Mishack O Madubandlela()

An author who has already published one book titled &quot; Thoughts In My Mind&quot; .

A lyrical writer who favours fairness and the intricacy and profoundness of poetry. An author who's been through a number of unpleasant experiences, but still striving to be the best of himself despite the negative energy he keeps stirring up within himself. Used to be cold-hearted just to avoid and get away from real feelings and emotions but they caught up with him and got him to a dark place, ultimately.

He thinks this is his new coping mechanism. He was never able to talk but was always able to write. He's very quiet about his feelings, but very loud in ink. And he feels like this is the one place where he can have anyone attack him with their best shot and he'll just squash them with his environment.

Also, &quot; if anyone cannot comprehend the intricacy of my work, even after reading it... Then, they don't afford to judge me on anything or even make comments on my life because my whole life story is in ink. And it's not just in English, it's in a poets tongue... And I don't kiss and tell, so... Don't expect to write and explain myself for the second time&quot; -Mishack Madubandlela.

Mishack Madubandlela is a Web Designer and Developer at Eclipse Web Design, Owner of a student accommodation business &quot; Alpha House Co-operation properties&quot; . He's that writer who's achieved a number of things in the writing industry and feels like he has to go far. He works on a number of books, including motivational and non-fiction short stories by other authors.

Mishack is very kind and generous with his work. He doesn't hog the skills he attains along the way. He works with the likes of Maxwell Magagula on motivational books. They have, together, been working on two books namely; &quot; After This, I looked and I saw&quot; and another motivational book about time management and leadership skills development &quot; The Blueprints of Time Management&quot; . It has proven to be a very fruitful journey that they've taken together.

He recently started working with other most gifted writers of stories such as miss SV Moyo.

Miss Moyo is a very talented writer who writes a series of short stories that make you realise just how the world works and how cruel it can be. Good or bad, it doesn't matter how a person is, but the important thing is to know your place and be able to adjust yourself to be the best you can be.

" You should always show up, and be yourself and make sure that you do the best you can... For yourself because no one else will" - Ms SV Moyo

From Suicide (A Regretful Escape)

Dear Mishack
I'm your biggest fan
No one cares about me and no one gives a damn Just write me back if you get the chance I know you're a busy man and I'm just a fan

I just want to tell you what your words have done
We have work to do and we are not yet done
You paint pictures with your words and I go to heaven each time How I wish those words were mine but the world I live in is much worse than purgatory Your words seem too good to be true when I read

I've escaped suicide a couple of times but no one can really cheat death all I want is to be dead what good are words when they never change the reality all I want is to... not exist all of my life should just cease to exist I've written so many last letters that I've lost count all because of your words but guess what, I'm still here... miserable my pain is unbearable to me, this reality is incomprehensible unfathomable happiness unreachable happiness undefinable

Dear miss,
I know you've been going through hell lately within the past month you cut yourself once and then passed out in the sight of blood You were a calf stuck in a big puddle of mud

I just want you to know that you're one of the strongest You're still here and there's a reason for that I shouldn't be the one to tell you that But, you shouldn't have done that

Seeing your wrists covered in red I swear all those memories of you just drove me mad yet, you inspired me you inspired me to leave me and go live a life away from me I swear that week was the worst for me I literally got everything in place and ready for action but there you were, in front of my tub I couldn't move an inch all my body felt like it was covered in one big stitch your face was the only thing I couldn't get away from went from crying over your demise to finding a way out of my own

Went from anxiety to finding my radial artery Went from looking and picking blades to setting the mood and environment filling the tub with water and foam hoping that nobody comes through the door until I can't move, can't blink and breathe and I'm on the floor

But, if I ever had regrets in my life, this would be the first one
I can finally say that I regret seeing your face in front of me I can say there's something I do regret other than my existence now, this world feels too big yet too small for me to fit in I've been living a lie I've been caught in an illusion if this was all a dream, a nightmare I'd love to wake up now I'd like to go home now where my heart is... oh! At least where it should be

All I can say now until I wake up... is... cheers...to what I have yet to lose I'll wake myself up if no one is willing to do the honors next year, I'm doing my honors, but I want to join the others I'll wake up from this dream to the other side where I should be, where I belong I promise you, it won't be long before I get there Home is calling...
Purgatory is where I long to be it might be a place better than what you think of it to be

Your Love

Such an embrace
It was fun to run this race Though I'd want to live some more on my own, but I also want to be with you I want to stay cuddled up in your cold arms I admit, I'm only human normally, I'd catch a cold but now, I want you to be with me for I will no longer grow old

How I wish asking for you to come by was harder I want you to hug me harder asking for you is easy and you are quick to respond I can feel your cold embrace
I can feel your breeze from afar

I know you smell my fear of how I love you but afraid of you that makes me afraid I long to be on the other side with you ironic how people are terrified of you, my love In this summer heat, I'd do a lot better with your cold love embracing each part of my body I love with a love far greater than love

I know I am weird and strange maybe a bit more now that I know you're coming come! Oh come! Beautiful death
I have waited for your loving cold embrace forever
Love me
Hug me
I want to come with you to the D?RK side

