The Time Is At Hand

The time is at hand for God to call
The world is about to be judged; everyone of us all
Are you sure where you stand?
Will you be among God's chosen band?

The time is at hand when God will cleanse the earth
Satan and his followers, of them, there seems no dearth
Are you sure where you stand?
Will you get into Heaven's land?

The time is at hand, God is coming back
Evil, for all time, will be dealt a just hand
Are you sure where you stand?
Will you be left back with Satan's pack?
