A Conversation And Thought

When sunshine not appears and bright the world Little eagle feel empty...
She try to helps little birds as his task
So she feel much better
But still she has an empty feelings
She try to find any signs of him Still she couldn't find it She put the leafs one by one
So she could notice
When her sunshine appears again
So she could share many laughs of the day
And she could feel his warm on her wings
She think maybe her sunshine lazy
To warm her wings and other wings as well Boom.... Stupid little eagle! !
I only take a rest for a while, "said sunshine
I always warm your wings eternally...
So... avoid that stupid thought from your little head
Be happy and sing a songs for other birds around While I am not around...
So they could feel and join your happiness
In every moment...

A Matter Of Heart

If there was no boundaries in between on this earth, but people can get along well in peaceful and harmony people respect each other and can live side by side no matter their skin color, their body shape, their religion, their curly and straight color, their various habits, their languages but they could have makes great unity among people around there would be so great, awesome, wonderful and amazing.
But it always a matter of heart... which always broken, crack and tear apart... makes hurts even death in everyone who couldn't resist Forgive are the most Must we have to do to deal with and always think lots of time when we would like to say which everyone think it is not hurt but probably others think the opposite Enjoy Life and Forgiveness inside always is a cool weapon to attack hurts inside and always smile to others who hurts us none will hate us and they will love us as human being that will help us easier to facing our life to the end of time

A Spirits Facing Life

u could sad in a while just a while.. but don't come to sorrow u could cry a while only makes ur eyes clean by ur tears but just like that.. don't let them makes u ugly every people deserve to be sad in a while but.. life goes on and you have to walk again facing life struggle again and thankful for life given to you after that we could see our life much brighter and much happier remember i always here beside u and always support u till the end

Again Déjà Vu?

I saw a twister again Only this time it's so close so near Pass beside me but not hurt me Or crowded people nearby me
All I know that I told them Don't be panic coz it will not hurt u
It's only passed.
But my heart beat so fast
Who am I could tell them about it What if my talked was wrong
And the crowded including me Playing by twister? ?
Surprisingly combined with frightening and Amazing seen that twister collapse
All things in front of it I only shocked seen what's left after that
And the scenery bright and smile
Turn back to normal again Damn.... I was late to go to the office
The dream so real...
Wish not like déjà vu like the old day Coz I am not ready to face it If they are appears in real
I wish and hope in my heart...

An Advice From My Sunshine When Saturation Comes

Everyday is a different day u just don't try to see it and u see everything the same Nothing is the same
Focus on the tiny things of life
Hear a bird singing and enjoy its song Take a walk and watch how people behave how they move and what they do the colors of the buildings observe every little detail that is different

An Effort For Sunshine

We live for our dream
If we could grab the dream
And made into reality then We could made other dream
Which new and try to grab it Again n again n again...
If we only see the dream without Needs to make it into real The dreams still hang in the sky
Such as Star * * *
Try to build rainbows as the bridge
To follow ur dream comes true U could walk and rest in a while But still never give up and Always follow ur heart and faith...
That time will comes when u belief...

An Ego

When love has vanish
And turn into hates
The fruits of love suffer
But who cares
When two human kind
Put their ego...
And blind for what they Think are right
Deaf for what they belief Silent for those spoken
Only dash of hopes
From those children
That those human kind Could becomes wiser
And return to their nest
For future brightness
If they still belief...

An Expressions

My body is not the one that you could place your punch to be hit
My heart is not made from stone that you could hurt me
My wish is not the way that could pleased your wants
Our children are not the the shooting area of your target emotion Where is the man that I've ever found long time ago Where is the pleasant and gentleman that I found at first How come u drawn by your illusion passion
And let all good memories flew till finish Makes our home becomes hell
Why you never listen to your heart and use ur brain None are perfect so do u nor i Don't blame to me what you think its only for ur own right sake Come again from the darkness coz I still waiting for u and we could start a new bright beginning unless u don't want to escape from the doom then there will be no way out and promise only promise... our love will tear apart for good...

