Lost Soul(3/4/92)

Im living this life to try and see if my scars will ever heal. But now I kno I will live with them forever cause they will always be there. I just want love. Love is my healer. Wont anyone love me?

"captured By Darkness"

In its arms, I lay cold.
Holding me tightly, never to let go of what it has captured.
Hoping to possess the spirit of thy Lost Soul
trapping in all the pain.
I stand still as my blood runs thru my veins.
Releasing all the happiness and making it into ashes of sadness.
Hope slowly drifts away
and I am left alone, captured by darkness with nothing else left to say

Lost Soul

"the Lifting Of My Heart"

What if you wanted something but that something was taken.

What if what you wanted, wasn't yours to take.

Do you give up or do you try to get it back what was taken?

Years will past you
and you have yet to take a grasp.
What will become of you?
What will become of that something that you left for the past?
Time slowly fades away until death.
What was meant to be mine
has been ripped away from me.
She slowly drifts away with time.
O why have you taken her?
She was mine in my heart!
She was mine, until you let her fall apart!
Why does thy Lost Soul feel so empty?
Others await for my return
"Don't give up, at least try."

Trying to stand tall,
I walk with no care.
Trying not to fall,
I run with a straight stare,
Eyeing the angel that made me whole.
Running, Running trying to grasp the falling
Within the darkness is my love
Do you hear her calling?
I fall beside her and take a grasp of hope
But we slip, falling, falling
I glance into her eyes and my heart lifts
She has returned and we fall together

Lost Soul

Angel

Her beautiful brownish hair being blown by the gust of the wind
Her hazel eyes twinkling in the cold night
Her pale body glowing sparkly white her beauty drawing me to the attraction of the light
She soars through the sky watching over darkened souls
Helping the suffering cease their inner pain and warn the ones heading toward the dark
My call has been heard, finally taking the hand of my Angel
Her touch, so warm that my blood no longer was cold
For it has turned into boiling blood, ready to take over in my veins
Taking me into her arms, telling me that I will survive
Soothing my broken heart with her unforgettable words
Thou heart and soul of mine laid in her hands
With every strike of pain being shot at me
She winded them away with the power of light
The power endured pain on the ones called The Warriors of the Night its cloud thrives on the broken hearts in sight
As the battle grew closer and closer to our victory
She began to fade away
Slowly releasing me into this insanity we call life
For the darkness has ceased, resting for the biggest battle yet to come
Before the light took her in, she had promised to return
When my battles were too tough for me to handle on my own
Her promise to this day is kept in my heart in soul that she healed
the feeling of joy lifts my heart, for I live in peace
Never will I forget this moment
When the Lost Soul was saved from the hell
Forever I shall hold her in my memory

Lost Soul

Cheated

My scars made from you, deepen as you tell me your mistake.
The sick feeling in my stomach. How much more of you can I take?
Your explanations, so full of excuses and lies.
Trying to tell me it meant nothing. The want to run and hide.
Just Leave! The hate for you boiling in my heart.
Torn into pieces, feeling so broken apart.
The vision of what you did, torturing me. How Could You!
I gave myself to you and this is what you do!
Clutching my fist with rage. The want to just SCREAM!
Look what you did? You broke me in two.
Maybe telling you what you did to me, will burn within you.
You promised, you gave me your word. I shouldve known what you'd do.
My love for you blinded me from the truth, from the reality.
So discusted of just your pure sight.
Staring as you fake your pity for me, the illusional light.
As every tear trickles down my face.
My anger and sadness turns to hate.
So many emotions circulating my soon to be black heart.
Stab after Stab. I shouldve known how you really felt about me
You never loved me, I was just your puppet, your toy.
Was that all I was to you. Did my love atleast mean something to you?
Well darling I have had enough, cause now your nothing to me.
GO! I F*CKING HATE YOU! !
Burn in hell, feel my pain, bathe in my hell! !
I hope you rot in this hell of a cell.
You made me suffer you put me in pain.
I hope you had your pleasure and fun.
CAUSE SWEETHEART WE ARE THROUGH..DONE! !

