Gio Nathan Estacio(June 25,1996)

You're still the one I love□
One desire mostly to have
Unaltered feelings I still keep
Restricted still, trapped in deep

Ending this would be impossible
Still, mind says it may be possible
Thinking of you makes me sad
I didn't know I'll miss you this bad

Loving secretly is a thing I can't bear
Like reality in my every nightmare
The way things goes is just unfair
Hankering for you to love me as I stare

Eyes wide open, now is a time to think!
Organize ideas in head, don't even blink!
Nothing bothers when thinking of you
Even if a sword on my heart goes through

Jumbled ideas makes my head sore
Ecstasy of mind, I can't feel anymore
Now, I'll tell you a simple thing you should not miss
I will love you forever and forever, you're one, I promise

Can You?

Just a moment with you, I wish...
Enter my life, make a twist,
Nullify my negative entities,
Inspire me, till forever begins to cease.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Conversation

Been a while since we last talked
Been a while since the two of us walked
And I can't avoid thinking what you feel
Has anything changed in between?

I wish there was something I could do
But then again, I lacked confidence
As if there was a wall for defense
And at it, I can't get through

A second chance was to us given
From feelings from the past that were hidden
At an intersection, our hearts met again
By mere coincidence, or a fate that was meant

I thought I can say 'I can't take it anymore'
But I just can't turn my back on you
And even though my heart is in sore
I'll bear it, because I know I need to

Despair

Being deeply inloved
Is a feeling I don't want to have
And I need to keep standing tall
Because I don't want to fall

I fell with the wrong person
And made serious mistakes
But now I am moving on
And thinking what new path to take

This personality I have
From the consequences of being inloved
I wasn't like this before
I'm not the usual me anymore

I lost a love, lost an inspiration
And I though I am beyond redemption
But life couldn't be more fair
And so my life is now in state of despair.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Fears

Being at the state of feeling alone
Being emotionless like a stone
Having no love and inspiration
Always feeling others rejection
Continuously walking the road without vindication
Continuously growing with the state of imperfection
And being the most lonely and infamous being
Are fears inside me that are existing.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Greatest Inspiration

Thinking of you sometimes
Reminiscing past memories
Reading between lines
Remembering piece by piece

Feeling glad when thinking of you
Taking me out of being blue
You were my inspiration
You took me into my deepest imagination

There is a love secret I have
It was after you struck my heart with love
I feel so hard and deep with you
But I wasn't hoping you did too

Being inspired at times like this
Is a thing impossible to believe
Because right now I am moving on
And that makes you my greatest inspiration.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Haunting Past

Wandering memories, lost but free
Those are memories I would like to see
Broken from chains, lost but free
Whatever happens, I'll always be me

There are bad memories haunting from the past
But there are also memories that are to last
I'd like to banish my every bad memory
Then live my life continuing my story

I was once chained with someone
Chain got broken, I was freed after
And those times when we only had each other
Were possibly just times when we were lost and gone

Now, I am moving on, building a better me
But the past still haunts with a memory
Guess it will be long before I will see
I had forgotten you and that I am again free.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Hopeless

Left alone with nothing
Been lied about everything
Received smiles but were fake
Nothing more good to take

All ties with others stands at its end
Broken identity, never again to mend
Dead inside, but still wants to stand
A feeling no one would understand

Bad moments have happened
Worse things have been seen
Worst things have occurred
But no good moments to be in

Wanted to live a life without sadness
Wanted to leave this world of loneliness
But then, dreams holds these dreams
Wherein escape can't be in any means

Gio Nathan Estacio

I Love You

Is it my heart beating?
Like a flower dying?
Only you can save it
Vindicate it from the pit
Emotive personality
You're the reason
Of this thing that i feel
Under the funny moments, hard times lies
Just managed to hid it
Everything to me is you
Nothing more to say but
I love you

Gio Nathan Estacio

If I Have Two Hearts

Picking one between two
Is really a hard thing to do,
One that I have known for years
And one that makes me overcome my fears

My love for you is strong
And I know I'm not wrong,
...Even though we're close
My love for her is like a withered rose

Love me, I wish you may
But then, you're far away
Despite that she has always been nearby
Can't love her much with no clue why

She that I had already loved
Or you, that made me inloved
Need only one to love
Wish my heart to halve.