An Unfair Comparison

seems nothin good left behind for years we've been together drawing the happiness in our marriage times u keep all the blame till u could blow out and make it as time bomb everything are false everything are wrong everything are sucks there's nothing right, correct, clear in this whole situation things that hurts me most that u make unfair comparison between me and that woman she probably has good casing she probably twice younger than me dont u ever think that human always made mistakes dont u ever seen yourself in mirror that u r not God who could judge me like this and pretend that u r the right ones u r not an angel nor i if u think nothin will help our relationship to become bright again if what u said that 'It's to Late for everything i pray that u choose your own happiness and be happy for ur choice i wont ask no more seems u becomes rock and couldnt shake by me or the children no more salute....

As Tiny Blossom In The Great Of Savanah? ?

Why I always want to drag your attention
And think that if I didn't drag your attention
I will be drawn among the crowded
And little by little vanish
And you will not recognize me no more.
Why always have doubt...
Even now not to extreme as before...
I really don't know...
Maybe I have too much worry in mine
That I would be alone.,
And none will cares of me in the end...
Or maybe that's my faith
As tiny blossom in the great of savannah? ?

Can I Choose My Way Please?

If u are tired of me
What about me who deal with?
If none cares of me
I will easily walk away in peace
If none loves me
I don't need to swallow tons of drugs Put needles all over my body three times a week for some months or year? Coz it's unpredictable and only a promising land All I need is await till the time comes None suffer, none hurts, none missing me
I will fly like a little bird in the sky Freely and happily
Coz I am no burden for none
Coz I choose my own way Rest peacefully

Confusion

Little bird miss her sunshine
She feel lost contact of his shining
She might think she is his huge problems
With all her unbelievable requests
Which he sometimes can't resist.
Now little bird feel confuse and ask what a suitable for her sunshine needs so he could bright the world again and continue working without feel ignoring by her Little bird think it is the time to obey her sunshine request even the worse part for her sunshine happiness.

Deja Vu

i saw the smile in your face when i came to the airport it's really you... you are exist... you are my best friend we walked through the city from morning till night time saw the marbles scenery of your home town buildings creatures and sculptures in the ancient time we walked by foot to the peak of the hill the hill which came into my dreams and it comes into real like deja vu piece by pieces comes into one puzzle My Sun... my dream become reality when we came into the peak of the hill how did it happens which quite similar like in my dreams... i have no idea at all i just the person who wants my puzzle becomes one and it was.. such as miracles thank you to escort me for my dream i will keep this precious moments in my heart always... now i have to go home and meet my real life again and continuing my life...

Desolation

Little bird flies in the sky
She wants to see her Sun again
But her Sun never appears His messages now are seldom send by the wind Perhaps her Sun tries to evolves again Little bird tries to cheer up her mind
But this time little bird lost track
Little bird tries to understand but the more she tries
The more she lost...
Now little bird feel empty inside
Return to her nest and brought many puzzles
Which she doesn't know where to start
She felt lost ...

God Gives Second Chances To Me

When I give my test results

But maybe God gives me second chances To changes my World Report much better
So one day when I need to be taken

Suma Cum Laude perhaps ha ha Anyway.. I still need to be friendly to the pills Continuously without delay
Taken them day by day to kill those disease
And vanish it once and for all

Good Evening My Moon

Evening my Moon

We have always together shined the earth
Pour them with our light softly and gently Seein many awesome babies and kids Sleeping on their tiny beds
With their innocence cuty smiles on their lips
From outside the windows
What tremendous scenery on earth
Which we passed it thru our journey
But I still have you my Moon Loving, caring and shown the best path
For almost all my life
Thank you.

