Every Reason

Everyone have a reason for falling in love.
Everyone have a reason to break up with someone.
Everyone have a reason for everything
Every tears have a story
Every smile have a reason
Every happiness have a person
so what's your reason?

Everyday

Everyday i think about are past.
Everyday i wish you would be here.
Everyday i see the same person in the mirror.
The same smile.
Nothing change.
The same old me.
The same big eyes.
The same painful face.
All i need is your warm smile.

Weird

Its funny how i have that felling about you that come and go.
Its funny that the person that treat you like trash is the person your heart choose to stay in love with. I try to run away from my mistake but no matter what i hang up doing the samething over nd over again. Do i really want you or do my body want you.

I only like 3 thing about you so what is it that make me go crazy when you dont text or act like you dont care about me.

Just get out my head

Just get out my heart

Just leave me with a brooking heart

Give me back my heart

Give me bck my life

Just kiss me one last time goodbye.
