Lizee Beth(July 21,1994)

I am sixteen years old and I love reading poetry and after studying poetry in school I decided to try to write my own poem. my teacher thought it was great so I decided to continue writing. I have over forty poems so far and continuing writing. I just have the love it takes to write. After I starting poetry I decided to turn my poems into songs and later then began writing music to them. I enjoy writing especially about family, I hope you enjoy my writing....

Daddy Not Here Anymore

how much i miss you could never be told the days pass me by and it never grows old

the numbness is lifting mental fog setting itself deep i feel so incredibly lonely as i rock myself to sleep me tears barely fall though the hurt goes that far i'd do absolutly anything to go where you are do anything to talk to you ill never see your beautiful face words couldnt describe you nor the impact you had on this place i look at pictures of you countless memories set in i wish i could reach you but theres no way to begin i can no longer touch you or reach for your hand im drowning in emptiness and ill never understand i cant say how i feel or recognize the pain fear is breathing within me can i hold you again?

because its not the same the same with out you around and i still look around but you're nowhere to be found

Darkness

I'm swimming all alone in a pool of darkness and I feel like darkness is slowly pulling me under I yell for help but no one is there to hear it I begin to see the water at eye level and I kick and fail fighting to stay above the darkness But the darkness won't let go of its hold on me and I slowly begin to give in to the feeling that lies below the water line the waters starts to fill my lungs the lungs that once held so much life yet now they allow the murky water to replace that I know that this path doesn't lead to happiness But why doesn't someone grab my hand pull me from darkness's grasp? because no one knows I stand at the boundary the boundary between light and dark so I give in to the thing that holds me All of the strength and all of the courage that I once held in my heart can't save me from the water So I slowly slip below the world of conscientiousness undetected by the occupants of that world I don't want to fight anymore I've given into darkness

Friends

The leaves are green
The clouds are white
My heart is lifted High up in the sky
The grass is green
With snow here and there
The colors of leaves Look all bare
My eyes are blue
Maybe even green
The heart is red
My love is true
My head isn't hurting
No pounding inside
My hands are full
Of all this lust
My friends are loved
And true as one
We make a team
Together as one
The friends afar
Are shaking hands
They say hello
And become their fans
I love my friends
All over again
They are the best
They are the midst
Of all my dreams
I stare off in distance In search of more
They are my life
They are my breath
I take in their love
The shame and pain
They are all I've got To gain such value
In my life
They are there for me

In times of need
I turn to them
When I've met the time
They colors of the rainbow So high in the sky
Are also on the faces As my friends pass on by They will be near Shall not be far
They are the reason For why I'm here
Friends are family
Always there for me
They help me out Even when not needed
They love and care
They never bail
They never fail
I gain much joy
From their love they share Always there to care I love them always For whom they are
For what they've do
And for them alone
They come all around
They all are different But that's what matters Their smiles so big So cheering and bright
They are the best
When needed a light
They need your prayer, Your friendship most Friendship is all that counts It's the main thing That sounds in life
It's the happiest thing That I have had in my life And will be for evermore I love my friends always

And could never let one go It would be too hard
For what they all have done Everything counts
But fighting does not Fighting brings tears
But love brings delight
I love my friends
For the tears we've shed
For the happiness
That we got to share
We love each other
Here and there
We shall not let go Any year to come
Don't let go Just hold on
All will be well
And all will be bright
My life is light
When I have my friends
It is dark and gloomy
When they aren't around My days of joy
My days of happiness Comes around when friends Are about and around
They comfort me in times When life gets hard
I love them for caring
All my dreams
Have been made Some are still waiting for I know now that My friends are true
I'll always love in the future
The times we've spent
So long ago
Made me feel
So strong again
You must learn how To cherish your friends

Because they're all you've Really got I'll always love my friends!

