Guru Brahma

Guru Brahma, the creator of all,
In his wisdom, we stand tall.
He blesses us with knowledge divine,
And shows us the path to align.

From him, we learn the essence of life,
To overcome every struggle and strife.
His teachings are the source of our strength,
To conquer our fears, we go to great length.

He teaches us to love and be kind,
And to always keep an open mind.
To see the world with a new perspective,
And to never be afraid of being subjective.

Guru Brahma, the ultimate guide and friend,
Leads us to a journey without an end.
His grace and blessings, our constant support,
And his love, our ultimate resort.

So let us bow down to Guru Brahma,
And seek his wisdom with utmost dharma.
For he is the one who shows us the light,
And guides us to a path that's always right

Guiding Star

Oh, Teachers, you're our guiding star,
With knowledge bright that shines afar,
You light the way with wisdom's glow,
And lead us on the path to grow.

With patience, care, and hearts so kind,
You shape our minds, and souls you bind,
You instill values, virtues true,
And mold us into something new.

Your lessons reach beyond textbooks,
Your words inspire, your guidance looks,
To futures bright with boundless dreams,
You help us fly, like sunlit beams.

In classrooms filled with wonderment,
We find our purpose, life's intent,
Your teachings echo through the years,
And shape our lives beyond our fears.

So here's to you, our guiding star,
Our mentors, leaders, from afar, We're grateful for the light you share,
For shaping us with utmost care.

Role Model

Teacher, a beacon of light in our lives,
A guiding star, a role model so true,
With heart and soul, you shine so bright,
Inspiring us in all that we do.

You lead the way with knowledge and grace,
In classrooms filled with curiosity's spark,
Unfolding mysteries, unraveling truths,
Illuminating minds even in the dark.

You teach us not just facts and figures,
But values that shape our character,
Empathy, kindness, resilience, and more,
Essential lessons that will forever stir.

You listen with patience, you care with love,
Creating a safe space where we can grow,
Nurturing our dreams, igniting our passions,
Believing in us, even when we don't know.

You challenge us to think critically,
To question, analyze, and inquire,
Fostering creativity, sparking innovation,
Fueling our minds with a burning desire.

Teacher, you're more than just an educator,
You're a mentor, a guide, a friend so dear,
Leaving an indelible mark on our souls,
That will last a lifetime, year after year.

Inspiring Leader

Teachers, the true leaders of our time,
With wisdom and knowledge as their guide,
They sow seeds of inspiration in young minds,
Nurturing dreams and igniting the fire inside.

They stand in classrooms, their noble stage,
Guiding with patience and boundless care,
Molding character, shaping hearts and minds,
With a passion that's beyond compare.

They light up paths for futures bright,
Planting hope where darkness lurks,
Teaching values, instilling morals,
For a world that craves true worth

With unwavering dedication and love,
They unlock potential and unleash might,
Guiding students to find their voice,
