Girl In The Mirror

Who is dat girl in the foggy mirror;
Who is dat girl staring back at me?
Is that girl really me,
figure me, or figure this is this the girl I want to see.

I Want Run And Be Free

once time runs by me all i want to do is scream, once the wind surrounds me all I want to be is lifted once you get close to me i want to run and be free,
I want to run, i want to scream, i want to dream.
Please time dont catch up to me.

Run

When the lights go out what is there to see
When you walked out you tried to take a part of me
Is there more, that you tried to be
Please don't run away, with a bit of me.

Time

When time runs, we are only learning how to crawl;
When time flies, we are only learning how to cry,
When days and nights go by, we are only trying to keep up with time.