Good Evening My Sunshine

Evening my Sunshine

I think its time for your to rest and sleep

Thank you for your valuable time

Accompany me while Moons left

Now I have to accompany my Moon

Doing his tasks shining the earth softly and gently

His light is not as bright as yours I noticed

But it is enough for me

Together we pour softly light to the earth

And let everybody on earth sleep tight

And bring them serenity and joyful

But i guess there will be a time that i should say good nite and good bye

Heart In Loneliness

i have to admit that my biggest fears in life is to face this life alone watching people that i love, dearly and cares gone one by one that circle of my friends are becomes moves far away make a distance and gone and all i do just seen with tears in my eyes but no beg just pray them to have the best for their own but i couldn't stand alone in this world without someone that i love, someone that i dearly gone first before me i will feel very empty inside life become tasteless and have no meaning anymore the flame of spirits ended even you ever said don't burden them don't hold them and i am doing that but those kind things makes thousand candles in my heart dying one by one till finish and comes to my time to end my life peacefully

I Wish Peace Comes To Gaza

when i feel cold and comfort covering with my blanket those children are cold and injured even died when i feel comfort at my home those children need to move and move again to avoid the bombs when i smile and laugh here sees awesome scenery those children looks so mash, scares on their innocent face although they still not understand why those happened to them in their ages when others children could happily play in their playground those children need to play with damaged bombs surround them when I take a deep breath and have fresh air those children need to feel the damage air causing by bombs and bullets God.. please hold your hand and help them..
If men couldn't hear no more and their heart are cold enough
You are the only one who could accept prays from all over the world
And make peace in Gaza and not make that place as never ending story Always war and war and war...

If I Could Be A Wind

I will fly and makes the air not too hot and everyone feel happy for my coming I could fly to the place which I couldn't reach And only dream in my heart
That I would come again at that place Where the the flowers bloom
Where the hill full of trees
Where the air still fresh and nice Where the marbles around I could touch my Sun with my silky touch Without knowing that I stand beside and amuse see the Sun in the way of shine I could blew the clouds so it could makes Thousands shapes and makes cool scenery
For people who enjoy to see the sky
I could blew a bit to the birds who flew cross the ocean
So they will return home in their nest earliest If...

If I Could Be There At That Time

If I could be there at that time to know your feelings to share the hurts listen to your pain listen to your sadness to hug you while you cried to cover you from that demon there will be no suffer for long there will be no chaos there will be no heart crack there will be no huge pain inside there will be no sin but I guess it's about faith and your life's journey which already written and you were blind
by the demon spell till you realized that it is only you...
and only you... who could react, wriggle and release your heart from the dark sides Lassy... I will not judge you Neither blame you
I only want to be on your side
So you will known...
Lots of people care about you Love you... and you will open new pages of your life
In positive rainbow Trust and Believe God may lead you to that rainbow path Be strong, pray and always
In a Hand of God
I always Love you....

If I Could Turn Back Times

i wish i could more wise to see the points i wish i could think before talks i wish i could not to arrogant to show him and destroy them i wish i could always trust him instead of thinking bad and insecure i wish i could more positive and really do it instead of say i wish... but it was happened... i have to fix and struggle for that...
am i hoping so much? ?
am i still deserve him? ?
am i too pushy? ?
then i look a the star everyone has their own hope everyone has their own forgiveness then i feel optimist... i have no hope to turn back times i will carry on this life cheer with happiness and smile like i always do... forget about think too much i should follow my hearts i believe my heart is my hope and my dream which i could fulfill if i have optimist and positive in mind time will show....

Its About Cares

If u cares too much to someone U will loose them
Coz they don't like the way u treat Don't try to cares someone which makes u like a little dog always follows the master which actually doesn't cares and feel annoying by ur cares Even u have genuine cares but if u gives to the wrong ones who has bunch of cares and doesn't need one of ur cares then ur cares is useless Why don't u see around u and u will find some kids which really need your helps which really need your cares Genuine cares comes from u would makes them feel comfort would feels that u r the lucky ones coz ur cares comes to the right place and the right ones and they will gives u truth happiness which u never known and beyond ur thoughts why don't u see man besides u who always willing to gives and share his happiness and shoulder to cry on That's what we call genuine cares one wisdom sentences telling that; give as much as u could before u couldnt give at all help as much as u could before u couldnt help no more.

smile n being kind to others before u couldnt do it no more.
give big hug to everyone needs before u couldnt hug no more pour d empty feelings of someone before they dry n died soon forgive what they have done but not forget as ur warning sign hmm... still a lot actually... but it will not enough... so for d time being i guess thats it...

