At Risk

At risk that's what we are
That's what we are label
Because of our skin color; not because of our actions
At risk are you and me
Because of all these people that choose to judge us
You know to yourself you're not at risk for anything
But because of your skin you don't even reach border-line
You have been dropped past the yellow-line
All because you don't look like them, live where they live or know who they know
You and I know that you're educated so do they.
But they know your pass and say you'll never get to their level
Are you at risk?
Yes you are, you know why
Because you're not what they want you to be.
It's not just you it's me, her, him and all those who look like us
This label they have given us
Can't limit us, they will try to break us.
We got to show them that they can't hold us down
With the help of those they can't stop us.
At risk is you and me, now let's show them all we can be

My sister is gone
Still I don't know what to do about it
I don't want to move on Can't come to realization that I won't see her again
Picturing that day I arrive home without her there
My Neighbour My Cousin My Bestfriend My Sister
Everything she is me she'll always be Nothing can replace her and the times we had Surely I'll be missing you, but I can't feel sad
I know your asleep now and you're suffering no more
I guess I'm being selfish, because I am thinking about me and how I won't see you anymore
I don't mean too, it's just that
We just spend time together, you were truly divine
You were healthy, you were moving about you were fine
But then you started to fall sick again
I wasn't there for that and it breaks my heart
We always knew that it may have taken you away
But no so soon, not today
Twenty-one and you're gone
Love you more than anything, My memory you'll always be, Never will I forget you
My Big Sister; My Friend; My Neighbour
All the things you are to me means so much to me
First Neighbours we met when you were 11 and I was 7
Then friends that's what we became
The very best was when we became sisters it something so special and dear to me
So much about is to talk about
So much we have shared; I have so much to remember
I Love You I Love You; There so much love here
My heart hurts, but I know
That you suffering is no more and that all that matters
WE ALL MISS AND LOVE YOU
AND NEVER WILL YOU BE FORGOTTEN

Death

Sorrow never goes away
Tears last forever
Never do they go away
Lives rot away
And everyone prays to get through another day
Hearts are troubled
Feelings fade away
Families are broken
And new friends awaken
Time has passed
Days have gone by
And everyone starts to move on
It's time again
The heavens call for another
But no one wants them to go away
Therefore the pain and the sorrow would come back again tomorrow
For another day
And for another time in my life
I have to let another one go

Fed-Up

I hope I don't wake up today
Each and everyday
The pain grows stronger and I get weaker
Fighting to stay strong
But it won't be long till it all cave in
Try so hard not to give in, not to let them win
All the thoughts that goes to my mind is all pain
It's driving me insane to think I may wake up agin
The fact is, that I don't know what I lack
And because of that I am trap in a reality that's not even real
It's now very hard for me to even feel
I can't tell what's real
Because of that I get trap up in a passionless, messed up relationship that's heartless
It's all a mess
Unsure of me drives me crazy
Accept-less when there should be more
Tired of closing the door
The pressure of being me is tireless
There is so much to explain
The fact is that I am at the end of my game.

Friends

Life takes everything from you
You feel weak and useless at times
The ones who pick you up always stabs you in your heart
Friends should stay together
But something always takes them away
Who can you really depend on?
Who will really stay?
I never had a friend that I really trusted and I still don't I don't mean disrespect but...
I know y'all good enough to know...
I can't trust y'all
I don't care what you thinking
It doesn't matter to me
Because if you respect what I am saying
Then you're exactly what I'm talking about
If you think I don't trust you
Then I can show you the way out

Paige J. De Suze

Giving Up

FRIENDS are so DARE to my HEART
They belong with my SOUL
I wish I had the ones I once had
I wish things have never gotten so BAD
I realized I always got to stick to MYSELF through thick and thin
I wish I had FRIENDS I once had Cause if I did things won't be soo bad
Could always find NEW ONES
But what's the point; you always get the SAME RESULT
I'm tired of TRYING
Tired of CARING
Tired of GIVING
Tired of ALWAYS being the fall back
Tired of being UNDERSTANDING
I'm gonna STOP TRUSTING
SECRETS are not longer SECRET when it comes to THEM
This is the END of the ROAD
Sorry to say it but I CAN'T be FRIENDS with those I CAN'T TRUST, those who TALK BEHIND MY BACK; those who don't UNDERSTAND my chosen track
I'm tired of saying ONE MORE CHANCE
I'm GIVING UP on those I will ALWAYS CARE FOR.
I'm GIVING UP on those that chose to close the FRIENDSHIP DOOR
I'm GIVING UP on those that I can't tango with any more
I'm GIVING UP on YOU because there is no future with a FRIEND LIKE YOU

