Im just an everyday guy who like to express himself through words. I don't consider myself a great poet or even an decent poet. I just learn from mistakes and put them into words.

Dream Come True

You are amazing
So beautiful and sweet
Every time I'm with you
It's like I'm no longer on my feet

You've got me floating High in the air
I think you are so special
And something oh so rare

I love your smile
And your pretty eyes
Just by looking at them
I become paralyzed

You have these beautiful dimples
That make me glee
I don't know what you have done
To make me feel so free

When we touch our bodies explode
Into an ecstasy so unreal
Your as soft as a pillow
And I can be your man of steel

Now i know your scared
As am i
The only difference is I think we should give us a try

Now I'm going to tell you something
That you probably don't know
Just hearing your voice
Keeps my heart a glow

To me you are like a dream
That once broke my heart
I forgive you for that I just want us to never again be apart

I would have never thought
I would ever have a second chance with you
But now that we're together
Everyday is like a dream come true

Rudy Puentes

For You

Here is something for you
To the girl of my dreams
The apple of my eye
And the one who makes my heart sing

The one who makes me laugh
The one who makes me smile
The one who rescued me
And snapped me out of this denial

I had become very bitter
And my heart had grown oh so cold
You brought life back to me
My heart is once again solid gold

You have made me so happy
More than you ever know
My heart is starting to rebuild
And my love for you just grows and grows

So now you hold something that is rarely given away
So what are you going to do?
Are you going to crush it?
Or will you honor me with you?

Whether the answer is yes
Or the answer is no
Just know I love you no matter what
And I will never let go

So now that you have read this
I will let you be
I just hope your answer is yes
So I may once again be free

You know I love you
With all my heart
Even if you say no
We were BFF's from the start

Nothing will change
I will still be the same around you
You are my best friend for life
And this will always stay true

So just remember love
No matter what you choose
I will always be your BFF
And I'll always be there for you

Her

She is so beautiful
She sparkles like a jewel
I enjoy being next to her
And she's crazy cool

She has these eyes.
That just seem to glow
They are so mesmerizing
And oh so beautiful

Her smile is just something
That can lighten up a room
She brightens up my everyday
Even when it's dark and full of gloom

I like her so much
Oh how I wish she were mine.
Because then maybe this like can turn into love
And this love can last a lifetime

Rudy Puentes

Here For You

Im here for you
Any time of day
Im here for you
I mean what I say

You are just simply Such a beautiful girl
You should always have a smile
It makes shine like a pearl

I hate seeing you feel bad
Never should you feel hurt
I have been there
And I know it makes you feel like dirt

You're a special girl
Who should always be happy
You should always feel great
And never ever crappy

I just want you to know
That what I'm saying is true
I enjoy seeing you happy
And I will always be here for you

Rudy Puentes

How I Feel

Why do I feel
What I feel for you
How do I know
That my love for you is true

How do I know
If its not just lust
How do I know
If its not just a stupid crush

All I can say
Is I know what I feel
People may tell me different
But I know how I feel

I long for you
I yearn for you
I think of you always
I know its love

I know you're scared
Your fear is not allowing you to see
What I know in my heart
How we are meant to be

So in the end
I know how I feel
Because no one can say
What it is I feel

Rudy Puentes

I Love You

Don't be surprised, if I look in your eyes, and start to cry, because deep inside, my feelings arise and I cannot deny, no matter how hard I try, that I love you with all my heart and soul. And I knew from the start, that we shall never part because our love is true and I gotta thank god for blessing me with you. Because you're not only my love, you're my best friend, till the end and I know that you're a precious gift sent, from up above and you know you're my love. Girl you know this is fo sho, tu eres mi princesa de los cielos y por es por eso yo te quiero. I love you girl and you know that I'm real and I'll never dish any kind of raw deal because in the end if you're gone, I'm left singing another sad song. So ima stop here and let you go, but since we been together, you have become my heart and soul. So on that note I bid you a due. Just remember girl that I love you.