Gio Nathan Estacio

If Only

Broken promises, a missing piece
Unsure heart, whispering you're all it needs
Now I admit it, I've fallen for you
But still confused, doesn't know what to do

I can't see getting closer to you
And knowing you more as your friends do,
If only I can get to know you better
Then maybe, some things might alter

I thought my life was going great
Suddenly, You set me straight
Beside you now, is where I want to be
That is why I keep on wishing you're with me

The thought, that love is just vain,
Is a thought that leads to too much pain
Makes me think, you'll just be an inspiration
And makes my heart ache in alternation.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Inspiration

Another day had come
Oh, fear be gone
To her I should say
Before she goes away

Years had passed
Now is the last
Of a way I'm thinking
How to say what I'm feeling

I'll do anything to have you
I miss you, It's true
If this is the last poem I'll ever do
I'll finish it, and say I Love You

This Poem, made by emotion
Brought by you,
My INSPIRATION....

Gio Nathan Estacio

Just A Dream

World stopped spinning
Tears started falling
Knowing you're just a dream
Makes my eyes gleam

Heart hastened pounding
Memories started fading
Will you be just a memory?
Or will you be closer to me?

Smiles becoming sad faces
Happiness becoming loneliness
Feeling uneasy that I knew
My wishes can never come true

Has this love forsaken me?
Or this failure was destined to be?
My feelings are getting dim
Are you only just a dream?

Gio Nathan Estacio

Missing You

In time, you have kept me inspired
Made all my troubles seem so easy
I was impaired, when our ways separated
Saddened, now you're far away from me
Seeing myself now, hopeless without you
You have always kept me from being blue
Only you have made me do these things
Uplifted me, even beyond thrones of King
Just hoping now to see you once again
Every possible way, even just by dreams
Not a moment have I not thought of you
I Miss You, it's all I have to say, it seems

Gio Nathan Estacio

Once Again

Several times I'm missing you
But then, I just saw you
Even only a glimpse I have seen
Completed, my day has been

The sun was shining bright
As I look from left to right
Then it was you I saw
Waking me from unbecoming thaw

To me you're a princess
Just missing a crown
Like a star that twinkles
I'm waiting to fall down

A moment not expected
Pulled my mind from being tormented
Seeing your smile once again
Took my heart from being ashen

☐felt awesome after seeing you Once Again...☐
☐I wish you knew how I missed you before then...

Gio Nathan Estacio

One Man's Promise

Heart broken to shards
But still moving forward
The reason withing one thing
The promise he brings

A promise that may be his last
To a friend whom he trusts
And the words his friend casts
Takes him out of the past

This man, once was alone
Met a friend that brought him home
Helped him heal from deep wounds
And gave him a reason to move on

His friend, despite being far away
Wields his words that makes his way
And as he ascend to his life's throne
One thing there is, he never walks alone.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Regretful Day

Opportunities I see just in front of me
But letting it just pass by freely
Imagining every possibility
Planning what move is to be

I thought I was lost, can't find a way
So I say to myself 'Just regret this day'
Because it was the day I was to move
To bust a move and make a resolve

Risking everything was an option
An option that got out of position
Then I knew the problem was me
Because I forgot there was a better me

I did not do what I was to
I hurt myself from what I do
And I know you're hurt too
So may I say sorry to you?

This is a day that won't be again
Because I won't let it happen
Going back from the wrong road I've taken
And taking the road where we'll be together again.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Smiling In Silence

Sinking in unfathomable silence
Unable to speak within your presence
Left within a corner, unspoken
Having a blank face, but not sullen

I did hear your voice again
Saw your face as you smiled
I really missed you then
So my heart played wild

I glanced at you countless times
With that, I was already fine
An indescribable feeling came
As my thoughts went insane

Darkness was brightened
As the world slowly spin
Far too long since I have been
A situation where my smile can be seen

Gio Nathan Estacio

Still

You're still the one I love□
One desire mostly to have
Unaltered feelings I still keep
Restricted still, trapped in deep
Ending this would be impossible
Still, mind says it may be possible
Thinking of you makes me sad
I didn't know I'll miss you this bad
Loving secretly is a thing I can't bear
Like reality in my every nightmare
The way things goes is just unfair
Hankering for you to love me as I stare
Eyes wide open, now is a time to think!
Organize ideas in head, don't even blink!
Nothing bothers when thinking of you
Even if a sword on my heart goes through

Jumbled ideas makes my head sore
Ecstasy of mind, I can't feel anymore
Now, I'll tell you a simple thing you should not miss
I will love you forever and forever, you're the one, I promise

Gio Nathan Estacio

Tales Of The Boys

Entangled to each other,
Infamous to the class we were;
Nothing special, from us you'll see,
Sign of solid brotherhood we have;
Tales and problems, to each other we share,
Eight different persons standing still,
Infinite friendship, from us you'll see,
Naughty, sometimes we may be,
But good at heart is what we are
On this year end we will wish,
You to us would never change,
Say good bye and fly high.

