Messy Room

Miranda clean your room
Is what I hear alot

Miranda I want it spotless
I give it all I got

My parents dont understand
That no matter how hard I try
I cannot obey their command

My room stays messy
All day and all night

My room will stay messy
Tomorrow and tomorrow night

I try my best to keep it clean but My room is messy and will never stay clean!

My Addiction

Evod is albino
He is as white as can be and if you look at him closely you'll say oh how pretty is he Evod likes to have fun
so i'll have to buy another one [budgie] Petco here I come theres not another albino
but thats just fine with me cause i'll buy an english one and name it Roarie!
Oh my god I cant stop

Petco here I come Budgies galore!
Now I have a Whilue, a Widget, a Nels, a Sky, And a B.
Oh my god will someone please help me!

Poetic Blooming

in my head
i find words
words that i can blend together those blended words are called poems poems
blended words slide through my tongue and teeth, smoothly like butter
i bloom with my poetic flavor
im a poet now

Seeing In The Night

I see the light
in the night
Shining very bright
A star
A star I say
A star is shining bright
A star is shining bright in the night
I saw the light
in the night

The Sickness, Life

Anger, frustration, pain
All the symptoms of life
Life is not easy
Life is not supposed to be easy
Life is a giagantic lesson to be learned Life is sucess you must earn Even through the Anger frustration and pain
There is somehting to gain Sucess is not handed to you Sucess is earned
Life is like an illness
You cant get through it without pain or frustration
This is how life is
This is how life always will be

The Summary Of The Seasons

The sweet summer breeze
The colors of the leaves
The cold chill of the snow
The ground begins to show

Walking Through My Mind

My thoughts swish through my mind like water in a cup
The demons that swallow my soul start eating me alive
My head pounds in anger and hatred
The world does not understand me
My angels have deserted me
I pray for them to come back
My hope is ever decreasing
What is lost is gone forever Darkness is all I see
I can't comprehend why all this has to happen to me
I walk through my mind, lost, without anyone to guide me