I Miss You

I Miss You

By Rudy Puentes

I miss you
so very much
I miss the sound of your voice
And the feel of your touch

I miss seeing that beautiful smile
I miss those beautiful eyes
I hate not having you here
It's slowly killing me inside

I wish you were here
For me to have and to hold
I love the way you take charge
And make me do as I'm told

I have never craved someone so much
As I do you
I yearn for that sweet taste of your love juice
That sweet taste of you

Oh how I miss the ways
You would take control
You would mount me and tell me don't move
And to do as I was told

I love the way
You would twirl it in your mouth
Just like when I would do to you
When I would travel south

Being away from you
Is leaving me in frustration
Nothing can cure it
Not even masturbation

I can't wait for you to come back

So that I can once again make you mine
I want to tie you up and hold you down
And just enjoy myself while I dine

I want your love juice
To be all over my face
Then slowly travel up north
Leaving nothing to waste

Moving onto your breasts
I will caress and tease
I will nibble and suck
Until I feel a shake from your knees

Then I will slowly rub you
Up and down
I will tease your clit
Until you scream now!

Then I will go inside you
And go in and out
Make you moan
And make you shout

I will make you mine
I will make you cream
I will love you
Until you can no longer scream.

Rudy Puentes

I Thought

I thought you were great
I thought you were the one
I thought you were my fate
I thought my search was finally done

I thought we were perfect
I thought we would last the quest
I thought we wouldn't wreck
I thought we were unlike the rest

I thought we wouldn't fall
I thought we wouldn't break
I thought we could handle it all
I thought we could handle this shake

I thought we were stronger than this
I thought we were like that song
I thought we could go the distance
I guess what I thought was wrong

Rudy Puentes

Im Scared

The room is dark
Im scared, where are you?
Im not in any pain
But you cant help me can you

It's a tough decision
That you have to make
Pull the plug
Or pray for me to awake

I know you love me
With all your heart and soul
But can you really do this Can you really let me go?

You must think about this
I am brain dead
In a vegetation state
And nothing left to be said

I know im the love of your life
The twinkle in your eye
It would be hard to let me go
To pull the plug and let die

So what will you do
I am behind you 100%
God spoke to me
And told me you were heaven sent

You were my guardian angel
With whom I fell in love
And I know now
I thank the man up above

So I support you
And just know we will never part
For I am always Always within your heart

Rudy Puentes

Just A Game

love is a sport.
something we need.
filled with anger and doubt, jealousy, greed.
i've played this game so many times i come up with all these stupid rhymes but what will matter once it all is done?
because love is a game that nobody's won.
but love is so great and so much fun you see you have to play to win or you will never really be free so take a step forward give it your best choose to follow thru or you will have failed the test

Rudy Puentes

Love

Thoughts about love
Consume my mind
Why do I have these feelings
I thought love was just a state of mind

I thought love could be thought over
I thought it was nothing
But if it is nothing
Then why do we think it is everything

Is it because we believe in our loved ones
Is it because we believe in our mate
Is it because we believe we want them
Is it because we believe it is fate

I still do not know what the meaning is I thought I did once
But I should have known that it wasn't
It was just lust

Love involves getting hurt
Love involves enduring pain
But to finding love
Is the biggest gain

So what is love
Why do we become so obsessed about it
Is it really that important
Or is it just bullshit

What I have learned
Is love cannot be defined
It is extremely complicated
Something words cannot describe

So these thoughts about love
That once consumed my head
Are no longer questions
Love is just complicated and it cannot be said

Rudy Puentes

Mama

I'm going to tell you a story
About this lady I know
She's crazy cool
And she's always a glow

She is always there for me
She's down for anything
She gets me what I need
She knows me better than me

This lady is my mom
And I love her so
She keeps me up
Even when I'm feeling low

You only get one
And my is the best
People can try and compete
But she is above the rest

Rudy Puentes

My Everything

Girl your my everything
Your my ray of sunshine
If you ever want something
Please ask me babe, because I won't decline

I've noticed you're not wearing your wedding ring Does this mean you and I can't be Or are you expecting the phone to ring
Hoping its him saying he's so sorry

I know I'm wasting my time
But I just can't get you outta head
It seems that u will never be mine
So I might just as well take an overdose and go to bed

Rudy Puentes

My Final Thoughts

As I lay here in bed
Thinking of you
Something comes to my mind
Will I ever be with you

I lay in bed
With that thought in mind
Wondering and thinking
If I should just give you more time