Her Story

This is a story about a little girl. This story was never told. It goes like this. Her name is unknown and she has troubles in her life. Not the little girl troubles y'all think it is. Not it's the real hardcore troubles that she faces everyday. Something happened to her when she was younger something so terrible so terrible you wouldn't want it to happening to your daughter. She was about 6 years old and it happened like this. She was molested again and again and it carried on for a couple of years. OMG you should have seen her tears. She never told anybody until now she was a shy little girl. Until her mother walk in on it and she was shocked and said what the hell is going on. That's more than she should have told. But nothing ever happened to that guy and guess what that little girl still remembers these times and she wants to die. After her and her mom talked no one ever spoke about it until not. But this story I'm telling you is true and it happens everyday too. To a little girl who will remember and it will stay with her forever. Lets try to make it happened never ever.

I Am Tired

I am Tired
I am Tired of Being depress
I am Tired of Being me
I am Tired of Living up to people
I am Tired of Giving in
I am Tired of Letting go
I am Tired of Trying
I am Tired of Caring
I am Tired of Being your shoulder
I am Tired of Everything
I am just Tired

Paige J. De Suze

I Am Unbreakable

I've seen so many things in my life
That made me grow into the person I am TODAY
I've been through things you could never imagine
You probably would never experience
I've done things you should never do
I've have lied maybe even to you
I cared for many
And was hurt by plenty
But I am still stronger till this day
And I will till they put me to lay
Because of all the things I have done, seen and been through and more
I am a strong young lady and very mature Don't try to break me because I am therefore Unbreakable

Paige J. De Suze

I Wonder

Sometimes I wonder what makes you tick
You seem so distance
Like you don't know how to feel how to be real
Pushing away, then here you are begging me to stay
I don't understand why it's so hard for you to at least try to be a man
Try to understand
I ain't always going to be around
I refuse to let you take me down
Why is it so hard for us to relate
It's not like we on our first date
Your not who I made you out to be
And I won't just wait around to see if you're really into me.

Paige J. De Suze

Leave

I don't know what to say to you
I don't know what to tell you
All I can say is that I want to see you walk out that door
I'm tired of trying
I don't want you here
Just get out of my life
So I can see my way clear
Even when I'm with you I feel like I'm alone
You haven't brought me anything that I couldn't get on my own
You say you love me
But I don't see that love
All I see is a boy who knows nothing about real love.

Paige J. De Suze

Love Is

Love is cruel
It's no good
All it does is make you cry
Till that very day you die
It's painful even when joy is in the air
It has no shape and deafly no fear
Love is cruel and no good
I wish love wasn't so painful

Paige J. De Suze

Loving You

Loving you brings me thousands of tears, but loving you releases all my fears Loving you is easy to do but hard to maintain because you make it seem like your life is full of shame

I want to be apart of you, I want to be there for you

I need you to be real, I need you to show me how you really feel

Every time I think about you I can't help but smile whether it's good or bad, I love you

No matter who comes and who goes even if we both go our separate ways I'll always remember you as long as am living

I just need you to show yours feelings to me

You need to let me in so I can be in your life so I can know you

Be real and make me feel how I use to feel about you

What happened to you

You don't seem to realize I don't want to live without you

I want to be apart of you be able to love you, console you, hold you, grow with
you

It hurts to know that your not in for the long run hope you had your fun

Doesn't hurt to try, it wasn't worth the tears

I gotta go I have to leave because you don't care how I really feel

Forget you I will never, in my heart you'll be forever I don't know if it worth it, but here you'll stay

Paige J. De Suze

Missing You

Years has past since that time
We were so good together
I can't believe I'm missing you
I didn't think I would
I've been thinking about you lately
All the things we had shared
Because you and I was that special pair
I guess I'm tryna say
I wish you were still here
To help me let out my tears
But I guess it doesn't matter how I feel
Because if it did you would still be here keeping it real
I wish you kept the promise you had made
I just don't know why I keep going back down memory lane
I just hope this is the last visit, because I am tired of going through this shit.

