Miyu Yamizakie(3/11/94)

A girl of 16. She is all into anything anime. And her spelling is bad. She likes to take time to be with her friends. She is addicted to Deidara and she loves animals. She is very sweet when you don't make her mad.

Behind This Mask

Hiding from the world, she takes off the mask,
thankful to be alone at last.
when out in the world, she pretends to be glad,
although deep inside she is very sad.
she puts on a mask so her fear won't show,
wishing time would hurry so she could go.
she looks at everyone and just smiles,
she's been hiding behind the mask quite awhile.
afraid to tell her true feelings because she is scared,
to do something different that no one else has dared.
she wonders why people are so hateful and mean,
nobody knows what she has seen.
going back home now, she takes off the mask,
thankful once to again to be alone at last.

Broken

Your words slice through me
sharp as a knife
my blissful happiness is gone
because of this strife
each day is the same
you break me, then put me back together
i'll go in my room to hide
when i come out, you act like you don't remember you don't see how hurt i am even though it's so clear and no matter how many times i cry
you don't see a single tear
you don't understand how much pain you cause me you'll never understand my sorrow
you don't know how many times i pray that it'll be better tomorrow
but it'll never be better for when i think there's finally peace
it's all torn away
it comes to a cease
i end up broken
just like before all the suffering i've gone through i'll go through once more i wish you'd stop this yelling
it makes me feel like such a failure you don't realize what you're doing my life is becoming my nightmare
my memories are haunting me
i'm restless every night
i cannot fall asleep
all i can do is cry
the next day you come up to me
you put me together again
then you say you're sorry
and you think you've been forgiven but there's something different now something is not right for a piece of me is missing

one that's beyond your sight
i feel like all my true happiness is gone
i'm in this deep depression but nobody will ever know this for i'm lying and pretending i'll never show how i really feel unless you're someone i trust you'll never see a single tear shed in public my pain turns to dust but no matter what i lead you to believe inside i am crying silently for i know if things keep going this way my nightmare will become my reality

Divine Love

The rainstorm came over me,
And I felt my spirit break.
I lost all my belief you see,
And realized my mistake.
But time through a prayer to me,
And all around me became still.

I need love,
Love's divine.
Please forgive me now I see,
That I've been blind.
Give me love,
Love is what I need.
To help me know my name.

Miyu Yamizakie

Do You Get It?

Don't you understand?
We can never be just friends.
One day,
You'll realize that we belong together.
And when that day comes,
All your tears will dry.

Miyu Yamizakie

Fallen

Again, it has come to this,
You have left yourself all alone.
Even your own voice was screaming warnings,
But you have turned your ears to stone.
Twisting and spiraling.
You're still heading down.
Following the prophecy of death,
He's led you to the 'lost and found'.

You hear your own voice saying,
'The bell tolls for thee...'
The murderers who would not die,
Will never again set you free.
You yell for them to leave you alone.
As you admit for the fool you are,
You know you will enjoy no sleep.
Because death's door has been left ajar.

And none of this has prepared you for this moment.
Then again, none of this may actually be true.
Maybe you're still on some remote high,
Waiting for this present nightmare to pass through.

Fallen, fallen.
You're very soul is in demise.
Fallen, fallen.
Have you forgotten how to rise?

Friendship

Faithfulness is the key to,
Being a good friend.
Respect them from beginning,
To end.
Neglect is something never,
To do.
Depend on them, they'll see you through.
Secrets are things you should,
Be able to share.
Helping them out and showing,
You care.
Inseparable is how we'll be.
Preparing for life! -
Just you and me.

Miyu Yamizakie

Have You Ever

Have you ever had your Heart ripped out?
Have you ever felt the pain I feel?
Have you ever seen through eyes unclouded?
Have you ever thought of my feelings?
Have you ever wanted to know me?
Have you ever tried to understand me?
Have you ever seen the side only my friends see?
Have you ever even tried being nice to me?
Once you have done all this,
It is then,
Only then,
Will I see you more than a devil in disguise.
Untill that day,
You can just wipe your feet at the doors of hell,
And have a nice day!

Miyu Yamizakie

Hopeless

Nothing seems right,
You're there, I'm here,
Walk away from the love that was.
My face, when I left you a rose,
Appeared nothing to you.
Making me realize I don't belong.
Crying or what you have done to me.
Being comforted by others,
It won't matter.
Love is love, it will last forever.
Hopeless,
Worthless,
Love.
A farewell is what has to become.
I fear the likes of a rose.
Remembering the way I wanted you,
To hold my heart.
Keeping it safe from all harm.
The gaze of your blue eyes,
It won't matter now,
A meaningless hope for love,
Has disappeared into the world...
Of dreams.

