into your beauty.

She has sunk in your beauty.

She has bonded with your heart.

Where is your heart?

Your heart is in my heart;

My heart is in your heart.

We are in love.

Wear A Smile

Wear a smile.
Unload your worries onto him.
Tomorrow will take of itself.
Focus on your past achievements.
swim in your future achievements

Wear a smile.
Grin at those forlorn faces.
melt those solemn faces.
Smile at the world
In six days, he created the world