I Promise

Here I am, giving you my whole heart laying it down at your disposal I don't want an opposing proposal

Foolish as it may sound, I promise that I will stick around I want to make you the happiest girl alive My day just got brighter, your face truly shines brighter
I will make your house a home

I see her looking at flowers, she says that it's beautiful here I say "it just got a lot more beautiful"
She says "the flowers are pretty"
I say "the person looking at them is pretty" she smiles and says to me, "would you like to go for a drink?"
I say to her, "my life just got more meaningful"

I shower you with compliments each time we meet
I wipe the crumbs off your lips with mine when we eat
I give you something to smile about each night when you lie in your bed I make your days brighter than the previous

The early signs of love, sweet and fun are at the cornerstone but is this how it ends?

To Love

To love is to care

To love is not just to show compassion, but to be compassionate

It is to know deep down that you are truly passionate

Passion always pays better

To love is to feel the need to give your soul for her.

To love is to know what she does to you so bad that makes you feel so damn good!

She becomes your definition of love

I know because for me, she is.

I don't care about almost all else because when I'm with her,

All else ceases to exist.

As much time as I need to do my things, is as much as she steals from me without me noticing

But, you know what the funny thing is...?

I would be happier than a cat with a bowl of milk

Or an artist with a new pen full of ink

Love Is Hell

I love you like I have never loved before I love you like you are the only one I have to love Loving you is a choice, a choice I am and always will be proud of I chose to love you for all that you possess
All your qualities and insecurities make me obsessed

The pain I feel when I think about you and you aren't there.
Every time I look up at the stars, their sparkle and shine makes me wish That I was looking at your eyes

When we met, I thought I was meeting another girl, a girl to be friends with I never thought it would get this far I've made mistakes before, but my biggest mistake was to think that I never could fall, Like falling for you, falling in love Love is hell, but I'd rather fight demons with you than fly with angels without you

I don't know if you'll ever love me the way I love you

I know that we just met, but I love the way you are You intrigue and make me want to break down all your walls and have you all I admit it, I'm crazy and weird, Just a bit more now that I met you
You may not find me sometimes I'm preoccupied and trying to find the line that defines if you're more than a friend...
I hope this won't end

Love is hell, it's dangerous
I'm on a tight rope to your heart, I hope I won't fall Or maybe you'll be there to catch me if I fall How is it that it's only now that I realize all the feelings I have for you but I didn't know I had?
&quot;How can you steal something from someone who has nothing to steal? &quot;
They say that but they don't know that it's possible You stole it, without touching it, and now I'm left here, I lay awake at night and wonder if you wonder...

I'm not perfect, nobody is, and I don't try to be...

But if you want the best, you just have to see the good in me

I could be more than your third shoulder,

If you give me a chance, I could be your everyday memory

You Broke It Down, You Broke Me Down

Life. Isn't that what we're supposed to live?
We're supposed to cherish it and enjoy every moment of it Yet you made me regret every moment of it
Every day I spent with you made mine a joy ride Until you started breaking it down

Obedience. Are we supposed to obey each other?
I hear it shouldn't be the primary bond that keeps two people bound.
The affection which you have for each other must be why, by your partner, you were found.
Yes, we respect and care for one another but I guess you didn't for me All that little obedience we had, was gone with the tropical disasters
Now, I look at myself and I think that in heartbreak, I've earned my masters.

Values. Did we ever value each other?
I guess not, since to me, I was no more valuable than those shiny crystals around your neck
And to think that I told myself that I'd always have your back
Now I see, who would have my back?
When I look at you, you look at materials.
When I have your back, you turn yours on me.
I guess we never valued each other equally, huh?
It must've been bound to happen from the start,
I made myself believe that you would see my heart because you're smart
But I guess I was wrong

Eternity. Shouldn't we be together till eternity?
I thought love never ends, it never ceases to exist.
Man! I'm so wrong on so many levels.
Or maybe I'm not, you just aren't the "perfect" one for me, hey
If our love should've lasted till eternity then I must have outlived eternity

Here I am, still standing, strong and witty as it gets.
We were held together by four letters,
I thought the love was real, I should've known better,
So I ended up in hell.

You broke it down, one by one, you broke me down
I should've bailed earlier, but it wasn't until the last letter, Then I realized that it was all over.

I'm sick of you breaking me down, and all our "love" is an empty space.

The pain of being thrown into a deep void by the one hand you vowed never to let go, It feels worse than going through hell with a pocket knife hoping to kill every demon in sight.
I loved you from the start, and you never gave me your heart.

Your Kisses

Kisses are rare
Only because people like you are rare
I 'm no dancer, but when you kiss me in the moonlight,
The moon surely feels under my feet
Michael Jackson has nothing on me Kisses are like tears the only real ones are the ones you can't hold back That's how you make me feel, because with you, I can't hold back.