Miyu Yamizakie

I Don'T Care

Fall into my hands.
It's a song that never ends.
Hold me close,
Hold me tight.
I'll make you feel,
Like dynamite.
Take me low,
Fly me high.
There's no limit,
But the sky.
I don't care,
What I might do...
When I fall in love with you.

Miyu Yamizakie

I Hate That I Love You

I hate the way you tell me you love me
When your with her
I hate when you tell me you miss me
I hate the way you make me think of you I was getting over you
But you had to call
And tell me you still love me
I dont wanna wait
I dont wanna be played
I want to be over you
You give me more and more pain
I just wanna scream
I hate you for doing this to me
I hate how I still love you
I wish I would stop loving you
I am that kind of girl that loves you but hates you
My heart wants to hate you
Not Love you anymore
It hurts way to much
I wanna hate you..

Miyu Yamizakie

I Know This Love Is True....

You are the sun,
You are the moon,
You are the soft clouds in the afternoon.
You are my world,
You are my everything.

You are the hills,
You are the seas,
You are the blossom petals in the breeze.
You are my world,
You are my everything.

My destiny...

Miyu Yamizakie

I Love You So Much I Hate You

my heart is black,
and you helped it do that,
the way you play with my love,
makes me feel like mud,
the way you look at me and tell me you care,
and then you leave and do the same thing to some other girl,
i feel the feelings you have for me,
but i dont know if i want them,
you play around with me,
and i dont like that,
when im with you im so in love,
and then when you leave i swear i hate your guts,
you never really talk to me,
the way i want you to,
about the past and what you did to me,
the way you ripped out my heart,
and threw it away,
like an old toy never played,
in the beginning everything was great,
untill that girl came back and stole you away,
you swore to me you didnt and wouldnt hurt me,
i guess thats a lie cause look at me now,
when you say you love me and your just jokeing,
my heart breaks and falls to the ground,
my black heart is nothing now,
because of you i am nothing,
you broke me down untill i was invisiable to everyone around,
i hated you for what you did,
but im so in love with you,
that i pushed it out of my head,
i need you to know how i feel,
before its to late,
because when you come and im already gone,
ill be just another mistake like all the other things you put off...

I Will Wait Untill You Fall From Grace

Looks like the Holy Ghost is gone,
And now you're afraid of yourself.
Over your sholder you have watched,
Heaven fall into Hell.

Looks like you boat is about to sink,
So it is time to prepare.
Even the angles are losing sleep,
And the sidewalks are bare.

Oh, it looks like the war was in your head,
And not your heart.
Just when you think you've figured things out,
They all fall apart.

Miyu Yamizakie

In The Dark

In the dark she has been waiting.
Shes been their while you've been hating.
You see that? All she does is cry.
And all you do is give her an evil eye.
But when your friends leave,
You have an ace up your sleeve.
All you have is a trick to play.
And you think thats okay.
But look in her eyes.
She can see all your lies.
But she is still in love with you.
This feeling she gives is all to new.
She only wishess for you to love her.
You say your king. Sure!
Her only dream is to make yours come true.
Just a little nudge to push you throw.
When you see,
She will leap for glee!
But untill then she will remain here.
And when you start to cry she'll dry every last tear.
Then again you leave her out.
But love shines in her and she shall not pout!

Just Another Lost Soul

As the light fades to black,
I allow my eyes to close.
I'm overwhelmed by the pain,
although it never shows.

I'm being carried away,
so far away from here.
effortlessly drifting,
I'm leaving behind the fear.

leaving behind the heartache,
forgetting the chaos and despair.
I wonder if anyone will miss me,
or if anyone would even care.

with these thoughts I vanish,
just another poor lost soul.
roaming the world forever,
doomed to never again be whole.

Miyu Yamizakie

Life Is A Prison

Life is a prison,
Oh God let me out.
No one to listen,
To hear when you shout.

Climb the walls of insanity,
Ride the waves of despair.
If you fall it don't matter,
There's no one to care.

Used to wish for a window,
To see birds, trees and sky,
But you're better without one -
Stops you aiming too high.

Watching freedom is painful,
For those locked away.
Seeing joy, love and happiness,
Another price that you pay.

