Why

Why do you do things
To make me cry
Why do you do things
To make me hurt
Why do u do things
TO make me want to hit you
WHY do you say those things
To get my anttenions
WHY do you have to be with me all the time to follow me watching every move I make
YOU know I loved you once but, never again
SO why do you do things
To make you want you again
It wont work out
I know that part is true
So why do you do those things
When I don't want you again.
SO why do those things.
