Life

Life may not be what I expected
But it is okay,
Because I don't live based on others expectation
I try to create what I want to be
Not plagiarize other's life style
I don't just take what life gives me
I do change the momentum
I don't let life tell me what to do
Define what it is
So why are you letting other decide for you?
Remember it is you life not theirs.
