

Poetry Series

loveth Donatus
- poems -

Publication Date:
2012

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

loveth Donatus()

All About You

All about you very pleased and poise
Most welcomed among peers
I wish you are not leaving
Though know is for good

Your legacy will remain unforgattable
Always strong and fame
Thought of you inspires
Touch of you radiates
Wish you are not leaving

How can i explain the thoughtful instruction of yours on and off the court
So discipline, though authoritative
The court will miss you
The staircase will too
The players will feel your absence special me
What can i say
Just wish you are not leaving

loveth Donatus

Because Of You

Because of you

Many are here

Dancing with you

merrying with you

Because of this day which nature has chosen to make you happy as he has ordained you to zenith with addition of one

You are a blessing

indeed a blessing which the whole nation celebrates your days will ever remain grate

Just because of you.

loveth Donatus

Never Will I Hurt You Again

Once did i hurt you
Twice did you cry
Once did i hurt you
Twice did you cry
Like the rain dropp i tip Ups and downs
Just as the thin air i vanish
Couched words on a tablet as 'heart'
Wishes did i not leave behind Imagination did i never belived in Though feelings did i never let go
Even as i did left with mind filled with wounds of broken heart
In tear did i leave my thought
Never will i hurt you again
Never will i hurt you again

loveth Donatus

Perfect Fan

I love you so much
what can i say to,
An iroko that waves for love
An acacia of decoration
Jasmine of love
A true philanthropist

True legend of honor
An emerald of radiation
Catalyst to the hopeless
A scarce of kind
Wishes of ever young

I love you
I love you
I love you
My perfect fan

loveth Donatus