A Lone Dreamer Of Unimultiverses

a dreamer who ponders on his own vision always looking upon different realities in every endeavor discovering new means to convey the messages of life, love, friendship, community, unity and common expression pulsating every moment, capturing every heart being contented in every act of humanity in unimultiverses, realities echoing the heart of every soul the colors of life marvel my very own soul escalating hues, tones and other elements echoing the longing of the heart within sharing my innermost castle partaking the inner sanctum as we participate the world of relative realities and lives a heart partaking in the world of universal language, of love and life

A Personal Commitment

a promise meant to last a vow to last one's lifetime possessing the surrender to go beyond a commitment never meant to be broken a promise meant to be together forever a vow that highlight one's relationships indeed a promise, a vow and a commitment where maturity and well decided upheavals within it is an authentic personal commitment

Enlivening One's Unimulitiverse

Innermost recesses of one's soul animation of heart's portal spring of undertaking long lasting forging life in wondering pace looking beyond to the level of satisfaction indeed a contentment beyond self working in harmony with others truly fulfilling feats of such humanity truly enlivening one's unimulitiverse

Finding Oneself

encounter in every occasion always breezing unto oneself centering unto life's state of affairs divulging every scenario riptide of events evolution truly inevitable desire uncharted quest for uniqueness and individuality onward always a loop over loop boundless finding oneself a quest enriching

I Exist

Being born in this world

I began the journey of my age,

Seeking the bosom of familial spirit of sharing the different vicissitudes of life 's writing the symphonies of life as a learner in academic formation toward the world of dreams and aspirations

As I began to write about me, myself and I to the known world, the path is not a straight path but a series of trial and error that leads to little successes in order to reach a lucid goal in many stories of everything that exist in this world that I've known for yet to know more as my curiosity still lingers in the consciousness and total being as a person in this world.

Never Give Up Till I Get You

conquest beyond compare illuminating the heart of every soul contacting with each other lingering in heart of every bonding consolidate me and another me in union living it out fully emblematic heart unison love rules all encounter

Pushing Ourselves Beyond Our Limitations

having clear phenomenal goal seize the day for the objective determine to strive against all odds pushing the limits within lest one seemingly aghast against the tide working together for the goal focus oh focus oh focus never be irritated by unforeseen circumstances and situations

Reflections

Able to see the meaning in simple life moments sharing the heart and mind to people whom you place your trust with sometimes they themselves surely afflicted anyone the most withstanding heart of forgiveness and embracing with open arms and hugging for comfort in this trying times.

Friendship are forged into the deeper like strolling in the open ocean.
Understanding is a clincher where no wall nor preconceived notion to discriminate and surely the value and weight of true friendship echo a thousandfold.
In the midst of one's trials and tribulation, a shoulder to cry on and heart that listen;
everlasting hope and deepening understanding lead to a true peace.

A heart that embraces all never qualifies nor justified, a spirit who embrace everything and mind to open in the pillars of today's world will be a hallmark of our humanity's triumph in overcoming challenging life's stories.

Revelation Of Inspired Being

springing out from the contentment of life learning constructing windowing effect landscaping in looking beyond foreign terrain working in halls of undertaking launching so productively intersecting realization connecting path in freedom realized loving each other a revelation of inspired being

The Road Ahead

Everything happened for various reasons that every effort plunges one into the consciousness of becoming, the symphony of every undertaking takes toll in every visages. how one can tackle such at its trying times? Nonetheless, it is always a luminescent as it is, what seems to be an ideal or a real experience to undertaking of one's selves whatever circumstance one had undergone into. The path is always at its crossroad of everything. Perception always clings into the consciousness of being, to move forward in the frigid zone to life bursting momentum in the circle of life in moving vastness of universe.

To Life

Never did I claim that I know everything, but as I learned more, the more I need unlearned even more, sadly, the test of life isn't far from over.
The vastness storage of knowledge and the endless depth of experience never waver for us to be bewilder and behold; the fullness and richness of life where mystery unravel will always wonder me; surely the test of it is not a benchmark but a grail to hold and be grateful.

A humble heart and humble spirit will not be spurned into the unwavering depth of arrogance and prideful.