Gio Nathan Estacio

The Man With Two Hearts

Emotion rhyming, a continuation
Loving two persons in alternation
Leading and ending with confusion
Making it hard for me to make my decision

A link brought us together
Making you imaginably far forever
It hurts me so and you don't know
One thing more I can't say, I love you so

I just made a promise, thinking it's a mistake
But it's still a promise, which I can't break
This promise made me think I'll be forever lost
I just love you more than her, I love you most

It's odd why I can't tell the truth to her
Also awkward I can't say it to you either
Maybe I just became dumb for what I yearn
Or so I still have so much to learn

The Story Of Us

Why did you break my heart?
How did you tore t apart?
Why do such thing happens?
I haven't done anything, yet my world darkens

Things from the past I remember
At the first time we were together
Each other was a stranger
Acquaintance with one another

Strangers within us became gone
Twas the moment the story of us began
Building a friendship not seeming as it tends
But still, making us more than friends

The next thing I know, we were couples
But as our story goes, there became troubles
Misunderstandings and fights
Not knowing what are the right things

Then it came, the moment I fear the most
The moment when to judgement we lost
You then decided to end our ties
As our love for each other slowly dies

Now, you're gone and I need to forget
But I realized that I just needed to accept
As I started to move on, I became upset
But deep inside me, there is nothing I regret

Now, this will be the last about you
After some time, I'll be over you
And I know it won't be long
And I know I'm not wrong.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Thinking Of You

I can't help myself thinking of you
Like it's the only thing I can do
Oh, this feeling is crazy
Vagaries made hazily
Everything now is about you
You are my world and that is true
One step away makes you far away
Unbounded distance taking my way
Just missing you this time
Everything, hoping to be fine
Nothing will stand now on my way
I love you, what more can I say.

Gio Nathan Estacio

Will You Be My Valentine?

It is the sun that shines
It is the moon with the divine
And now that you are mine
Will you be my Valentine?

It is February not December
It Fourteen not Twenty
But I'll still love you forever
And be by your side when you're lonely

Don't forget how we met
But forget that we fought
Just remember we are connected
And that there is someone loving you

On this day, I hope we'll be together
And create a memory that'll last forever
Our hearts were destined to meet
To care for each other and always stay sweet

Three red roses especially for you
Simply saying I Love You
And three more roses that says
'Happy Valentines Day'

Gio Nathan Estacio

Wish You Were Her

Why do I keep comparing her to you?
And keep on wishing I'm with you?
Even though I know these won't come true
And I know I'll never be any closer to you

I guess you two really are different persons
Like Summer and Autumn, two different seasons
Everytime I wish you were her
In a pain, I secretly suffer

With my love for you I was trapped
Just because my heart can't understand 'Enough'
To her, I have lied and bluffed
And inside I'm dying, a proof I'm not tough

I love you too much to forget you
To forget you and let my feelings through
To let my feelings through and spend time with her
Spend time and swear my love to her

Saying what I feel is what I wish
But writing poems about you is all I have accomplished
I maybe crazy but I admit it
So with hope, in my wish I will tightly grip

Gio Nathan Estacio

With You

In every moment spent with you
Makes it harder for me to be true
Over each second spent together
Anxiety in me crawls higher

Now that we're both here
Say, would you like to hear?
How I feel when with you
And how I wish of always being with you

Life with its playful destiny
Lying between dreams and reality
Opened up for some reason
Merely making this person fall upon

Gio Nathan Estacio

Your Knight

Been missing you so much lately
Been wishing to be by your side
But these wishes are full of vanity
And it hurts me deep inside

Not being able to say what I feel
Not being able to stand by your side
Can't even tell if these feelings are real
Or just illusions that had made me blind

I don't want to stay like this
Spending my life holding on to a wish
A wish which can't be seen along
So I'd want to take a chance a be strong

Not expecting you'd understand
But I just want you to hear
At your side, I'll forever stand
Be your knight, without any fear
