Pooja Mehta()

I am an IT professional by profession but a writer, a photographer, a cook, and a mom at heart :) . God, has gifted me with a beautiful love story. So, this is just an attempt to spread Love - the most beautiful expression. Life poses challenges every passing day which seems so hard, but with love we conquer everything so easily.

With each work of my writing, I want to thank God and everyone around, who has impacted my life in some way.

I am working on my first book, where I am pouring my story in about my Love and my Life. I seek blessing from you all.

I Love You!

The bond and Care,
the Love we share
It will hold us together
Forever n Ever....
Forever and Ever...

Everything you do,
Everything you say,
Asks me more to have you everyday,
Forever n Ever,
Forever n Ever..

You are my world,
You are my soul,
you are behind my every goal
Forever n ever..
Forever n ever..

You are freshness of my breath,
You are sparkle of my eye,
What else, you are my life,
Forever and ever..
Forever and ever..

I like your touch,
I like the way you kiss,
Believe me, this one, I never wanna miss,
Forever n ever
Forever n ever....

I love you..... I love you..... I love you.... Forever n ever...

You Will Be Loved!

I did not know Love until I met you,
You taught me Love, you taught me care
Believe me, you are always in my prayers
You Love me and I love you tooooo....

Love to me was an illusion, so unreal
You taught me it is not a mirage but it is real
Love, the only thing which binds the world
Holds it together, until the end

I would do anything and everything for you,
For you are my love, my soul n my life,
You are smile on my face n warmth in my heart
You are nobody else's but my part

You are my happiness, you are my proud,
You are mine, I have no doubt,
You are all I have wanted, you are all I need,
My love and I grow in your heart, indeed,

You are my reason to live, to smile,
To get up in the morning, to walk a mile
Your touch so pure, sending chills down my spine,
In my heart you will always shine

You are my spring, You are my summer,
You are my Autumn, You are my winter,
You are my green, blue, brown and white,
You are my only one, please stay in my sight

I promise, I swear, I will always be there,
For in your heart I always beat
Yes, my heart, I can never cheat,
Believe me, you will be loved, I may be near or I may be far
