....! ! A Loved 1! !

someone you loved,
someone you cared for,
so deeply in love,
you want to die for,

your so in love,
that through your heart its nothing to serve for.

.....! ! Families! !

families are like no other that just sticks by each other whenever you go there not gone forever families are like nothing unstuck together in the future thes nothing between them, but always the love they have for each other.

Honesty

Honesty is like holding something in your hand, its also like you care, if i did so much like honesty, theres lots of love i would like to share.,

Neva 2 Late

there is never a time where you can

Fast Forward things, there is also never a time where you can Rewind things back to the begining.....

wondering how things work and how things change, it is never to late to say, good day mate them turn away.....

Time And Appointments

You can never ask for the world to keep going, you can never ask for the world to end, until we wait for the 2nd coming of christ, no one knows when he's coming, no one knows where,
but only if you are faithful enough you can endure to the end.....