Lost Soul

Come Back To Me

Oh dearest Love of mine. My dearest love.
I sit and watch as you take your first flight,
Your first step toward your desires and dreams.
Oh how it hurts to see your leave.
Oh how I wish this was just a bad dream.
I wish I never met you,
Then I will not have to suffer the hurt of having to let you go.
You made me one, as so did I to to you.
In my heart you shall remain forever.
Thou tears of mine shall fall never ending.
Watch as my tears fall from the heavens calling for your return.
For my heart shall forever thirst for your love,
For it shall bleed of its missing piece.
Before you leave my arms, stay a little longer.
For thou moments with you are prescious as the jewels of your heart
Give me your hand tonight, tomorrow does not matter.
Let me hold you in my arms and bathe you with my pure love.
Let me take you to the wolrd that you have been longing to return to.
Give me your heart, let me heal its scars.
As you break away from my arms, promise me of your return.

Lost Soul

Cry Wolf

For so many years I thought love was dead.

Till i met the angel from up above the granted my wish and said:

'I love you':

Such heart warming words finnaly said to me.

My nights of waking in fear and heartaches, finnaly coming to an end.

Lost Soul

Explanation

Forever I will never understand why you quit.

I made a mistake and that was it.

My lies are meant to hide the truth behind who I am

I tell them for the simple reason, that you will never understand.

But you and me are alike; we are from the same clan.

You were my everything; you were my Angel I looked up to.

My only thoughts were of you.

Your thoughts have you confused.

In your mind you are a girl who will never be understood

In my mind you are the girl who would stand tall when ever she could

My love you have given me life and inspiration

With out you I cannot breathe, I have no respiration

I am giving all that I have left, to you

My heart is laying in your hands

Please try to understand what I am saying here

This is my explanation of all my lies and my tears

My words are my only hope to get you back and to define all my fears

I give you my hand and you push it away

I am saying all that is in my heart and I am asking for you to stay

The words that I have left to say have never been told to anyone

But I love you, you are my light, most importantly you are my sun

Lost Soul

Falling

I clutch my heart once more and fall to the ground.
Screaming. Yelling. Hurting inside. Love yet to be found.
Nothing left to take back. Fall like a broken chain.
Bleeding in loves disaesterpiece. Whats left to be gained?

Lost Soul

Farewell My Friend

O to my friend, my dearest friend.
My mistakes are unforgiveable
Thou lies of mine are unforgettable
The love and hope you gave me, for I shall cherish it
Protect it with my life and pride that I give for friendship
With you gone, there will always be a scar burning and hurting
My heart will forever be longing its other half
Not a soul to take your place, its yours for eternity
I shall wait for your return, wait for your forgiveness
So many chances you have given me, but all I have torn to pieces
All that is left is the silence, the heart ache
Without your love to hold me in my darkness, I shall fall forever
Without your friendship to guide me in this life, I shall drown forever
I am sorry, so dearly sorry
My words of atonement weren't enough
But the Lost Soul never leaves a friend behind
Even if the friendship is broken
O to the sting in my scar, forever it shall burn
Farewell my friend, my dearest friend. Till you return..

Lost Soul

First Kiss

The day so vivid in my mind, so indented in my heart.
I shall never forget how safe I felt.
Just the touch of your sweet lips made my heart melt.
Pulled you closer to me, took you in.
Little hesitation, took my breath away.
Fed my heart the love it has been craving for years
Not wanting to stop, going on till the break of dawn.
Just wanted to hold you in my arms,
Whisper in your ear that it will be alright.
(It will be alright, baby)

Lost Soul

I Bleed

Love gone bad, cutting deep into my heart.
My world falling to pieces, slowly turning dark.
The nightmare creeping up my spine, painfully seeping in.
Wounds beneath my skin begin to reopen and sting.
I fall into my pool of blood. Overwhelmed from sadness and grief.
With emptiness and a broken heart I sit and I bleed.

Lost Soul

I Remember

I remember all the times I used to smile
All the times i jumped for joy when i was just a child
All the times I thought I was in a world of make believe
Thinking everything surrounding me thinks twice before leaving me

I remember all the times I felt free
All the times joy will fill all the holes deep within me
All the times i would fall and have the will to get back up
Knowing that in me was a soldier, always to be tough

I remember all the times I fell for you
All the times i thought your heart would be enough
All the times you broke mine and made a fuss
Thinking you would love it, but instead you turned it into dust

I rememeber when i broke your heart
All the times I would break it like you did mine
All the times i made you think i loved you
But now I'm with out you and i am doing just fine

Lost Soul

If I Had You

If I had you
Would my pain cease, will I be able to smile?
If I had you
Would this nightmare end, will I finally be alive?
If I had you
Would I be able to love again, would you be able to love again too?
If I had you
Would this darkness finally disappear?
If I had you
Would you finally be able to remove your mask?
If I had you
Would I finally have the courage to tell the whole world how I really feel?
If I had you
Would my heart finally be one again?
If I had you
Would you finally be able to understand my hell?
If I had you
Would you be able to tell me all your fears?
If I had you
Would I be able to catch all your tears
If I had you
Would all my wishes come true?
If I had you
Would I be enough for you?
If I had you
Would the flame in my heart turn blue?
If I had you
Would you be the one to save me and give me your hand?
If I had you
Would I be the one you can finally understand and relate to?
If I had you
Would you be able to tell me all your secrets?