Life Is Chosen

Don't follow anyone Don't follow the trend
Don't follow what friends needed
Don't follow what parents wants But follow your heart Follow your instinct
And use your brain as well
For the exact chosen Be yourself
Don't be a hero in mid day
Don't over help and over lap
You could save anyone But surely you should save yourself
Use your strategy and instinct That you need to separate Between most important, important Less important, not important For your life path
Be someone that proud of Inner strength in yourself
That you could be useful person For yourself, your family, Your beloved, your friends hoping that everything will going nicely but still expect the good comes to her maybe... hopefully... surely...

Little Bird Sing (A Poem For Her Sun)

It's an early gift that comes from far little bird wish that her sun will like it even not much she only could sent an ordinary nest following her impulse Who knows about another time All she know that she would do something for today and avoid tomorrow and the day after tomorrow who knows about her dream she wont hope much n.. Just Let it Flow Only pray for her sun the best as little bird... n wish that star could shine a bit longer to merrier the earth

a bit late for bird to fly at that time but she expect to see her moon and would like to share her feelings again... little bird sees none and she return again to her nest and thinking... where her sun when she need it where her moon when she wants why they not appears at her longs time maybe little bird need to do by her own and conquer the day and nite by her wings even she felt that her wings has broken she still needs to conquer the time

Longs For

A little bird flies
She is looking her sun
Who always shine to bright the world
But she couldn't find the sign That sun appears yesterday
She is looking here and there Perhaps she found any small sign Just a notify sign "hi" from the sun
But, she couldn't find it So, she returns to her nest in silent...
Today... she beard to her mind
She will find her sun today...
She flies again to find her sun
She is waiting and waiting...
But, the sun seems disappear
Then she recall the messages From her sun few days ago
I want to find my new transformation Wait for me till fifteen days later
And you will see me evolve and prevail
She barely remember the messages
She only know that when she sees
The sun shines
Her world much brighter
Much shiny, much spirits
So she returns to her nest
Put the leaves and gathering into her nest
One each day so she could remember
The time that she will meet her sun again
And she wish and pray that her sun Really will evolve and prevail into positive
To be a better Sun she ever met before And little bird silent and wishing in hopes

Longs For My Sunshine 160407

Half of my soul gone searching yours
Somewhere out there far away
After last time when you said good bye
I found out that you are really something I try to deleted yours from my mind
But it seems useless
I still facing your shadows
Which still dancing in my mind
The more i tried to denied The more i tried to get rid of that The more i trapped into the shadows it self What should i do, i become confuse I try not to to hold u back just like u asked Fighting with my own deep feelings
But the more i resist
The more hurts in my mind
I am speechless

Morning My Sun Evening My Moon

Morning my Sun
today it's raining and windy but little bird still sing even you are not there Evening my Moon
little bird a bit tired and need to rest after doing some duties but the weather also raining and windy at nite time
and you are not there still little bird need to sleep and hopes that tomorrow will be better and could see her Sun in the morning time and could see her Moon in the evening time

Morning My Sunshine

As a Star I have seen u move far away from me Perhaps because we always move in opposite way
You are in your light side shining the day While I am in the dark side shining the nite

Sometimes I feel so alone
But we have different tasks to be done
Perhaps If you could come and join my life Pour me with your lights, so I will shine much brightly
Not only doin twinkle things

I guess its only my imagination Cause I have Moon who accompany my nite
And I dont want to see the earth becomes sorrow And chaos, cause you change your tasks so, perhaps we had to dropp it and just leave it in our beautiful dream forever