My final thoughts
With you on my mind
Makes me wonder Should I just not try

I mean I do care for you
I care for you deeply
I just wish I knew
If you even notice me

When I'm with you
I feel untouchable
When I'm with you
I feel invincible

You could have been my princess
You could have been my queen
You chose to say no
That was fine with me

Just now the light
That kept my love for you a glow
Has finally went out
And now I begin to grow cold

So I guess my question is answered
I have to let go
My light is finally put out
And with it went my soul

Rudy Puentes

My Sad Thoughts

Here i am again
Thinking of your kiss
Looking for your touch
Its you i truly miss

You're in my every thought
In all i say and do
And all it took was just one touch
To fall in love with you

I wait for you
Each and every day
To get some kind of message
Of you tellin me you feel the same way

But i know now
That can never be
For you are in fear
From fallin for me

You are scared to love
Because of your past
But what you dont realize
My love will always last

It will last
From now till my dying day
I will hope and wish
For you to feel the same someday

I want to hold you
I want to kiss you
I want to be with you Because babygirl i love you

I know it hurts to hear this Because it makes you feel bad
But being without you
Leaves me feeling oh so sad

I miss you
So very much
I yearn for your presence
The feel of your touch

I dont know what you have done
to make me feel this way all i kno is this feelin is here to stay

Rudy Puentes

Sensation

I get a tingling sensation
Whenever she's around me
She makes me feel so alive
She makes me feel so free

Once she is gone
My sensation flees
I then miss her so much Because she isn't with me

I long to be with her
And this she knows
For my love for her
Only grows and grows

So this sensation I feel
Is no sensation at all
For it is how I feel
And how I feel about her is not small

My love for her is infinite
But she doesn't know
And until I'm with her
She'll never know

Rudy Puentes

So This Is It

So this is it
I really don't have a chance
I have to give up
Not even one more dance

All I did was care for you
I never hurt you
Never tried to lie to you
Everything I have ever told you has been true

When we were growing up
You were teased as was I
But my feelings for you
Were not something that I could hide

I'm sorry for any inconvenience
I may have caused you
But tell me
What was I to do

You are my dream girl
A vision of perfection
But now all I have
Is just me and my reflection

I will never be with you
You were pretty clear on that
You say you see me as a brother
With this said my heart cracked

I now stand here before you
A broken and weakened man
There was so much I wanted with you
I feel like you've taken my heart and ran

It shouldn't matter
What people might say
Because I know deep inside
You feel the same way

You can tell me what you want
But I can read your mind
So quit lying to yourself
And put your hand in mind

If only you knew
How much you're hurting me
Maybe if you opened your eyes
You would finally see

Well I guess you will never know
How much I truly cared about you
My love is sacred
And it was all for you

So this is it
My final goodbye
I love you girl
And I will till the end of time

The Lone Wolf And The Cage

There is a wolf who is faithful, reliable and always does what is told who would never wish no harm on any1 whose got a heart of gold but this wolf tends bite off more than he can chew he can't say no so what else is he to do

he was trained to say yes because no would leave an ill feeling a feeling that cannot go away and is immune to any type of healing he does his best to please everyone, his best to make everyone happy, but in the end

it is he who feels crappy

he bites his tongue so that he doesn't start a battle with the leader of the pack, but he can only take so much, its only a matter of time before he finally snaps back he always thought of himself to be the outcast of the pack, he thought he would never amount to nothing, never being able to break away from this pack but then one day he met this beautiful and free wolf who flipped his world upside-down who made him realize and accept things he hadn't before, who got rid of his frown

the leader of the pack isn't happy of this lone wolf changing the thoughts of the wolf in her pack so she would limit them to how much they could see each other, well with this the young wolf of the pack began to crack he feels like he is locked away in a cage and is allowed out only on a leash, he is becoming restless, and in need to be released

he has the chance to become the leader of his own pack, to be happy and move on but the leader isn't ready for him to be gone.