If I had you
I would promise to love you till my death.
If I had you
I would promise never to break your heart.
If I had you
I would promise to hold you when you feel torn apart.

If only I had you, I would be able to show you who I am
Maybe if I had you, I wouldn't feel so dead

Lost Soul

Illusional Love

Ashes fall from the black sky as memories start to burn and fade.
Our hearts turn dark from the shadows of loves shade.
Illusions dragging me into its merciless love game.
Clutching me from the heart, watching it as it bleeds of love.
Manipulating my mind, blinding me into believing whats not real.
(Its the thirst that lies in your eyes that makes me believe what I feel)
The unreal cuts in deeper, drowning the bandaide that covers my soul.
Wont someone save my heart from the emptyness and make it whole.
But as I wait in the cold and suffer of a strong want and need.
The Illusional Love takes one more strike and lets me fall and bleed.
Down on my knees I hear a call once more from up above.
Something in me tells me its no illusion its real love.
But when something so real is gone is when you start realize what you had.

Look into my eyes, tell me it wasnt real.
No longer am I capable of keeping what I feel.

Take my hand tonight my fallen angel lets fly away to our fantasys.
No more do you have to dream. With me you shall wake living your dream.
They say Illusional Love always comes with a heart break.
But any love with you comes with only a heart beat.

Lets not run in circles no more, Lets run into eachothers arms.
Lets not run from one another, Lets walk towards eachother.
Feel what I feel, that hurt in my heart with a burning sting.
Fear no more my love, this is no illusion its just the real thing.

Lost Soul

In The Light

It glows in the dark
Holds me O so tightly in its heart
When I call, it grasps for my hand
When I fall, it helps me to stand
My eyes are drawn to its sparkly glow
I move closer and closer never to look back
Determined to gain what's lost in the past
When dead inside, it helps you to win the fight
When dead inside, it helps you by showing you the light
I have found hope and the ending to this hell
I have found my destiny, removing what was left of the internal spell

Lost Soul

Left For Hell

I can no longer breathe.
I can no longer take this pain in my heart.
I can no longer live with out you.
But what do you care, your the one who left me

I can no longer take these chilling thoughts.
I can no longer keep living this nightmare.
I can no longer love.
But what do you care, you never loved me

I can no longer look in the mirror.
I can no longer stand myself up when I fall.
I can no longer be a soldier.
But what do you care, you left me to burn.

I can no longer see you in pain.
I can no longer watch as your tears fall.
I can no longer let the darkness take you.
But what do I care, you left me for HELL.

I can no longer say these lies.
I can no longer say the truth.
I can no longer love anyone else but you.
But what do I care, I just gave up

Lost Soul

Love Story

A smile all of a sudden takes over my face.
All those good times, replaying like an old tape.
Remembering those moments we had, thinking it had gone to waste.
You took my heart showering it with such love and grace.
For once in my life someone made my heart feel like it had a place.

Then one day my heart wakes, left on the side to hurt and ache.
I saw you run to other side of my world, ready to walk out of my door.
You stopped and slowly looked with my heart in hand.
Tore a piece to take with you for memory and the rest to the floor.
I closed my eyes, put my hands together and prayed for your return.

So many years passed and I was so close to giving up hope.
Too many open wounds from our past love, I would dream to cope.
Standing on the edge of my nightmare ready to fall forever.
I turned my head for the last time and saw a light on the other side.
With out hesitation I ran towards it hoping I would run into your arms.

As I got closer and closer the light started to dim.
I dropped to the floor, drowning in my tears. Then I took another look.
You walked in with a smile and your arms put out like an open book.
All of a sudden I placed my hand on my chest and I felt a heart beat.
It was finnaly happy and eased of its pain. Finnaly assured my love would never leave.

