Dream

A dream is a whole new place,
A better looking place.

Something you want,
When ever you want.

People do what you say,
While you just lay.

I am Queen,
I am Supreme.

Leo

Leo is cool,
Energetic and small,
Out or in, big and tall.

Mummy

I love my mum so very much,
Because of her gentle touch.

A shoulder I can cry on,
While she sings a lovely song.

She works so hard everyday,
so we can get away.

I think she is so clever,
She helps me with my work whenever.

She lights the day,
When it is grey.

Her heart is big and bold,
Good and gold.

So this is one important thing to say,
I love her in every way.

Happy Mothers Day!