Hidden Love

For you my love's been growing from the day that we first met.
You have always had my heart, but your heart I could not get.
We became the best of friends but I kept my love inside, because I didn't want to take the chance of having it denied.
And then one day I got the nerve to tell you how I feel 'cause all the love I had for you could no longer be concealed.
To my surprise you told me that you wanted more yourself, but as friends we grew too close to take a chance at something else.
You said that I was like your brother knowing secrets from your past and if we took a chance as lovers, then our friendship wouldn't last.
I listened to your words, but to me they made no sense.
So to try to stop the pain inside I took up a defense.
I told myself that there are other fish in the sea, and a girl would have to be a fool to deny a guy like me.
I thought I could forget you in another woman's bed, but no matter who I slept with you were always in my head.
And I noticed that no matter how much I slept around the love you got so easily was nowhere to be found.
I couldn't care for anyone the way I cared for you and it seemed to me another girl was never gonna do.

So without a heart to love with it makes me quite annoyed that the friendship that you tried to save was totally destroyed.
I know you're bound to give your heart to someone else someday, so I choose to keep my distance so I won't stand in your way.
Plus I know that if I were around I couldn't stand to see the love that I knew deep inside should have belonged to me.
So now I can't help wondering if telling you was wrong.
Should I not have said a thing, or did I just wait way too long?
I think that if we took a chance then things could have been great, but I don't think I should take the blame because I chose to wait.
To say anyone was wrong or right, I guess that it depends, but I think that if you're lovers then you should start off as friends.
But now we've lost our friendship and we've gone our separate ways.
I have learned to live without you and I guess that I'm okay.
However I've forgotten how to let my feelings show, and if I'm still in love with you I guess you'll never know

I Heard An Angel Say

I thought I saw her face today in the sparkle of the morning sun and then I heard the angel say her work on earth is done

I thought I heard her voice today then laugh her hearty laugh and then I hear the angel say there's peace little one at last

I thought I felt her touch today in the breeze that rustled by and then I hear an angel say the spirit never dies

I thought she had left me for the stars to far above

I thought I would miss her and never find my way
and then I heard the angel say she's with you everyday

Lizee Beth

I Miss You Daddy

my heart use to be filled with so much hatred towards you but now your gone and im not sure what to do i miss your smile your gentle touch i miss your laugh daddy i miss you so much so much i took for granted id take it back if i could let go of the bad and focus on the good

i never saw this coming it took me by suprise gone without a trace gone without goodbye

In Need Of A Friend

If you ever need someone To talk
I am always near
If you ever feel lost I'll be right beside
I love you forever
I like you for always Together will be
The never ending
If you are ever to sick I'll take care of you
If you are ever to scared I'll hold you
If the lights ever go out I'll hold your hand
When you get cold
I'll give you my coat Because I'm here for you
I love you forever
The never ending song
Of one's heart
Of one's mind

Innocent

I've been holding onto everything that leaves me empty.
Why can't I just let it go?
It's so hard to see through, Don't know how it always gets me.
Or how I got down this road.
I could never do enough.
There's no way to buy your love.
Cause you've already paid for all the things I've done.
And you say to me that I'm already innocent.
And I can't believe you take me as I am.
And I'm on my knees begging for forgiveness.
I know I'm guilty
But you make me innocent
How can you forgive me when you know it's not the last time?
And you know I'm gonna fall again Though my hands were dirty You were the one who died To cover all my sins
I could never do enough
Cause you've already paid for all the things I've done
You say to me that I'm already innocent
And I can't believe you take me as I am
And I'm on my knees begging for forgiveness
And I know I'm guilty
But you make me innocent
I know I don't deserve it I know I'll never earn it So tell me how you can hold me in your arms And say to me that I'm already innocent
And I'm on my knees begging for forgiveness
But you make me innocent