Lost Soul

Luvze

I walk peacefully in the hallways with my head down.
My head slowly lifts to glance at the world around
Taking my eyes off the patterned floor for one second
My eyes head for another pair of eyes
Her attraction drew me to her hazel eyes that would glow at night
The feeling in my heart was deceiving; It was like if i knew her
She swayed like beautiful daffodils sway to the music of the wind
She pretended as if she was full of joy
But my eyes read her well, deep inside she had been destroyed
As our eyes entwined, my heart was slowly healing
She scanned me as if she knew the pain i had been feeling
As my steps grew closer to her, my legs became weak
All of a sudden my heart lifted, as if it had found what it had sought

Lost Soul

Memories Of You

Taking in the joy of your eyes at my sight
Seeing your smile and watching it as it glows in the night
Waking everyday wanting to see you
Wanting to hold you and never let go
Hoping that when I open my eyes your all that it shows
Thinking that when our eyes take in each others sight
That you would want me as much I wanted you
Telling myself that when I'm gone you would think of me too
But my love, you have left me to burn
I gave you my heart and you turned it to stone
Ready to be turned into ashes left to be blown
By the wind of your walk that left be to be torn
Now all I have left are memories of you

Lost Soul

Missing You

Lost within my words, remembering why you left.
Rage burns in my heart for reasons I cannot confess.
Thoughts in my head circulating for answers.
Pain becoming stronger, spreading deep in my soul, like cancer.
Something I thought would last slipped through my hands.
Hurting you. Hurting me. Lies one cannot with stand.
Time slowly ticking away everyday I'm with out you.
Telling my self I'll survive, but we both know that's not true.
When the end is near, memories of how it began start to haunt you.
My heart beating, starting to realize the reality that you're gone.
Hoping one day my love will return to her place in my heart
Going crazy! Leaving me when knowing I loved you from the start
I'm aching. Slowly disappearing in the dark.
The sight of you melts me into a puddle of nightmares.
Pretending my feelings have vanished. Can you read me that well?
Dark clouds creeping up my spine, slowly becoming tear tides.
Unanswered questions laying on my mind, ready to hear the truth.
Are you?

Curiosity will soon control your mind.
Wanting to know all the insanity that's left undefined.
Happiness hiding in its corner, hoping its you that it finds.
Fear in your eyes, hiding who you really are.
Why so scared, we've come so far.
Taking chances is the only way you'll find what you want.
It knows you live in the past, so its you that it haunts.
Learn how to let go, but who am I to talk.
Ever since you left, its you I've been missing.
My thoughts only of you, telling me not to, but I don't listen.
Where do I go, when I'm without you?
What lies ahead, when I'm no longer with you?
(Where?)
For I am so sick of living this lie.
You are the one who makes me whole and alive.
Why shall I continue to live; now I'm dead.
NO! Tears are an emotion I refuse to shed.
But the feeling is so deep, my blood becoming cold.
Comeback. (I see you)
Hold me. (I need you)

Dying. (I breathe you)
Don't make me let go, for I refuse to.
Seeing you in pain, for I didn't mean to.
For I will give you my love with this heart of mine.
NO! No more lies, with out you I'm not doing fine.
The want for you. (So strong)
The want for me, is it so wrong?
Missing you. (Missing You! !)
Are you?

Lost Soul

Monster You Created

Sitting in my dark corner, rocking myself.
Trying to wake this dormant heart of mine.
Memories of the pain shooting across my eyes.
Pain so vivid, so deep, so real.
Tearing me from inside out.
My young heart remembers the man in black.
Torturing me when the anger was too much for him to control.
My heart so used, so manipulated.
Ruining the young life he created.
(What a father you were!)

My eyes filled with rage, the fire turning crimson of anger.
My hands turning to fists, ready to attack.
My blood pumping through my veins, circulating for answers.
The clock ticking in my head, turning me into a monster.
With no emotion, no soul, no heart.
(Look what you did!)

Running, Running, gasping for air, looking for a cure.
Surrounded by the hell he put me in.
Eyeing the souls left to burn
They too are monsters, being tortured by the gods up above
(Your suppose to save us!)

Screams, yells, cries echoing in my mind
(Why won't they leave me alone?)
My eyes starting to see the truth behind it all
The mystery with in us, starting to unwind into the truth.
This past of mine eating away what's left of me.
I'm so tired of this HELL!
So frustrated of the fury that burns in this heart
(You see what you made me!)

Seeing the man in black smiling at his work.
(Are you happy now?)
Applauding at the cruel monster he created.
Shoving the Sh*T in my face.
Choking my dear life out of me
Seeing the light coming out of my eyes as he breaks my heart in two Tears coming down like a waterfall
Pain so strong, breaking me into a million pieces
My hell being shown in the blink of my eyes
(You see it?)

