Friendship Like A Zephyr.

She came to me, a real belle,
now in my love dell.
I saw her shining blue doe-eyes,
Who guides me like a grown up wise.
the words she spoke was flabby,
defenitely, she is my sweat bubbly.
and she is there in my bower,
where there is no mower.
with her, a day,
for me it's out of pay.
if she smiles nature shower's,
love to my friendship flower's.
with her memmories a night,
heart'll be adorned with heavenly light.
without her memmories a night,
each hour is a real fight.
her friendship is an open welkin,
and a fruit as big as a pumpkin.
my friend is a beutiful art,
drawn inside a chamber of my heart.
