Hi, i mostly write short poems and they are deep from my heart.

Abandon Child

Child.....

may speak thousands of words interpretations may differ at times may deceive too thousands of mysteries hidden behind innocent child.....

glow brightness warmth without flame sparkle excitement with flashes of light utter thousands of words coated with love innocent child.....

gloom in the darkness cold with flame yearn the tender feelings of affection long for the peace, love and unity

child.....

there is still a life
there is still a hope.

Consciousness Within...

What shall I say?
to wish you only the best you deserve it you have always been a mystery since the moment i saw you since the moment i got to know you that's what made you so special that unique reserve smile of yours it's very intriguing
what shall i say?
don't ever lose it
don't ever change it a piece of advice
control your destiny never lose your individualism never lose your independence once you lose it once you let another controls it once you let another dictates it you lose your self respect what shall i say?
hold on to it tightly
you.....my conscience.

Crimes

The man of dignity
has lost his virginity
the man of credibility
has lost his capability human value.....? ? ?
has lost its humanity

mary das

Disturbed

Lately.....

touchy the kind of feelings keep haunting my sleeps my brain keeps thinking my mind keeps wondering when is the ending.

mary das

Dream

I saw....

jasmine flowers falling like snow in the morning in a few seconds....

drifting back to the branches white butterflies were they

i was just dreaming

mary das

Fated

30 minutes gone
waited in anxiety
60 minutes gone
started to worry 90 minutes gone
waited and waited 120 minutes gone
total stranger appeared
'he wants to talk', my sister said tongue completely tied a long silence.....
eyes shied away
thank you mirror mirror on the wall saw the strangers reflection gathered the courage gained the confidence uttered a few words
voice trembled
I mumbled
wh...at...happened?
why....late?
'caught in the traffic', he said I smiled
I started to laugh
he too
'wait a minute', he said 'I am staying for lunch', he said I was confused
I didn't know what was in his mind
'I like her', he said to his mum no invitation
no sign
no insistence
no dream
it just strike
'love at first sight', he said first experience, new experience
'I felt the same', i said

13 years ago.....
arranged marriage
that's how it started sweet memories forever.

Forgotten Friend Ii

My dear northern most friend I miss you a lot just the thought of you brought tears in my eyes have you forgotten me
or....
keeping a distance from me
or....
have I become the old book kept in the dark corner
or....
have I become a worthless friend
or....
have you become a stone hearted friend
my dear friend....
I missed the old version of you please come clear it again and....
a request from me
leave a little space for me in your thoughts, my friend.

Free Me

My Lord.....

take away my thoughts

for I don't wish to sin

My Lord....

take away my heart

for I wish to die

My Lord....

take away my life

for I don't wish to live.

mary das

Given Up

All alone I'm driving along the highway I'm speeding know not where I'm leading along my sorrows I'm taking my Lord so loving let my mind stop thinking let my heart stop beating let it be the ending.

mary das

Guide Me My Lord

My dear Lord.....
Grant me peace within my heart help me to make a beautiful start guide me to make a difference make me understand the reasons for my existence bless me with courage to voice what is right guide me to make changes bless me to do for better allow me to accept all for I trust you have the reasons some mysterious I can't comprehend I believe when the right time comes you will send me the explanations then help me to understand guiding me in all my steps before I depart.

mary das

He.....Flutters

He.....

flutters around the beauty one womb to the other fulfils his burning desire quenches his dying thirst relishes the sweet taste to survive his daily life he.....the butterfly.

mary das

Hibiscus

Hibiscus the flower of pride In colour you said it right Bright and beautiful to the eyes In dignity you stood up right Smiling and swaying nation wide Calling all in peace to unite Unique flower in petals of five Symbol of Malaysia nation wide.