My hell being spread around this world
(Do you breathe it?)
My hell being shoved in my mind
(Do you feel it?)
RRRAAAWWRRR! ! !

Lost Soul

My Escape

A thousand hearts given to me at birth.
Just one more left. Here take it please.
For it has no use for me. Its broken.
This lost soul rather have no heart
Then feel the pain of a scared one everyday.
Oh wont someone save me!
Come quick my angel.
Living a day without you, Is like living a day without a heart beat.
My world slowly coming undone.
When the rain falls, the angels cry and so do I.
When the darkness feeds on our smiles thats when we fall.
So tell me god up above. When will our light shine upon us?
When can we live without worry we mite slip on our way.
Tell me when before I make my selfish escape.

Lost Soul

My Final Goodbye

On this day of March 4, shall my past be ridden from my memory.
Shall my Angel fight with me in the battles to come.
Take the sword of wisdom and fight away the darkness Ive been hidden in Shall my creator give me back my heart, my will, my strength.
Let the reality be loved, let the fantasy be remembered.
Make me a person of heart and purity.
Fill the gaps in my soul with joy and happiness.
To my god up above, wipe away my tears, rid me of my fears.
Let the light shine upon my Lost Soul, let it bathe me with pureness.
O to my love, guide me to the path of reality and misfortune.
Give me your hand, for I shall promise never to mislead you.
O to my darling waiting for me at the gates of my fantasys
Rest in peace and forever you shall be my true love.
Let this be my final goodbye, the ending to my chapter of my misery.
My past burning and turning, shall I promise to create the future into a past of beauty.
To thou guardians protecting me from the hands of darkness
Shall you promise to catch me if I were to fall.
Farewell my darling, for a new love has found me, to love me.
Never shall I forget the days you made me whole.
Till death do us part, shall you rest till the day turn into dark.

Lost Soul

My Wish

For so many years I thought in my mind that love was dead
Till I met the angel that granted my only wish and said:
'I love you'
Such heartwarming words finally said to me with truth and clarity.
No more waking in fear of darkness but finally bathing in love's purity.
In the arms of my love I pray to stay forever and always.
As shall my angel shall stay in my arms for all of eternity.
Deep within our eyes lies the fire within us. Burning of passion.
The flames grow stronger with every breath we take together, as one.
Our hearts, entwine as fate made it to be. Pulling us ever close.
The bond held so tightly. Not a soul to break us apart.

Lost Soul

Nightmare

Lying in the arms of my love
Fearing the worse to come.
Sights of the cloud trying to rip us apart
Holding on to my angel
It thrives on the torn hearts of the innocent
Determined to drill the most chilling of thoughts in their minds
Only the bravest soldiers survive the brutal beating of their hearts
It slowly starts to move closer to our love
Ready to endure the utmost pain to our souls
Our heads turn in fear, but the battle wasn't over yet
A light blinded us from above
The light so bright, it led us Lost Souls to victory
At the blink of our eyes it disappeared
The darkness has left out hearts
We were finally free, finally free of the NIGHTMARE

Lost Soul

O To My Dearest

O to my dearest Hope
for you have left me
To bond with anothers heart.
O but why, for i have saved you
On the days you have fallen apart

O to my dearest Friend
For you have ceased
O but why, for you have given me love and surrounded me with a life of peace

O to my dearest Love
For you have gone away
O but why, for i have given you life and my heart to lay, but forever you will stay

O to my dearest Heart
for you have been crushed
O but why, for you have been my soldier and the only part of me i could trust
Now your gone and left to be turned into dust...

Lost Soul

Savior

Oh my dear friend I remember how I thought winter would never be as cold as it is now.

How I never thought that such a thing as love existed when such darkness came along with it.

And here I stand. With my world lit on fire and all thats left is ashes from lost memories.

Oh if only you could be me for a day. For I would die to see you live me for a day.

For I my dear friend, pray that you look deep in your loves eyes and see what I thought I saw.

This is the time to cherish your loves smiles, for time can just ripp it away and there you will lay,

Crying in such sorrow your world never knew existed. And for your world too will be shattered.

For I my friend, will keep you protected from loves heartbreak but you mustnt be blind.

Till the day you feel your dying. Live every moment with your love, with a smile. For that is what makes love beautifull.

