Craving Insides

the craving insides of me turn me out, the craving insides of me turn the door, im not afraid anymore its optional to compare its not safe out there to leave by yourself, to keep protection the mind of it all the cravings insides are you willing to go through it all the mistakes you make the risk you take where would you go what would you do is it worth it or you just being stupid

Finding Something That Wasnt Lost

the feel of love never spoken the heart never awoken to the most high extent
was it love
was it hope or faith the upmost respect for the love you found what steps did you take what rules did you make in this life
the only thing that was lost was you
the thing that was found was your soul you needing love is anything to me

I Used To Love You

the text of love i wonder that shall go by
killing my heart on the inside of me im scared of life
im scared of love
im scaed to be alone
i used to love you and always will the mistakes you made i overlooked you took my love for granted i thought you cared i thought you brought the joy not led me in tempetation i used to love you and always i love you still my soul cry out for you everynight i love you and always will but that moment made me still

Invisible

am i that invisible?
invisible to the world i say people see through me like clear water wondering sometimes is it me or they just can't see having headaches, migraines showing the possibility of fear i don't want to be like anybody else i wanna be me, i wanna stand on my own no fussing, no fighting i just want to be me
am i that invisible?
trying to figure out when its going to stop trying to figure out this crazy world is that too much to ask?
i don't want to be invisible i just want people to see me for me and not for my intelligent brain or obesity i just want to be visible

My Scared Life

o how i wonder would my life would be if i didn't trying to stray away from abusive mother trying to see the happy side of myself but never could find ive been scared so many times in my life i wonder when i get older who can i call? who can i rely on?
where am i gone go in this lifetime i am afraid to die im afraid to go to a place where i don't want to be i have been depressed sense day one my scared life has brought me to not take risk my scared life took me through a eating habit to be obease because i was always afraid of some one actually loving me my scared life to many love ones out and put the troublemakers in the more i grow
i grow even scarier
when will i learn to take that risk where my scariness will go away i want to learn how to love but when is that gone start today

Where Is Safety

nowhere i guess
people killing each other and blaming the rest
what would you do
what would you say that person threaten to kill
children cant come outside anymore to play gangs beating up people taking the young promising leaders at a young age
do you make it safe
