Let Me Love You Under The Sky

Let me love you under the sky
where the horizon is Where sunsets in sea waves sing a love song
Let me love you under the sky
when rain drops drench Us in love when cold winters makes us shiver when morning sun kisses bringing us closer
Let me love you under the sky
when pain becomes unbearable when heart start skipping when we feel apart and pain grows stronger Let me love you forever and ever... when universe bless us with love forever...
Let me love you....

Let The Time Freeze Forever

Let the time freeze forever
when I and you are together when we count minutes on fingers when we want it should never pass in years
Let the time freeze forever'
when I drown in your eyes like a bird without feathers when I want to be in your arms holding you tight nearer
Let the time freeze forever
when you say loving words touching my soul dearer when you make me feel
I am your love forever
Let the time freeze forever
when we come back on this earth together when the time comes and say yes you are together till eternity
Let the time freeze forever....

Love Doesn't Comes Easily

Love doesn't come easily
It starts to hurt when felt deeply Starting with a fight between love and lust
It almost felt lost.
Love doesn't come easily
once lived a fairytale life deeply Leaving the world making our nest Long drives hours of calls chats and then it suddenly melts
Love doesn't come easily
a fight everyday to keep it alive a fight everyday to bring it to life a fight everyday to find time
Love doesn't come easily
the best of world is still to come the best of life is still to come the worst nightmare is still to come
Love doesn't come easily
The price is paid with emotions Bad times comes without notification Promise me love you will keep coming in life....still i know love doesn't come easily

Oh God Please Help Me

Oh God i heard you take care of your children why i am spared from your care why i am spared from your love What wrong I have done where wrong I have gone Oh God I heard you listen to the prayers why my prayers are unheard why my prayers doesn't melt your heart why is my heart not a pure one Oh God I heard you bring peace and happiness in lives Why i don't have a peaceful life why i am not happy in my life why you have not blessed me with love why you have given me a pain of lifetime Oh God I have heard you do miracles come on show me your power make me your blessed child give me peace, love and happiness or take me in your arms
Oh God please be with me help me...

Soulmates

Love and distance comes handy Its not mere a Physical distance its not mere an emotional distance its a distance between souls Time takes you into a journey of love
A journey fulfilling a journey complete Time again takes you to a journey
A journey of loneliness and emptiness
The difference The distance you want to part
The distance that is haunting
The distance that is painful
All the memories withering Still you have to bear the pain as the distance between two loving souls can never be able to mend.....