Lost Soul

Secrets

After all these times
I am standing here right by your side
After all this pain you caused me
After all these tears you made me shed
After all these years you abandoned me
After all these lies you have told me
After all this jealousy you made me feel,
when you did not care about me
I held you in my arms with a love untold

After all this $# you made me go through
I know you have so much more to do
But I still love you as my own eyes
As my lonely angel in the sky
I remember when you used to come to my dark night making every thing just look soo bright and now I admit that I am honestly and blindly in love with you
I adore you baby till the end of time and I wanna stay by your side till the day that I die
I know you don't want anything from me but I know someday you will realize that I am the one that you need

Lost Soul

Simply Love

I remember vaguely looking into your eyes for the every first time.
Almost as if a star were upon them,
When you would glare at me they would shine.
But thou perfection lied within your heart with a smile.
And the sight of your existence made my heart fly for alittle while.
Your gentle voice gave it a reason to beat
And when you would have to leave it would stop completly.
What could this be?
For I am to young for the eyes of love.
But I cant help but feel your my angel from up above.
The fear of my heart shattering in two,
is what stops me from taking the next step towards you.
But your arms of asurity have kept me safe through my dark days.
Now I know when I fall Ill have you to tell me its going to be okay.

Lost Soul

Soldier

A soldier is a person with a heart
they get pushed around and torn apart they hold their heads up high they stay true with their inner self their the bravest people on this earth respect them and their enemys won't get hurt
they guard our free land they protect us in any way they can in their eyes is pride of a true soldier they walk around with the weight of the world on their shoulders respect them, their the reason why were here their trained not to shed a single tear they fight tough battles
but in the end they never feel fear

Lost Soul

Soldier Boy

In their eyes you see pride their hearts are filled with pain they could never seem to find but as they fight grueling battles freedom seems to be the only thing on their mind their the reason why we roam free on this land they will help you in any way they can they seek victory in every battle they fight in the end their hearts are left contempt

Lost Soul

Suicide

It seems now a days suicide is my only thought holding in pain is what ive been taught its like you ripped out my heart left me with just my bones and tore the rest of me apart ive been known to be fearless ive cried so much, my eyes are left tearless cuttin myself feels so good every cut my pain away
if only you knew how i feel everyday maybe i will be a different person than what i am today
these might be my last words
if only i could find the courage but i know that day wotn come not apart of my life has ever been fun know its time to end my miserable life maybe by the end of this day
i will finnaly see the light

Lost Soul

'Taken Over By Pain'

It glows with a memorable sparkle
It leaves a never ending call in your mind
It crushes you, breaks you and takes you
May you fall and take what's left behind
May your heart and soul entwine
And share your past left in the sands of time
Awake from this mist of poison
Doomed in the depths of never ending darkness
Share the pain in which you have been chosen
Breathe it, taste it, feel it, see it, be it
Its in you, taking over your mind, body and soul.

Lost Soul

Tear Drop

A lonely tear falls from an eye,
Not sure why its been shed.
And as it slowly trickles by,
It finds a spot to make its bed.

There it stays. A meaningless drop,
No-one who loves it and no-one who cares,
Until it is greeted from the top,
By another stream of tears,

And as it continues on its fall,
To where its journey ends,
It finds its not meaningless at all
As long as it has friends

Lost Soul

The Angel And The Guardian.

When all seemed like nothing could ever be right,
My world was shaken by the earthquak of your love.
But this time the earthquake of love did not make me fall
For it took me off my feet for the very first time.
Your words sink through my scars and seal them shut from ever bleeding again.
Your sweet voice takes me to my fantasy bliss,
Where my smiles glow ever so brightly.
My dreams drowning of your memorable face in its entirety.
I wake every morning attempting to grasp what seems so far,
But no matter the distance
My heart seems to enlarge everyday because of you.
My angel finally shining the light to my world.
No longer is it dim from darkness,
But rather the glowl is just as bright as it was when it first lit.
Your words. Your voice. Your beauty. Your touch.
Everything of you captivates me in ways no other soul could ever do so.
From this moment on, till death do us part
My love for you shall never end.

Lost Soul

The Day The Whole World Smiles

It almost seems like yesterday
I awoke to the most disgusting reality.
The pinch that ripped away my blindness,
and shoved down the hate that surrounds every aura of every soul.
The epidemic washing away any possibility of love binding us all together.
Riots continue and picket signs swarm our faces.
Why couldn't I love another woman without ugly fingers pointing at me?
The definition of love is not something beautiful between a man and a woman,
but rather its something beautiful between TWO people
no matter the gender.
In my eyes and many others,
Love can be just as beautiful and heartwarming
when its between two people of the same sex.
Until the true meaning of love is understood by the ones who deny it,
My words will continue until the war of equality comes to an end and hate with it and the whole world smiles.