She has to let go in order for the wolf in the cage to grow no good will come if he isn't released from this cage, all that is gonna happen is it will intensify his rage he loves that lone wolf with all his heart and he never ever wants for them to be apart

but unfortunately if he isn't released, the lone wolf will remain a lone wolf, and the young wolf of the pack will continue living life in a cage and a short leash

The Rain

The rain is beating down
Upon the glass of my window
It reminds me of the past
Something that turned my heart cold

You wanna know
That's just fine
I will tell you
So then you'll see why I no longer shine

Her name was Ashley
And I thought she was the one
But I was wrong
And I was left without a sun

She broke my heart
In so many ways
I don't know if I'll ever be the same
All I can do now is just pray

She played so many games
She thought she was in control
But she got knocked down
And now has to pay the toll

She uses her boyfriend
To try and make me jealous
But what she does not know
Is I don't get envious

Her boyfriend seems cool
Like he's a real nice guy
The only thing is That's all just a disguise

He treats her like crap
And she just takes it in
I don't know what's wrong with her
She has ceased to grin

She has Dyslexia
And she's shy about this
But he makes fun of her
And treats her like a lil kid

She use to be ranked Number 42 in the state for basketball
He started telling her she was no good
So she gave up and lost it all

She dropped out of college
She's given up on herself
She could have had it all
But she gave up on her wealth

She use to have these dreams
About being a star
But because of her boyfriend
She now thinks it's too far

He is slowly killing her
He is a real jerk
But she won't leave him
Because he don't make her work

This guy has money
And he promises to take care of her
But all he really wants to do is Just control her

She knows I love her
With all my heart and soul
And she knows
That I can't let her go

She is in fear
Of losing our friendship
Even though it will only improve
Our relationship

With all the love I have

I would not dare hurt her
She means too much to me
And this I know for sure

So she has sealed her fate
I have given up
She had her chance
But enough is enough

We are just friends
And that is where it will stay
From now until forever
No matter how hard it rains

The Scenery Of Misery

The scenery out here
Is oh so pretty
It reminds me of what was
And how we use to be

What we had was magical
What we had was great
You use to make me smile
I thought you were my fate

But that thought Quickly passed by
Once I seen you flirt with each and every guy

I thought we were gonna last
I thought we could do it
But again I was wrong
And all I can do again is rue it

So what i see in this scenery Isnt very pretty
For its a harsh reminder
Of all my misery

The Truth

When we were growing up... we were friends... but what grew from that was a love that would never end... I fell in love with just one look... I knew I had to make you mine before I run out of time... but the thought of finally making you mine... scared me... the thought of holding you close had me scared of what could be... but I see now the mistake I have made... where instead of walking away, I should have stayed... but how could I stay when all you ever did was play... you know I never thought it was possible to love someone as much as I do you... but what I don't get is... I don't like you... you have broken my heart in more ways than one... because of that.. I wish I could say I'm done... the sad truth is... as much as I don't like you... it could never amount to the love I have for you... I miss you babygirl.... and I wish there was something I can do... these feelings aren't something I can just tell to "shew"...if there is something I can do... please let me know... I will do whatever it takes for you to give us a go...I want you to be mine from now until my dying day baby... I just want to call you my lady... well I said what I had to say... and I now will just go away...

What A Guy Wants

A guy wants the type of girl
That doesn't mind staying home
A guy wants a girl
He can call his own

He doesn't want a girl
Who will cheat
He doesn't want a girl
Who is cheap

He wants a girl
Who will be his best friend
He wants a girl
Who will love him to the very end

He wants a girl
Who he can depend on
He wants a girl
Who will tell him when he's wrong

A guy wants a girl
Who will never lie
Even if it means
One ends up crying

What a guy wants in a girl
Is passion and trust
But most of all
A guy wants to love and not to lust

Rudy Puentes

Rudy Puentes

You Will Never Know

If I had one wish
You would be mine,
From now until the end
Till the end of time

I really love u,
So much its frightening
Because this love knocked me out
As if I were struck by lightning

I know you don't have any idea
Or the slightest clue
Of how much I actually care
And feel about you

I have had time to think
And I have decided to hide
Hide these feelings I have for you Deep deep inside

I'd rather live with you
And all the pain
Then to lose you
And feel like everyday is full of rain

When it comes to my heart
I never lie
The heart wants what the heart wants
Even if it means I die

That will happen a little more
With each passing day
I cannot call u my own
So I have one last thing to say

I love you
But the sad thing is
You will never know