It's Hard To Say Goodbye sometimes life deals you an unfair hand just remember us in every dream you'll see when you reach the other side of this land it's not as bad as it always seems when you feel down just give us all a call we'll always be here for you we will never let you take a fall so lean on us when the sky is grey or blue we promise to always see you through we'll all miss you deeply lizee but we all in you have faith remember us even when you're busy we all promise to keep your friendship safe while your of in Phillie we'll all still be here, so call and we'll all still be crazy and silly we promise to find a way to make you tall (jk) don't be a turtle within a shell when you leave, stay in touch we all wish you well and we all will miss you very much don't you be afraid and don't you cry be tough and promise to stay strong we all know its hard to say goodbye but before you know it you'll be here (home) where you belong

My Dreary Heart

My Dreary Heart Feb.3,2011 the sky so high so dark to sad the land so plain the clouds have gone goodbye to blue hello to the moon its so dark how can I tell where my heart is now its all so different and hard to tell the story from here why cant this all just stay instead they fade away the dusk at night finds its fight and leaves it to us to find our ways the waves are to bumpy its hard to not fall I have fallen deep down way below the ground its so hard to stand back up to see the sun rise on up if you come up it will be more down and even harder all the time the sun is so bright like that sweet smile but when your'e down there is a frown im not sure how but there is no matter what how can someone like me and you go through all this evil pain its just not right and nothing makes since on to how this could have happened what made it so bad that I couldn't stand was it something, someone or was it me

I don't know but soon I will I will find out what has been causing all this evil pain, it just isn't fair for one to handle a pair its so hard to tear and put back together I cry so hard but no one hears am I really that depressing I feel so empty so unloved so forgotten
I just wish I had someone someone who knows me someone who cares for me and someone who loves me not for who they want me to be but for who I am I hate when people judge me I don't think it's right people start arguments when it comes to judging it can be a real pain like a pain in the heart feeling like its falling apart falling real quickly not just slipping but falling like a comet a comet from the space full of solid ice when it falls it shatters shatters in to a million bits the heart is so dark its as dark as the night time sky my heart is so black so dreary inside this may be the reason why im so sad every season it gets to hard to where I cant stand I feel so heavy its just so weird I hate my heart especially when its black my heart gets so heavy when I talk to family they must be the reason to my dreary black heart why on this earth should I be here it isnt a good place for me or my heart I should be alone alone in hell where my darkness wont hurt anyone the only one I could hurt would be myself, and me alone why must I feel like this its so hard for those around to see me in pain all they gain is the pain im in somehow I spread the pain and the waves just get rougher I hope I dont cause to much more because my friends may not be here here on earth much longer the waves will get to rough to where they overcap and steal my friends and carry them out to the sea the brutal, harsh, terrifying sea seagulls hover the sky waiting for a friend to leave they fly up to heaven while the birds feast its so traumatic for those who see but they wont remember what they saw they would be to busy starting a new life up in heaven with their father that they use to know through prayer but now they'll know through death its hard to believe but times are hard and its hard to cross the stormy waters you just have to forget about it the troubles and pains causes the waves in life so stay calm, think of the good think of the bad and all will be sad for if its good you will be glad it isnt right to be all down I never want to see a frown if I do ill change it around im sorry for everything the ups and the downs I just wish I can fix everybody problems without hurting myself its just so stressful to keep everything up it weakens me down to my worst im not exactly sure what I mean but somewhere inside I do you may not understand this reading but to me its really touching and opening to the heart this is bringing tears to my eyes and tightening to my chest and throat its hard to breath and water is building in my eyes I wish I knew what is going on and why this is is this all true and real or is it fake if it is fake, will I cry a lake