A kiss is isn't much, but it's quite a poem when it comes from you.
Precious is the word I'd use.
A lovely taste whose appetite I never lose.
I'm not a mind reader, nor can I read lips...unless they're touching mine
So, please grant me this one wish to read yours

I can't fathom how much love there is in this gold mine Your lips are an entrance into wonderland where I lose myself in the projection of your love

Lately

Lately, I've been reminded that love is the only thing that never runs out

Lately, I've been reminded that love is all that's timeless,

That time is of the essence and that time is all that heals but it's I who needs the healing

I've been searching for something real, but all feels fake with you gone

The distance isn't easy but how can you feel so close from a million miles away?

I think about the nights when I reminisce about you and wish I could get away

... from all this...

Deception, my life feels like the inception of its extremity.

You know that I never drink when I'm mad, Because the cure to pain isn't something you buy at liquor stores

But every night I still think about you

And when I go out with my friends I still drink about you

I wish I could ask you why you left, but I know it was never your choice

A predetermined destiny, a destiny we're all prescribed and that no one can fake.

A bittersweet pill we're all forced to take

And now my heart's bitter, I swallow, might wash it down with some shots ... So cheers...

to what we lost

Dining With The Devil

Creepy, eerie, scary, frightening

But, most of all... D?RK

Oh yes! Very dark

Scared of the devil, are you?

Well, too bad. He may be coming for you

Happy as you get dining with your family on Christmas, that doesn't even begin to cover my joy as I sit only a dinner table across from Him

I don't really know if he's already taken hold of me or I just long for his darkness to rain on me

The treacheries I've been through trying to be good, trying to do good with all of my soul

I can't believe it has all led to this, my demise!

How did I get here?

Oh, I know! I was the Good Samaritan among all

Maybe if I do things differently, I may get what I want, what I deserve

The devil in me has proven to be provoked more times than I've had breakfast

I think now no one can hold it back.

The wrath to be unleashed, the devil on the tip of my tongue can't stay inside anymore

It's only a shame that those peasants that long to meet him tend to shy away at his arrival

I can see the despair in your eyes

I can see the terror that brews up in your soul

I can feel your soul ripping to shreds at his glance

That's what happens to those who can't withstand what they've called for

And maybe I am weird!

But I find that my greatest achievement

It allows me to deal and face the demons I have loaded up in my closet but can't let out!

All because I know if I let you see my skeletons, you'll grind my bones to powder and get high on my fault lines

I hate it but I love it at the same time I love how the devil in me is so content Not starting any feud but you keep pushing and knocking on the wrong doors!
Keep knocking! Keep knocking, I say! !
Just don't drop your jaws when the doors open because I'm the one who should help you with that I hope you keep fit, you'll need all the strength you can get I don't make promises much but get this; you've done it now....
It's only a matter of time
I am finally doing the worst possible thing I can do in this life
...as a human

The devil in me dances to your insults.
He indulges in your terror of his strong presence.
I try so hard to open up hoping it'll console the people around me if he leaves but how wrong I was...
They tell me that I'm weird and strange Oh, Thanks for the compliments
I guess I needed that smile and grin on my face I hope it makes you feel better Oh yeah! I almost forgot...
I don't give a crappy shit about what you all might think of the darkness I seem to poses. You know why?
Because you are wrong!
What I carry inside of me is a hundredfold greater and worse than what you think.

I sometimes fear my own presence.
They tell me to go and find myself... my true self
But I look in the mirror and I see glass reflecting the wall behind me
I don't know where else to look I fear my own presence but that's like eating my tail to feed my hunger and grow stronger so...
I see that many of you are good at fighting and running from the shadows behind you that seem to haunt you, but you forget you're the ones who are standing in front of the light

Yeah, I've gone on dates, had dinners and lunches breakfasts and suppers
But I must say... dining with the devil is the most fearsome, terrifying experience I've had Oh... But Here's the kicker; I would never trade it for a vacation to the Bahamas

I feel at home in the heart of danger
I feel safest in the heart of danger and in everyone's despair Because I know I am what some fear, some run from So, don't expect me to be scared of you, lowly mortal I dine with the devil and toast to greater terrors to my enemies with blood-red champagne glasses half-filled with blood Hmm nothing can quench my thirst better

I must say, what we talk about over dinner... is out of this human world. Literally
And you don't wanna know what's on the table

Save Me I I

I'd rather be a lover than a fighter
All my life I've been fighting
The Silence, so loud
I need earplugs

I've been quiet for too long How, more often than not, I wish I am wrong

I find peace in the violence
My faith, tested
To everyone, I do and always detested
To the peace in the violence, I attest
The solitude in the storm

Your cold embrace is so warm Everyone and everything shows me there's no point in trying My whole life I wished to be more Now, I feel like it's all a burden

What do you do when you're the one who should be hiding?
Hiding in plain sight seems easy but a lot harder to do There's really no point in trying I'm in need of a savoir
All my life feels like God's one big failure
All my life, I've been hurting
You all and always say, 'voice out and talk'
But when I do, everyone dies

Does that mean all these were lies? !
Is that how powerful I am? !
Or it's just how toxic I am? !