My 2007 Review Of My Sun

i might not be able to see my sun in real again because i am not wealthy enough so last time its precious moments i have i don't know if i could repeat it again but i have good memories on it and i will pray for you that you will always have great times in your life and always pour lots happiness among friends I know this year i have lots of doubts, but this month i have review that someone cares for me not because of words because of the way he treats and acts so actually i don't need words... because i know you always there cares, support and help me in any way perhaps you could share your difficult parts of your life and just shares to me even i couldn't help but to share it will be the most helpful to release hurts inside and make and changes it into happiness i guess that's my this year review of you people can say anything but we have strength in heart that only me and you knows what's the best for us to makes our friendships long lasting i learn also that you are really helpful to any friends that needs help advice and just support a bit so they life might cheers up now i know where am i stand my sun...
Keep your happiness around your circle
I will always support you here with my way...

My Chimera

You appears not because of me Coz u have your reason to appears
You are there not because of me Coz u have your certain things to do So.. never think that U are for I Who the earth am I Don't be dream that one time
U comes to me n be mine
I need to jump to another dream
And got my reincarnation to do that...
If I want to have the same dream as U
But the question is? do U want to have The same dream as I?

My Dearest Lady Bug?

You are special, not one of the others thats why i work with clients, to earn money and advertise your children once again i tell you that if i didn't had you, i would never start all these you are the cause, you are the power, you are the spirit of this whole thing i will always need you she might also help a bit but no one, even with 1000000 friends will help me more than you do you are the heart, the power that spears me some strength to keep fighting you are the one who started all that you are my warrior angel and if you forget, then its my duty to remind you how much i need you not just survivor but a warrior angel, a fighter, a promotion lady, a mother and best friend
a human being that helps me become the human being i want to be my mother and father also try to help, but no one spends so much time helping and supporting me i will always need your help, because i am not a machine, i am a human, and i need support, and you support me very much you can type anything you want '2 good 2 b true' because you rule in promotion, in testing, in everything yeah, you also help i never doubt that and you help A LOT you are my warrior angel, always look my back you never stop, you should grab your goal with your hands if they cut off your hands, you should try with your legs if they cut your legs, you should try to bite it with your teeth and if they cut your head.... we will meet in paradise

My Dearly Queen

When I see your looks Touch in gently my body Hypnotize me with your brown eyes
And laugh with your red lips
I am drawing by your smooth hair Wave into my skin
I want to touch you, kiss you, Whispering you with bunch of Joy
Can u see that I am devoted In Love with you I need you beside me Climb the mountain of Love
Reach the rainbow of Dreams Yes my Love our dream Together we could find
Our desire, Our happiness,
Till it melted into us
And makes circle of Love

Hi my sunshine, honestly, lately I feel so weak n tired following ur path my spirits seems ripped off and I have no idea how to put it together in one solid pieces joining ur life is so amazing but also fully unpredictable and surprises with various color of ur life, this seems so different with mine i try to minimize d distance between us by learning new kind things of urs but it seems d distance become far n far away which beyond my touch is it a sign for me to ending my journey n continuing my own path into my own world covering myself with serenity fur blanket, n return to my warm nest i wont blame u for what happen i just caressing softly my heart, so its not become sorrow n pain n I still can healing n struggle n fight facing d earth.

I saw u from far and I realize you are my sunshine
You are the one that I was dream to meet in real
The one that I would like to tell how happy I am meeting you at last
The one that I would like to say Good Bye and return to my own world Cause I know You still have long journey and fly with your strong Wings While I only have my broken wing which in one time it will be disappear and vanish together with my journey At least I was proof my heart that I could notice yours and I was thankful to know you even we had changes the journey into other direction
You will be in my heart and never vanish it

Already Autumn here or perhaps comes to Winter I sit in the park where i could watch you from far i catch you with my camera, so i could memorize it well you had no idea at all what is on my mind cause my dreams fulfill, just to see you in real walking together with you towards your city and enjoy the sunset in the peak of one hill nearby your greatest ancient buildings tomorrow i will leaving this for good there is no pain inside, just notice that this need to be end even we have purity friendships none more I sing in my heart with a great lullaby that my dream could be in real

You have no idea that i was decided to go to my sanctum Leave all behind none left turn into new life
I will discover it and will be like an angel serve the needs despite the bad shadows in the past which i would not regret it but guilt always falls inside...