I dont want to but it is very so I might I just think I might have to it may be the best for me and for you if I let out all the pain through cries will it make my life different but I don't know how it will help you how should I live through this or should I ask how can I I want to be able to be with friends and to have a good family and to have a nice school but im asking for way to much and I know this wont happen to me, all that will happen to me is go to hell hell will be my new home in sometime but not some time soon.
I wish I didn't have this feeling its so hard to get rid of Im glad I am taking this pain instead of someone else I am even more hurt when I see someone going through the things I have or am now its just so heart breaking to see someone hurting this badly I don't see how someone can just keep it to themselves for many years like I have done I wish I havent broken my heart so many times in life once its broken it doesnt fix thats the hardest part of all I wish I had never done it it would have made a huge different to me and to everyone I love and there would be no more pain or even guilt feelings I would have been able to live the life thats supposed to be mighty and to learn how to love and to accept others for accepting me it would have given me people who care and love for me and who would never forget about me why am I typing this this isnt right for me to be typing I should just tear it up and throw it all away far away into the world possibly the universe if anyone reads this it will probably make them so upset and hurt in the heart which I cant handle so I may now just throw it all away and tear it to shreds but wait let me say one more thing but it may continue on and on like the rest has well..what is jelousy why are my friends jelouse of me I hate when my friends who think I have to be with them and no one else I like spending time with all my friends but also alone time with my friend I hate putting my friends down and having them feel like im ignoring them all the time I never want to ignore them but they always think I do I feel so bad when they think I do when really im just..I dont know I love hanging out with friends as one it makes me feel like we are all

and always there for one another in times of trouble and need its so hard seeing a friend walk away especially if its your fault I wish I had a twin who could go with one and I go with the other I dont know why its so hard for my friends to accept the fact that I have more friends than just the one but apparently its too hard but then again, I understand I too had done it which is why I know how it feels I hate when people are jelous of one another its just not the right thing to do its painful for the one in the middle and hurting to the 2 friends I dont see how people can have enemies but I know I use to have one but one year we made up and are best friends now its just hard leaving a friend forever I have lost so many friends but I know them still they lie on the top of my heart guiding me through songs I know they haven't left forever but in life they have I learned to love my friends so they will be with me forever I dont know what I would do without them the time has come and will depart its time to search for a new heart im going to leave this one all the way behind and search my way around to where I can have a hopeful loving, caring, heart I love my friends, this may be it now I have to say the end but not really just goodbye till I see them again it may be awhile till I see them smile but I must have patience to be mild I dont know how I can handle this move when I have to say goodbye I have to say goodbye to my friends, pets, school, teams, and my amazing students who I love to death

I miss them already even though I haven't left when will it be time to say goodbye I hope I can do it if I dont ill break their hearts I hate hurting people and this may be a big one I shouldn't have already planned it but I have and now..
I have to go through with it all all the pain and no way to gain a thing I wish I could just slip into a drain where no one would get hurt and no one would know its just to painful for long lasting friends what will I do with out them I say again
I wish I could take my dog with me he will miss me so much he is my baby and always will he curls up in a ball and closes his almond eyes there he lays in peace and silence keep me warm and secure he is always on the watch and aware of me he knows when something is wrong and comes to sit by or runs up to give a big hug oh how I love his hugs so big a loving he is the best what would I do with out my dear sweet beau now im going to move on with all this writing and change the subject actually it will probably be the same subject but who knows
I sure dont know

I wish I could be open not like talking open but you know what maybe I should just stop stop all this nonsense its turning out bad and making me sad I feel like the ocean full of water and dirt I wish I didnt but I cant stop it how do I get rid of this feeling like im no one and that no one cares and why am I feeling like I have no one no one to be there for when I need them I hate the things I hear they are never good always depressing and mean why cant they say nice things to me I wish I could change them all but somehow I just cant its so hard to not listen to but i end up listening to them anyways how can I tell them to leave and leave me the hell alone but im scared if I do I don't know what will happen if I do or what they will say is there a way to say shut-up without having having the fear build up in my heart how can I say it why did they come in the first place where did they come from when will the go away far away, I wish I wish they would leave me alone and never come back ever again and if they do I dont know how ill exist