Strong is good, weak is bad.
Be it false, be it true.
Your mind makes the choice,
And enforces it too.

Cell walls built by society,
With rules to adhere.
If you breach the acceptable,
You had better beware.

Hide the pain, carry on,
Routine is the key.
Don't let on that you're not,
What you're pretending to be.

Lock it all up inside you,
How badly that bodes.
Look out for that one day,
When it all just explodes.

Leaving naught but a shell,
Base functionality too.
But killing all else,
That was uniquely you.

So how do you grow,
With a timebomb inside?
Or how to defuse it,
Without destroying its ride?

You can't.

Misunderstood

Hiding from the world, she takes off the mask,

My Life

My life,
Ment nothing to me.
Then a guy like you,
Came along.
Unhappy days are over,
'Cause I can always,
Be with you.
Say you love me.
Say I will always be yours.
Say that you'll never break,
My heart.

My Pain

I am in so much pain...
Not a scratch throat,
Or a large wound,
Or even a broken leg.
No...
This pain is worse.

This heart-wrenching feeling,
Makes me feel weaker every day.
My stomach turns as I exhale.
This pain is too much for me to take,
And I fear it might be my undoing.

When you are sick,
Of course you're in pain.
You're fussed over.
Like a little baby.
You can't do what you want.
What's worse?

For me the most,
Unbearable pain,
Is seeing what I want,
Every day.
And not being able to have it.
Wanting what I...
Can't have...
Wanting...
You...

Nobody Really Knows Me

Silently screaming
Nobody hears
Falling down my cheeks
Are unseen tears
I need your help
Nobody cares
This silent suffering
Is getting to be more than I can bear
Please help me now
Get rid of my fears
Please help me now
Sort through this despair
I may as well give it up
I've got nowhere to turn from here
I'm empty inside
And nobody knows or cares
Just go away now
Whether your here doesn't matter
This silent suffering has come again
And will remain here forever

Miyu Yamizakie

Nothingness

Nothingness consumes my soul
where my heart used to be there's an empty hole depression overtakes my mind
i know pretty soon there'll be nothing inside emotions eat away at me
my constant lies distort my reality happiness lies beyond my grasp it can't get through this plastic mask forbidden tears fall secretly
i suddenly leave my fantasy
I'm thrust upon the world wide awake my poor misused body begins to ache
it gets harder to pretend every day it's a struggle to make my smile stay i know pretty soon I'll just give in and fall down towards the darkness again

Screw It I Need You

How many times will I count the days
Until I see your face again?
I'm never gonna,
But I'll still love you...

I miss you every day of the year,
And all the nights I sleep, I cry,
Now I'm filled with anxiety and fear
Until I see that you are near again.

I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,
I love you...

I can't see the sky through all my stupid tears,
They're always there and I just can't get rid of them,
And even when the sun shines brighter than all my best years,
It's always overcast and raining wherever I am without you.

I hate you,
I love you...

I've loved you forever, I've always known
Since the first day we met
That you were the one, but now you're gone Forever.

My misery spreads like wildfire
Every day I'm without you,
And you'll never come back again, you're liar,
But I still can't help but love you.

I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,
I love you...

I hate what you're doing to me,

I'm fearing all the love I have for you.
I know in my heart that I need to believe
But I just can't live without you.
I just can't believe when you're gone.
I just can't believe that you're gone.
I don't know what I'm supposed to believe, anyway...

I hate you,
I love you...

I love you so much,
But I hate who you are,
No, I hate what you've become....
Please see in my face
Who you used to love,
The one you're hiding from...

I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,
I love you...

Maybe if I could find
A reason why
You'd leave me or break my heart,
Maybe then the light would shine
In my eyes
And I'd be able to laugh again.

But until then
I'll be suffering
From a pain,
A pain called mourning...

Too many days 'til I'll see you again...
Too many ways to play pretend...
But never enough to smile again,
But never enough for my heart to mend.

I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,

I love you...

Why does it even matter now?
You're gone forever until I know how
I can see you again and smile.
Why does it feel like there's no tomorrow?

There aren't enough words for me to say
That I love you... but You'd just shake your head in dismay
And punch me in the gut
But I'm already dead...
Or so it seems...
But tomorrow will still come.

Tomorrow will still come,
Even when you're gone...
Tomorrow will still come,
But I'll be just as sad as yesterday.

I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,
I love you,
I hate you,
I love you...

Screw it, I need you.

Simple

Everyone cries, everyone bleeds.
Noone said life is an easy thing.
That's the beauty of it.
When you loose your way,
Close your eyes and go to sleep.
To wake to another day.