mary das

Him

Deep.... inside
so.....light
so....nice
so....beautiful
the kind of feelings
no words to describe
tears in my eyes
glow on my face whenever I see 'Him'
my heart smiles
it is beautiful
no words to describe
the kind of feelings
I realise
'Him' the one
i have been longing for
'Him' the one
I have been looking for
'Him' the one
I have been waiting for the kind of feelings
no words to describe
I am in love with 'Him'
'Him' the only 'Him'.

mary das

His Words

Love is his words
has no boundary
life is his words
has no limit
his words.....
lamp to my feet
his words.....
light to my path
his words.....
food for my soul
his words are love
love is him
his words are life
life is him.

mary das

In The Dark

Thought of you my friend suddenly comes into my mind tears keep rolling on my cheeks pain piercing through my heart come clear it now my friend moving away from me why attachment no more
do I get it right.

mary das

Injustice

Refugees are we.....
in our own motherland
third class are we.....
have no rights are we
to speak up and defend ourselves
to be treated equally our voices heard by no one democratic, peace and unity are these mere words only.

mary das

Inspiration

A fresh morning
A fresh new day
jump out from the bed feeling light and bright the fresh smell of the earth flowing deep into my veins the chirping of the birds music to my ears
the beautiful sky
with patterns and designs the fresh green sceneries soothing to the eyes
a fresh morning
a fresh day
it's a promise
it's a hope.

mary das

Justice Is Dead

My heart is soring
my chest is paining
my head is spinning to see justice is failing.

mary das

Let Me Live

Words are but knives kill me not with your words thoughts are but memories let me live with your thoughts love is but sweetest feelings let me live in your love.

Life 2

look at life as a school there are so much to learn situation comes to teach it comes in the form of people, nature.....
look at life as a school

mary das

Life Lesson

I have learned
none feels alike
none thinks alike
I have learned
everyone..... with different perceptions with different views
I have learned
one.....
with different mind set with different desires with different intentions
I have learned
what is right for me
always wrong for others what is wrong for me always right for others
I have learned
I have learned a good lesson expect too much not interfere too much not
I have learned
have some distance beyond the limits not
I have learned
I have learned a good lesson

mary das

Light

Beyond the darkness
there is a light
a light of hope
a light of life
a light of future
but....
will it...
give the hope
will it....
light the path
will it...
brighten the life
let alone decide.

Lost

Lost.....
in the journey of life
I died
and don't ask me why.

mary das

Lost Ii

In the journey of your life you are.....but a refugee running away from reality drown in your own cruelty at the end.....
regretting your own insensibility.

mary das

Maya

Maya.....

you the colourful mirage you make the people dance dance to your tune you make them drown in the pleasure of sense you make their intellect completely spent maya.....

you fill them with anger and lust you cunningly trap the people in their own costumes make them forget their own forms forget where do they come from you grind them in grinding wheel of sorrow but....why?

mary das

Miserable Thought

Gloomy kind of feelings suddenly came....
lingering into my mind
darkening my today
darkening my thoughts
I realise....
it's the thought of you I was alive yesterday
it's the thought of you
that kills my today
it's the thought of you I hate you for today
it's the thought of you I am dead today.

mary das

More Wisdom

An old owl am becoming a wise old ones
sitting in an oak in the silence of darkness the more i hear the less i speak the less i speak the more i hear a wise decision i have taken

mary das

New Hope

XX or XY are united that is how it started in the world of darkness and warmth full of securities all the times a sudden movement felt a strange new experience a wonderful joy indeed
balance diet
nutritious food
is what been advised
day and night
counting days without fail awaits the new life new day finally the day comes with a loud scream and cry a new world full of brightness a hearty welcome to a new life

mary das

Nightmare

Months gone by.....
many sleepless nights
the fear of nights
came haunting me again the fear to experience the torture yesterday night was again the night my eyes was forced to close in seconds the battle started i couldn't breathe felt like dying
i screamed....i cried..... no one heard
i called for 'Him'
i called the Lord
but in vain
heard its laughter
the voice so scary
i chanted my prayers
slowly it released me i opened my eyes
i felt very weak my heart was beating fast thought was going to die i don't know what it was a real nightmare
i wish i am not alive to face another night.

mary das

Origin

Where am I from?
if not from you
where am I belong to?
if not to you
you.....the soil.

mary das

Precious Friend...

