Nobody Somebody()

Hi,

This is Phoenix. I'm a poetry-loving Brit who guiltily indulges in the works of Sylvia Plath, Maya Angelou and Emily Dickinson I know, very different! .

The themes of my poems tend to be: music, sadness/ depression, stress/ anxiety, love, death, chaos and guilt. I often use recurring imagery such as the moon, colours and my personal favourite, shadows.

I hope you enjoy my poetry! Please leave criticism for me, I am at the very start of my writing " career" .