Miyu Yamizakie

Suffering

So faraway,
Just faraway.
Even everyone walks,
With suffering.
Anywhere,
Night and day.
Even if it is damaged.
With shout so.
Just day by day.
Tomarrow is found.

You may say you dont care.
But I know you better.
I know what you are feeling,
Because I've felt it too.
The sadness you feel,
I felt too.
The pain you bare,
I felt ten times harder.
I want to help you.
But will you accept it?
Or will you wait,
Till your too deep in depression,
For me to save you.
I want to know,
Because I care about you.

Though I Chose Death Instead Of Pointless Pain

Though I chose death instead of pointless pain,
Please forgive the manner of my leaving.
My love and need for all of you remain.
I could not long such suffering sustain,
Nor would it long have held you from your grieving.
Though I chose death instead of pointless pain,

I hope that choice will not my memory stain,
Nor lead you to be wroth at my deceiving.
My love and need for all of you remain.

For only in you do I live again,
Woven like a wind into your weaving.
Though I chose death instead of pointless pain,

I put to you the plea of the self-slain:
To comprehend an anguish past conceiving.
My love and need for all of you remain

That all that I have been not be in vain,
But blend into the earth of your believing.
Though I chose death instead of pointless pain,
My love and need for all of you remain.

Miyu Yamizakie

Too Late

She sits all alone
Huddled up in despair
Tears are rolling down her face
Her hope is leaving with each tear

She wonders what she's done
To deserve this cruel fate
She sits there misunderstood
When help comes it'll be too late

She takes the blade in her hand
Watches it gleam in the light
Slowly she raises it to her throat
Knowing she'll kill herself this night

Later on they'll find her
And realize their mistake
They could have helped this girl
But now it's too late

Miyu Yamizakie

Truth

I now finally know the truth.
I now know I can never be with you.
No matter how much I love you,
Even if my love overflows the oceans,
You have found another.
It hurts me now that I know.
I thought we'd be together forever.
I'm afraid I thought wrong.
I hope you come back to me soon.
For I miss you.
I think that I may drown my heart-
In my very own tears.

Miyu Yamizakie

Virus

As I stand upon my ledge,
I gaze down at the world that hates me.
I ask myself,

'Why are we put here on earth?
If you sit back and think about it,
Humans are nothing more than a virus.

All they do is demolish the things around them.
Yes, there are those that think of others and not themselves,
But there are not enough of them to go around.

There are those that plan to rid the world of humans.
There are those that wish to help nature destroy us.

Many people assume that a comet will kill us.

That is not true.

We will be the source of the world's,
And our own destruction.

Miyu Yamizakie

Voice Of Sorrow

I am the coice of sorrow.
Hollow and alone.
The fault is my own.
The end is near,
And its true that no one will shed a tear.
No one will cry as I slowly die.
I'm all alone,
As I turn into stone.
Won't anyone catch me?
Please save me frome this misery.
My heart radiates the collor of despair.
And no one seem to care.
Forever on my own,
Forever and always...
Alone.

Miyu Yamizakie

Who Is Who

Pretending to be someone.
Predictable to those who harass.
Who are you?
Who am I?
A world filled with unanswered questions.
What is what?
What is now?
All hung up on time.
Life is death.
Death is life.
Cling upon arms of comfort.
Nothing is something.
Something is nothing.
You can not hide a secret from me.
At last my love you do me wrong.
For love is a crush beyond thy heart.
Offering the last blood to life.
Losing the way of being.
Who we are...
What we'll become.

Miyu Yamizakie

With You

I wanna grow old with you.
I wanna die lying in your arms.
I wanna look into your eyes.
I wanna be there for you,
Sharing everything you do,
Because I wanna grow old with you.

Miyu Yamizakie

You Never Really Loved Me

You never loved me
I don't know how I never knew
I've known you my whole life
I've never known the real you
Am I really that unlovable
You just had to push me away
You loved to see me hurt
It's what you lived for everyday
Every time I'd go visit
You'd try to make me cry
Still I held you dear in my heart
I really don't know why
The day I learned the truth
My tears blinded out my sight
I went through the day like a robot
I was crying throughout the night
I haven't gone over in a while I'm giving you what you asked for
A part of me hopes you've missed me
Another wants to hate you forever
Then you call and say you want me back in your life
Even after you caused me so much pain
And even though I may come back over
My feelings toward you will stay the same