Keep to reach your dream till the peak my Sun..
Your shadow was disappear and ends your nightmare for goods Leave you with the beautiful rainbow in your heart sleep well in their homes serene and comfort in their dreams after that I transform myself to become Wind blow smoothly in every corner and drops into earth and become vanish by the sunshine who almost comes coz spring season which comes not long enough.

My Thought 161208

I've been thinking
It's useless to say why...
Instead why just in line
And be grateful for what God gives us...
And thankful even for tiny things Keep struggling and measuring Our limit ability, so we still On the earth not in fantasy land Otherwise we will hurt inside Or pain inside coz we couldnt Reject the negative ones
If you are happy then you are healthy And sincere is a key of happiness...

My Thought Of Time For Myself

one woman said when she is single no one has time for herself one woman said when she has married she can't manage for her own time one woman said when she has a baby she think there's no time for herself and i've been thinking i am grateful and thankful that i have my own time for myself after shares with other that loves me and shares to dearly friend and people circling around me even i have no baby to love with i still could share and spreads my love to the needs and to my family especially to my dearly ones who has huge love and shared bed with me every nite who starred at me every time and every nite... who always support me and said its gonna be fine... coz ur my Star and always be...

My Thought Of Valentine Time

Even though Valentine is everyday in every heart Women always wants to get special things from their Dearly
From Sweet and Caring Attention, Precious of Cares, Loves, Respect also Small Gift
On 14th February the Legitimate Day Just not makes the sense of Valentine disappear by Commercial things from Shopping Mall, Advertisement on TV but always keep Loves and Cares in your heart So it will always remembrance in Every Heart specially Women

New Feelings

When the Love's gone and turn to be sweet memories
When the Hates fade away
When everything seems flat
When the Ego vanish
When I dropp everything on me
I Could see much differently
From other surface
When I look back
There's nothing
None that I could see Only Mist which left Sad would not bring my old time Time goes by and Life goes on Just see those as memories Don't makes you drawn To the good memories
Just makes quick look
Be happy and share happiness Now, Tomorrow and Future

sees the traffic down there hustle bustle cars pass the road chaotic coz we still re-build i could make a wish here alone and dont bother by anyone i could imagine that i could build flying fox so i dont need to walk by stairs back n forth

One Feeling For Lassy

When love, cares, honest, sincere has no meaning at all Heart becomes hurt, blast and tears into thousand pieces Love turns to be hate when it comes to zero point
When examine something wrong and try to escape the possessive love
Or even worse, using Love only for makes slavery Sucks the positive energy body and soul till vanish rebel inside blow out into the peak fight and struggle to find a bright sunshine when it needs turn back and renew the feelings the demon stand still and await till Lassy exhausted and find no way out, tired and will return to black path but voices of Love are too loud and deafened that Demon beat it, let go, torture the demon and return it into Hell bring Lassy back to the hands of God and return to the rainbow of Life

she is happy that still could hear many stories from her sunshine from his journey
she knows that she only one tiny bird among enchanting and precious birds

Only For Lust

if we put the blame on someone we love for denial of what we did and try to fight for own secure and own right caused of betrayed which actually totally wrong what could it be?
try to cheat our heart only for our slightly happiness and jeopardy our home which already build from our own flesh blood and leave all good memories behind only for intruder who comes as shadow in the name of affairs...and lust what's good on that? ?
is it worth? shouldn't we thinking thousand times before drawn into crowded and cannot turn back the time what a pity....

