A Poem For My Daughter..

a poem for my daughter..

you spell every good word i know, you mean every good things i learn,

you give sweetness to the sourest fruit i taste.

you are the clearest map to top, you simply define the real essence of life to me.

you are the reason i exist, in my heart you set peace.

you are the greatest gift sent to my door

i love you more and more.

i love you the most

now, i'll never get lost cause i surely found a place to stay and i thank God everyday.

A Poem For My Mom.. Shirley

Sometimes we fight and argue However, you still listen to my points of view.
In spite of what I've done that hurt you, you never left me.
Real mom's love you gave me.
Love you mom, please remember that Even now that I'm a mother,
Your Baby Nini, I'll stay forever.

A Poet Writes..

a poet writes from within, not always from what have beens.
a poet sees in and out of box.
a poet loves truly and bruises deeply.
a poet's heart may be dying but you won't see them crying.
a poet just smiles at you but he's seeing right through you a poet wears a mask in doing his task.
a poet can hide what's going on inside.
    a pretender you may call it, but i think that's just it.
a poet does what actors do, portraying a role that isn't you.
    only, an actor acts.....
a poet writes.

Are You Too Proud Of Your Beauty?

knowing that somebody thinks i surgically enhanced my face, makes me feel flattered
rather than insulted
because God and I know that what you see
is what is real.

NO REDOINGS, NO PAINTINGS.

Besides, I believe in INNER BEAUTY.

That having a pure heart has always been the BEST way to beautify one's self.

Because beauty fades
but the friends you've earned for being real, will become your legacy as we leave this world.
We'll all eventually grow old,
by then NO MAKE UPS, NO PHOTOSHOPS and NO BELO or CALAYANS can cover your lines and conceal your wrinkles.
Still the inner beauty shall reveal.

Never in my life had I laughed at other people's look Instead I was and still busy admiring one's allure.
I see beauty in every person's eyes.
That's my thing. and I'm proud having this mindset.
seeing through the inner part of one's soul.
YES

We all have FLAWS, and irregularities.
it's just a matter of admission.
accepting that in some aspects, there's always a 'somebody' better than you.
But None of us has the right to condemn another person's physique.
So, before burping a word against someone....

THINK THINK THINK and THINK!

She may not be perfect...

but...

ARE YOU?

Been There!

people come and people go.. if someone left you hangin' don't hold on, just let go!
keep silent, say a prayer..
in a minute
pain will become your strength and the aching will fade away....
Put your heart in God's powerful hand.
You Just have to believe in Him, trust me..been there!

Fallin' Inlove With Rain..

Never thought that rainy days would come and make me smile.
When i normally hate being wet on a Saturday night.
I didn't sing with you neither did I stop you from playing the song
I sang with you cause I liked that tune.
That kiss you gave i knew was wrong but it held really strong.
You poured on me drops of love, now, you're all i wanna have.
Can't wait for the sun to set,
cause I'm longing to hear that song again.
You're the only rain i wish won't stop, cause in my heart, the love won't drop.
But..
As much as i wanna hold my Rain alone, futile.
Cause the Rain i learned to love, always have to go back home.

Forever You Are Mom's Baby..

You are the most beautiful person i know..
You render me the hottest touch and the coolest smile!
You give me the loveliest feeling knowing you are mine.
The moment i laid my eyes on you,
I knew I'll never be alone anymore.
Cause someone's gonna love me forevermore.
You to me are the prettiest baby and forever you'll stay that way even when you grow and become a gorgeous lady.

How Lucky Are You?

have you ever complained why you're eating same meals every week?
why you're still wearing shoes you bought a year ago?
have you ever complained your clothes don't go with the trend?
or the hottest cellphone's not in your hand?
have you ever complained your car's not as cool as the others'?
or why you're living in a place not your 'dream house'?
if YES..

REALITY CHECK:

you're lucky!

why?

think about it..REFLECT!

Love Trespasses (It Comes Unexpectedly)

you can never choose the person whom to fall inlove with,
nor when to fall inlove.

Love comes with no permission without any explanation.

Love comes in without knockin' at the door,
It comes unexpectedly..

They say to use our heads over our hearts desire..
but you know you can never love wisely,
cause in love,
there are no valedictorians, no veterans,
we are all rookies and in kindergarten.

when Love trespasses,
you're given no choice but to have it OTHERWISE, regret never having to grab it.

Masquerade

i do sometimes mask my face with a smile for cover up and look invincible...

but as the day ends,

as i lay me down to sleep,

i cannot anymore pretend and trick myself into wearing a mask..

the tears come down like waterfalls and reveals the pain that no masquerade can conceal i just fall.

My Inner Strength

mommy used to be afraid in a room alone.. but eversince you were born,
even when you were still in my womb, you gave mommy the strength that whenever i'm feelin' sad and scared, just one hug from my baby and im okay..
the fear suddenly just goes away!

i love you my darling, you are my everything.
now i wish that i'll be the mom that you and every babies could ever ask for, cause i've never known love this way before.
i thank the Lord 24/7,
for giving me you..my Baby HEAVEN.

Rhythmic Love

Met at the wrong place, at the wrong time.
But the feeling wasn't worth a golden dime,
It felt more like a lifetime.
Though I really tried to start to pause
But i couldn't stop wishing to Santa Claus.
To keep you as my Christmas gift Cause my love for you, it just won't shift
I never believed a love like this exists,
But whenever I aim to cool it down
In your eyes, there's the look,
I couldn't fight, i just breakdown.
Now the time has brought us far,
I never wanna step out this car.
Even if we ran out of gas,
Cause I know this love should forever last.
I rode with you on a rocky road for quite some time, Still, I intend to drive with you cause together we create a rhyme.

Share It!

Soothing and Magical
It brightens and Lightens up
Every mood..

so why not share and flash that sweetest smile beautiful one!

Sleep Sweet!

Angels in the night
your halos are shining bright and your wings are taking you way up high.. waiting for heavens to send our gifts tonight.
please come near before i lay on bed whisper songs to my ear and touch my head
And may you won't forget to blow us our goodnight kisses and grant all our largest wishes.

'sleep sweet..little darling" you'll get your gift tomorrow morning..'

Stuck In The Room Of No Exit!

a heart is one different creature.. it beats unaccordingly with our mindset, it decides beyond our knowledge,
it acts stubbornly, even if you're unready.
you may try to ignore it and act sane but admit it, once it beats it's never the same.

before you know it,
there you are!
stuck in the room of no exit!

Warning: Love Dies..

No matter how true Love is.. when Lies are repeatedly told,
the tie becomes weak,
the bond gradually breaks,
and the heart eventually stops loving.
the feeling may not abruptly fade but in it's due time
it will surely slowly die.

warning:
LIES could kill LOVE.

What Heaven Means To Me..

How lucky am i to have my Everyday smile
And good laughs all the time.
Vanilla, you're sweet as it.
Everything, that's how you mean to me.
Never will I be alone again because of you

my baby Heaven..

Whisper A Prayer..

Lord, i offer You my life
my heart i give You my soul i surrender
and i believe in You.

please guide me
take care of me
embrace me in Your arms..
and give me,

ENOUGH FEAR
for me to stay humble..
ENOUGH SORROW
for me to grow..
and ENOUGH PAIN
for me to remain human.