Precious.....

a friend full of respect and dignity a friend in need and in deed forever human friend of love and humanity endless and eternal peace lover a friend like you very rare buddy doubt there will be one ever remember you always in memory a friend you are to me forever may all good happens to you buddy forget you my friend would never.

mary das

Selfish

You have become selfish when..... your heart refused to reveal your feelings for me your fingers refused to scribble your love for me your hearing refused to listen to my voices your mind refused to think of me
your senses refused to crave for my love
and....today.....true
you have become selfish.

mary das

Shattered Dreams

Mum....

in your eyes so much sorrow in your words so much pain hidden within the sorrow

a smile without a glow

a life without a flow

I know mum....

it is not easy though.

mary das

Should I

Sometimes.....

I wonder.....

why? ?

care too much for others

forgot to care for myself think too much for others forgot to think for myself love too much for others forgot to love for myself sometimes.....

I wonder.....

why not? ?

don't care for others

don't think for others

don't love for others

care for myself

think for myself

love for myself

forget about others

but.....

I just couldn't.

mary das

Show Some Care

I witness.....
with my own naked eyes the battle between life and death like the fish along the shore barely able to breathe begging for life
struggling to live
man.....please.....
leave the nature alone let the green green forest grow let the green green grass grow let ones live with dignity now and forever.

mary das

Silence

Silence of you my dear friend Increases my worries many a time Leaving me to wonder in great pain Every seconds, minutes, hours and days Never can I stop the tears in my eyes Causing so much of pain deep inside Even if you have forgotten, never can I.

mary das

Special Dedication

My friend.....
much sorrows in you heart much pain in your words I understand.....
without him by your side never the same anymore without him in your life
but.....
believe me my friend
he is always there in you in whatever you do his presence you feel memories of forty years you will always cherish please do not cry my friend often you are in my thoughts believe me my friend..... the one above loves him more may his soul rest in peace.
prayers and love for you always.

mary das

Still A Mystery

Today.....my dear friend the thought of you coming into my mind
tears in my eyes
pain in my chest
the kind of feelings
no words to describe
I could feel it my friend between you and me there is a special bond there is a hidden mystery have I known you before?
still a mystery
unsolved mystery.

mary das

The Golden Star

Morning smiles of yours

mary das

The Power Of Light

Beautiful rays of golden light keeps the seeds warm in the earth absorbs the light and the warmth helps them to stir and awaken occurs the miracles of life
....the new life.

mary das

Thought Transference Fails?

Where are you my friend need you the most
where are you my friend
am in the dark
telepathy.....
don't you sense it this time the hell am going through sympathy is not what i need sorry is not what i need just a few words of care lessen the pain am going through.

mary das

To Be With You

Beyond the joy and laughter..... only heard the whispers..... the voice calling me.....
the breeze pampering me.....
to be with you.....
take me now my Lord.

mary das

Unfortunate

When the storm came hopes just shattered
when the sun rose
none is gifted.

mary das

Unspoken Words

A smile of yours.....
gives a glow to thousand hearts
but....
behind the smiles
hidden some sorrows
unsolved sorrows.

mary das

Why

My dear friend....
why the silence?
i know not
speak up....
for i will understand

my dear friend....
why the coldness?
share with me for i will enlighten your burden

my dear friend....
why the silence?
it's killing me
trust me
for i will be a shoulder to lean

my dear friend....
why the coldness?
it's breaking my heart tears rolling down on my cheeks still wondering..... why?

You.... The E...

You are too precious
without you.....
darkness is everywhere
without you.....
day and night
seems to be the same
without you.....
black is the only colour
without you.....
is there light beyond the darkness?
you.....the EYES