Lost Soul

The Ending

Surrounded by negative tension,
we live in this world of lies.
Undefined confessions
Drowning in my tear tides
Remembering the times that were lost
Voices echo in my soul. Telling me happiness has a cost.
Trying to escape this darkness, forgetting all the battles I have fought.
Crushed by deception, hate, and fear,
that are the bullets being hammered in my heart.
Its beat slowly decreasing into a silent sound
Captured by its attraction, its love to endure pain on the innocent
It invades deep in my crimson veins.
Chilling thoughts are indented, to make me insane.
My heart is slowly liquefying and burning in the hands of hell
I'm dying with my pride being ripped out of me
I no longer have the will in my to take another breathe..
Yes, I just gave up. This marks the Ending of the Lost Soul

Lost Soul

The Killer

Sitting in my little dark corner
Rocking myself, trying to wake my dormant heart.
My eyes bloodshot, seeing the shadows surrounding me.
Shivering in fear, scared that my living days are over.
Chilling nightmares flashing across my eyes.
Ringing voices in my head, echoing my mistake.
Sitting there, so sickened by what I did. (Why did you do it?)
Staring at my hands, so crimson by the blood.
Eyeing my worst nightmare. (Why did you do it?)
My tears drowning me in my own fears
Realizing that I just took a life.
Why did I do it?

Lost Soul

'The Lost Love'

O my lost love return to your place
Take over me and replace your self in this empty space
In me is only human, we learn from our mistakes
The flame is no longer burning
I'm weak, crying at night while my heart is turning
Let our hearts and soul entwine the way fate made it long ago
Fate is just cruel, It broke us apart from inside and out
From head to toe
The tears are washing away my inside
My heart and spirit are turning into ashes
They are being washed away by the oncoming tides
O give me life my love
Don't be my lost love

Lost Soul

The Silent Sound

Gazing out into the meadows of colorfull flowers
Watching them as they sway to the music of the wind
Letting us know that there is never ending happiness
You just has to find it to make it yours
Thy sound is so peaceful, you can almost hear it
It's a sound of joy to lift our hearts
Its a sound that makes me want to sway
Makes me want to stroll down the yellow brick road
As if all my misery was put away
Its howl calls me to join their musical dance
The light was glaring at my eyes as if it were giving me its hand for a second chance
'Lost Soul join us in out never endinf dance of thy Silent Sound'

Lost Soul

The Wait

Another day I have to wake with out you by my side.
My heart crushing of the hurt. Crushing of the lies.
The thirst and hunger taking over me. Limb by limb.
With out you, this life is a battle I would dream to win.
Before I dare to close my eyes. I would make a special wish.
To come back to me and be apart of my fantasy bliss.
No matter our destiny, I shall be with you for eternity.
In your heart I will remain; To shield it of any hurt.
To bathe its beauty and assure it eternal peace.
If you should ever call. I shall be there in a heart beat.
Never in the years Ive lived has my heart ever wanted another with such passion.
I would dream of us loving eachother and our story ending happily ever after.
But how could I lie to such a blue heart. For it does not have any part of you.
If you could only see my want and need for you.
I can no longer wait. The hurt is too much for a single blue soul to take.
But I shall wait for you my love. Wait till you return in the lost souls arms.
Where you truly belong.

Thy Dream Of Never Ending Lies

I awake and see darkness surrounding me
I stand on the edge of my fears
And relive my nightmares that wont let me be
Till the sun rises and shows me the light
I will live in this dream of never ending lies
I fall and let go of my pain that I held o so tight
The poison spreads deep in my mind
Its too destroy the hope that I could never find
My heart and soul are too be broken
And the ashes are to be spread never to be reawaken
We are lost in time
Never to awake again in this dream of never ending lies

Lost Soul

To A Special Friend

To a special friend that helped me during my darkest days.
To a special friend that showed me that loves comes in many ways.
To a special friend that is able to understand my grueling pain.
To a special friend that helped me find all my lost remains.
To a special friend that showed me the light.
To a special friend that fought by my side when I couldnt handle the fight.
To a special friend that helped me stand on the days I fell apart.
To a special friend that healed this torn heart.
For all the peace you brought me.
For all the love you gave me.
For the hand you have given me.
For the courage you gave me to live another day

To that special friend that helped me realized the truth
I say Thank You..

