Silence

a way to refute
a way to say u r everything a way to say i hate u a way to just say u r the one a way to say u r my strength a way someone cries without shedding a tear a way in which someone missus someone a way to a musician's heart a way to reach eternity a way to indicate forthcoming storm a way to indicate eternal happiness a way to say satisfaction and fulfillment a way which every man desires his heart to find something which is there in everyone's life something so simple but can say many things something which is used by eyes something which everyone owns something which is language of hearts something which becomes more precious when understanding becomes its friend what can i say about u except..... :)
