Every Family Has There Drama Queen Who Is Yours?

They say I mostly take everything out of context!
Confusion, misjudgment, discontentment, that is what I try to avoid!

The whole lot of them around me! They don't see it! They cant smell it! Must less comprehend it!

They need my projection to give them direction!
They either do it my way or else they will be void!

They say I speak hard and loud!
I don't care they better be aware!

I will keep them in tune, that is a promise I make this June!

I am there boss no matter there loss

So now go and tell!
They can all meet me in hell!

I am there Drama Queen!