Lost Soul

Undefined

Tears falling from my eyes, hurt from all the uncontrollable lies.
The fires rages in my heart, remembering all the times I fell apart
My legs crumbling in fear, sickened by ever undefined tear.
Eyeing the pain that let me turn insane.
My blood runs cold from secrets yet to be untold.
I drown in my darkness, waiting for my scars to heal
Bleeding from the pain eating away my inside
Knowing that when I wake up, I will awake in this nightmare
Refusing to fall, trying to grasp for all the little hope I can get
But then I remind myself, that we live this lie yet to be undefined

Lost Soul

Awakening from the hell
beneath thy soul and heart,
where it broke me and let me fall.
It took me and gave me no call.
From the ashes of my soul
burning inside me
I lay in your arms crying begging to leave behind my pride.
Spear my life, take me away,
Far and never return!
Lost in the sands of time
I leave and take what's left behind.

Lost Soul

When You Know

When you know i cannot take anymore living without you
When you know you are the first and the last for me
When you know i am waiting for you till the death
When you know i don't wanna tell anybody 'i love you'
When you know that entire thing
Why are you leaving me?
When you have given your heart to me!

Wishes

She remembers thy past when her heart was whole, knowing that her secrets were yet to be untold.
Wishing for thou special friend to save her,
to know her true internal pain she had been feeling.
Wanting a dearest friend to be at her side, when the world was at its darkest
Her rejected, neglected, broken, soul had been taken from her to be turned to ashes and be winded away by fates design

She remembers thy past when fate tore thou Angel and her apart
Sinking in the happy, undefined times deep in her heart
Believing that she was living in a world of make believe.
Not knowing that what she was living was pure hell trapped in reality

She remembers thy past when she wished for something real
Wishing for thou angel to return to her and stay at her place
Never to leave her heart that was left for empty space.
Remembering thou times that were meant to be lost

She remembers thy past of thy winter.
Wanting to know why her love had left and why fate had to be cruel
Believing that no one would understand her pain and her loneliness
Asking her self why dost thou will cry?
Because she lives in a world surrounded by lies

Lost Soul

You Are

You are the light that shines from up above, that guides me to the right direction.
You are the missing half of my heart,
that's been lost in my soul's resurrection.
You are the angel that gave me your hand,
on the days I gave up hope.
You are the flame that burns in my heart,
helping me survive my problems I have yet to cope.
You are the will in my battles,
giving me strength to stand tall and fight.
You are the arms that hold me,
on the times I need to be held tight
You are the air I breathe, helping me give my mind, body, and soul respiration.
You are the voice in my head giving me my writing inspiration.
You are the cure to my pain,
ending the misery and hell I feel deep with in me
You are the soldier guiding me to victory, warning my soul of darkness I cannot see.
You are the love I've been looking for all these years,
hoping you'll stay in my heart were you truly belong.
You are the legs of this soldier helping me stand when I can not stay strong.
You are the one that weakens me with just the power of your touch.
You are the sword I hold beside me
when my fists to fight aren't good enough.
You are the lost spirit falling beside me
ridding me of my pain and misery.
You are the open door that lies ahead
for this soldier to find a soul and chivalry
You are the one that I seek.
You are the one for me.
With just your love I will be fine.
Forever and always, will you be mine.

Your Work Of Art

Look what you did my love
You see, you see what you did?
Look in my eyes, what do you see?
Your killing me, all I wanted was you and me.
Was I not good enough
Tell me, please I'm listening.
Please continue to tell me your excuses.
I want to see you smile.
I want to see you laugh.
Are you laughing at you work of art?

Look at me, why cant you look at me?
Are you too disgusted at what you did?
TELL ME!
Your killing me, why arent you laughing?
You like to see me in pain, dont be shy
Please continue to hurt me, I want you too.
I want to see you smile.
I want to see your face
Are you looking at your work of art?

Look in my eyes, tell me why.
Did you find someone else to love?
Did you find someone perfect?
Who is it?
TELL ME, do they know you inside out?
Was I not perfect for you?
Did I not love you enough?
Please continue to tell me your lies?
I want to see you smile.
I want to see you laugh.
Are you proud of your work of art?

Look what you did my luvly Angel.
You see, do you love what you see?
Look in my eyes, tell me what you see?
Do you see me laughing?
Do you see me smiling?
TELL ME!

I want to know.
You love to see me live a nightmare, dont you.
My sadness and pain feeds you your happiness.
Please put your finishing touches on your art.
Show the world what you did.
Are you happy NOW!
Was i finnally able to put a smile on your face?
You want to see me smile.
You want to see me laugh.
Are you showing the world your work of art?
Why did you have to break me, all I wanted was you.