Waiting For Godot

maybe i am expecting too much.. maybe i am the ones who anxious to have that dream i forget you have your own life virtual friends are good... but, they are just virtual no need to implement into the real ones.. just put it as they are belongs some things are not possible as we wish they would be... things... if it can not be, don't force... things should happen naturally... maybe u could not saying it to me...
cause it will makes me sad and you never wants me sad ever... i just realize i am the only one who really eager wants to see u too stupid to notice that if there's only one who has the dream then it just like u claps one hand in the air... maybe i should not hold you and let u free... maybe i should not have that dream from the beginning maybe....

When Awareness Comes

When this disease comes Everyone seems more cares Everyone seems just aware That I am not as perfect as they thought That I am only an ordinary ones
That I need my own space Which everyone does
That none could force me
To do the things they want without knowing my feeling and try to place in my shoes now I have those serene but... should it get coz of the disease?
and not when i am healthy?
Or its only a begin of new perspective
So they could see me in clear way now Anyway... I am a bit release and serene Hope the understanding not only in a while Hopefully... I pray much more for my serene

When God Knocking My Head

in the past I always complain about my life and my sunshine sometimes anger coz I feel that I hate myself and always think that it will be better for me to live shorter and I ask and pray to God every time coz seems everything so nice and I don't like it.

When I feel happy to reach my dreams
I bargain to God that I will concern about my life and not complain so much and much more cares about other people instead of thinking how to live shorter in this life

When the problems comes to me again I complain about my life why everyone seems think I always happy and never sad and they think that I could hold the problems more than them

I ask and pray to God that I could live shorter and leave all kind things in this world

when the real problems comes to me from God by give me this disease
I am surprised and reviewed again, is God really accept and release my prayer by given this disease?
or this is the other path of trial that I have to get through while I live in this world?
then I stop complained and facing with confuse although I have confidence in mind which I need to choose?

is the option are Just give up and let disease vanish me or other options that I must struggling and fight that I still could live for given huge Love to people which circling around me which concern and always love no matter who I am and accept me as I am coz I believe that I could still survive?

When U Missed Ur Little Star

When u missed little star which only blinking in the sky
As a dash of hope but only a hope
Such a dream which only dream and only real in a fairy tales
Try to look around and see many blinking stars Which need your sprinkle of cares and loves A sprinkle of your cares could be bless more for them Even u think that u only a dash among zillion sands in the sea side Even u think that u r not worth for your sun Even u think that dash of sand could be vanish at once Still when u are there, sprinkle ur cares n loves to them And continue your journey into another path...

and when finish... she may return to her nest and cheers the world with her sings

Why Cant Peace Comes To Gaza

why cant peace comes to Gaza always war and war that's what i heard why people cant side by side and live peacefully even with various characters hand in hand makes harmony why they blind themselves by killing innocent people especially the innocent children why they have no hearts while doing that only in the name of fighting and war and in the name of their own dignity why? why?
why cant people think logically and always in the name of peace on earth bring peace on earth especially Gaza
why? why?
God.. please help us and open their eyes don't they want peace and harmony?
or they already becomes demon slaves in all their life.... only U who knows it minaslune serene

Why...

Why u choose her
If only as beating object
Why u choose her
If punch her when you are mad
Why you choose her
If she only become your demon victim Don't your mom teach you How to respect to woman
Such as she loves and cares to you
In your childhood
How to treat her precious Than makes her as not valuable
If you couldn't appreciate women Don't try to be near her Play on her, beat her till she die
You should learn how to be a good guy
Before you choose one of them Coz women is precious In any kind...

Wisdom Words From Omorfe 130606

i already be the one of the happiest persons in the world i thank God for what i have i dont need something else :) i admire things it is a dream for me to have that things but if u have it, then it becomes reality, and it loses its value the goal is to be happy with what u have always try for something more but be happy live ur life

Wisdom Words From Omorfe 160606

when u r sad when u r not happy when something bad happened to u think of those people that never had a place to call home think of those people who were fighting in wars think of people that only dream of that what u have everyday and when u r happy think of those people and try to spare them something that u have, and they may need
