Who Knew

Who knew?

Who knew that this could ever be?
Who knew we'd come this far
Who knew that we could be like this?
After we wished upon that star

Who knew we'd even meet each other
And become the best of friends
Who knew that we could change the saying?
"All good things come to an end"

Who knew that we would wait this long
Who knew it was worth our while
Who knew we'd be husband and wife
Who knew we'd be walking down the aisle
