Fly

I can fly above the rest even when I have a test. I can do all the things I want when I am Flying on the wings of an angel. Take my hand and time will just drift away. Lying here dreamin of the life I live.

Friends

The days of gray just seeing there faces. I have the best friends just to have them makes me happy and not making me feel crappy.I never want to take a nappy. I hope we can stay friends forever

Smile

Even in the worst of days I see you and i smile
My smile may go away but just seeing you makes it come back.I Lost track of the days only counting grays until you come back.

Why

You tell me something and tell me it will be all right.
Ya maybe just for a single night but I plan to drink that's what makes you stink. Maybe look at the your little boy's face when you came home with a feeling of no embrace. I can not stand to see you like this. I miss the days you would come home and give me a great big hug, the times when I fell asleep in your arms come back to me. That's not you at least I hope not.