Paige J. De Suze

My Change

Tears flow down my face as I think about all the times you hurt me
You made me cry
You made me just want to die
I've try to forget but I can't let go
You seem to not care how you made me feel
To me you are barely even real
I can't change the past but I can change my future
And my future is not going to be with you
And that's a promise I can keep

Paige J. De Suze

My Heart

My heart was ripped from my body
Stomp on the floor and given back to me
I saw it coming...
Felt it in my soul
What I thought...was...that....maybe I.. could save it
Rip from my body it's beating in my hand
I'm looking at it, and wonder...
What so I do with ti NOW
It BLEEDS in my hand and it's beginning to SLOW-DOWN
He took my fucking heart and ripped it from my body
Then he turns.... and tells me.... I still love you honey
It won't stop BLEEDING in my hand.
My body keeps rejecting it
A heart that no one wants
My body no longer wants anything to do with it
Everyday he makes it BLEED more..
I can't swallow the pain
It hurts so bad I feel it through my veins
My body keeps rejecting my heart
All it does is BLEED
It will no longer function with my body
So I decided to throw it out the door
I sit here and wonder why you couldn't just finish it off and make it die

Paige J. De Suze

My Thoughts

There is not a day that passes by that I don't think about you
You were my everything and that is so true
You gave me everything I needed plus more
You were my shining star
But I guess I wasn't good enough for you
Well what can I do?
I'm not going to hope that you come back to me
I will move on no matter how I feel
You were my first and only
Guess what baby I thank you for that
And I hope you are very happy
And I wish you the best
My first and true love.

Paige J. De Suze

Simple Me

I'm dreaming of my future
I'm remembering my past
My life seem so empty
Nothing ever last
I'm not worth it
I never will be
I'm nothing different
I'm always me
I'll never change
I'll just remain me
I'll be me till I die
I'll be happy I'll not cry.

Paige J. De Suze

Tell Me

Is it right to choose the faith of my life
Is it okay to you to see my family cry?
What makes you more deserving than me?
Who are you to be the one to have judged me?
Can you not see how loved I am
Do you think this makes you a bigger man?
You may not feel pity and guilt
But are you happy with taking away something so precious and truth
If you are what kind of person does that make you?
From what I can tell, you are a murdered, a liar and a thief
You have no reason to stand tall and one day you will fall
I'll always be loved by those I have left
You have taken my body and mind
But my spirit and soul I have left behind
For those I have loved to keep them going
To let them know they shouldn't stop growing
But I have some questions for you..?
What makes you more deserving to live a life that I once had What makes your life worth MORE THAN MINE?
-> NOTHING <-

Us

We are young black ladies
Growing into our own
We work hard for what we want because we will soon live on our own
There are things out to get us
AIDS is a killer among us
Can't no one but our self's protect us
We are living in the days of pain, hate and sorrow
Some say we are free, but we ain't Nothing comes free, you always have to give It's hard for us out there
Us young black girls that no one cares for Don't get me wrong there are those who care
If there wasn't we wouldn't be here
But not everyone out there will care
It's a cold world out there
We've got to work for our own
Grow on our own
Become our own person
Because no one can do it for us
We're living to protect us
Our men don't seem to care about us
Because they are slowly killing us
We need to protect ourselves
Reaching our goals and becoming our own women
Can't no one stop us
They will try
But we will rise above and take what is ours
We have the will power and the strength
To be the best we can be
And y'all will see
Us young ladies
Rise above the rest, and shine among the best.

Waiting

I am sitting here writing this waiting for the right time to slit my wrist
I can't take it no more the pain is growing stronger and stronger
I just wish I had nothing to live for
So I can do it now
Maybe this is the right time for me to get mine
But there will never be a right time because I can't get it all done
I hope I can keep the knife away and I will pray and pray till that special day.

What Is Love

What is love?
Is it just in the mind?
Or is it something that is truly divine
Why does love hurt?
Is it suppose to
What is it really about?
Is it passion, feelings and trust?
Of is hurt, pain and sorrow
Can some explain it to me?
I really need a lesson
I think I am in love, with every question
Will you explain it to me?
It's something I really need to know
Or should I just let it go.

You

You are my life
Can't picture life without you
I feel so connected to you though... you live miles away from me
I can't think about you each day cause it will bring me to tears
You have been a rock for me the days I needed you though times have changed
You are still my rock; don't think you know that I want to help you with everything wrong in your life but...
I can't; you still live miles away and don't listen to a word I say Never thought; this is how our lives would be
I miss you wish I could be there for you
I can't wait to see you
I only want the best for you
I wish you make better decisions
I Love you; I always will; anything you need. I am Just promise me. You won't leave without saying
Good Bye <3

You And Me

I spend time with you
I grow to know you
I started to like you
You made me see things different
You grew to love me
And I grew to love you too
You've been there for me
And I've been there for you
I need you more than ever
You give me so much pleasure
I want to keep you forever
I wish you were my treasure
I would have kept you forever.
