i like writting and reading poetry.. I think writting is a way which keeps us relex ... Sometime when we cry we feel alone and no one is there who give us his/her arms that time only ur skill of writting provide u an oppertunity to be patient.....

For Some Time

We should be silent, for some time, stop! taking, stop! walking and stop it all every things.
for same time....
we should be forget all our sad feelings,
and kill our sorrows,
for same time.
because, we should be listen and feel that,
what nature says? ? ? ? ?