I hope they dont go to my friends I dont want them to have to go through all this mess it is terrible to handle and probably one of the worsts shall I keep going or shall I stop my life is just so depressing and empty there really isnt anything to say except the fact that im so plain like the color white so useless and helpless that nothing in this world counts or atleast doesnt for me my soul so empty my heart so dreary the tears in my eyes so clear like the sky my face is so red like the flames of death its so hard to see the colors of freedom if there is such a thing the birds are singing such a sweet rythmn they sound so peaceful and so happy I wish I was peaceful and my life weren't so crappy its all so confusing and all so frustrating its so complicated and so hard to deal with if freedom free or is it something to gain what is the answer and the answer to life well the answer to life is you have to live the life you want and fufill it with hope and to share it with someone as might as you once you find the special someone your troubles and fears will soon be gone so I say again love your life and your life will be loved life it what you make it and will be affected by those around and will affect them as well it is so hard to not hurt someone its probably the hardest thing in life I wish there wasnt hurt if there werent things would be easier and well as less stressful but you make the stress and cause the pain

My Grandmother

since I was a baby, you took care of me now I'm almost seventeen and your baby, I still be I'm older and wiser and busy as a bee but there is no excuse for my forgetfulness of thee your birthday passed by me and I'm sorry as can be you're very special and you always will be if it wasn't for you who knows where I'd be today, I look around me and everything I see I have because of the things you taught to me I look at myself and guess what I see part of you grandmother the better part of me I know that it's late but this is my birthday blessing to thee
God made angels among all of us you, my grandmother was one that He touched and He gave you me when I was lost you gave me a home and loved me a lot somehow you did it even when it was tough you raised me as yours you gave up a lot now I'm all grown up and I like looking back to the times we spent together remember how we laughed God made you special you did all the rest My Grandmother the Angel you are one of the BEST

Lizee Beth

This Is For My Ex-Boyfriend's Cousin Kenzee Dennis on your birthday

I wish for you the fulfillment of all your fondest dreams I hope that for every candle on your cake you get a wonderful surprise I wish for you that whatever you want most in life it come to you just the way you imagined it or even better I hope you get as much pleasure from our friendship as I do I wish we were sisters so I could have known you from the beginning I look forward to enjoying our friendship for many more of your birthdays I'm so glad you were born because you brighten my life and fill it with joy

Happy 20th Birthday Kenzee

Lizee Beth

This Is For My Ex-Boyfriend's Mother Anjee Stiles

Anjee you're like an angel
with all your kindness, tenderness and everlasting love you have always looked after me and taught me right from wrong and when I'm down or worried it's always you that comes along you're not just a mom but a friend of mine a friend I can't replace and everytime I think of you all I see is your smiling face

I thank you Anjee for bearing me and allowing me to see these times because if it wasn't for you Miss Anjee I could never write down these lines

Walking Alone

Destination drawing near sound of silents piercing death ears walking along the frosty roads answering to myself with a burden and load stale smelling breath lingers around as I keep on walking till I find that is found forgotten whats real as phychosis reveals blisters and sores bone breaking heals walking alone comes to us all the young the old the short the tall eating you up like your no good till one day you'll finally have understood feet march on like every beat to your heart grasping at memories until they fall apart one way to go down this lonely road trying to save ones soul and keep hold finding some hope in your heart to end a journey begin a new start in the end its decomposed bones time to take a path to end my walk alone

While You'Re Gone

My days are empty,
Nights are so long.
Everything brings you to mind, Like your favorite song.

Clock keeps on moving,
As time flashes by.
Nine months today,
I still wonder why.

Memories haunt me,
In the dark of night.
Silenced, I reach for you, Knowing it isn't right.

Tears barely fall,
Rage an apparent friend.
Regret follows guilt,
A heart, numbness defends.

Denial shadows thoughts, Subconscious too shocked to realize.
Soul has yet to acknowledge,
Your very sudden demise.

Sickened, I'm emotionless, A struggle to go on.
Lost in pointless wonderment, Oh, I barely belong.

I yearn to hold you,
Feel the touch of your hand.
Question how we got here, Almost impossible to understand.

Torn from my darkened reality, I fight to hold on.
It's difficult to breathe, Breathe while you're gone.
