Feelings

"I feel nothing

Therefore I feel something!

It is natural phenomenon that a human can not change his fate without changing his desires

And if you are within desires

You are no more able to feel something!

Start without any reason

Even if you End with no results

Your struggle to seek something from nothing is the vast universe itself!

Where there, we all are unable to believe in reality of everything as a whole

Slave

We are slave,
From mind to heart!
If you want to live free!
Fight with your evils
You will be free forever!

The World

"I have world to win!
But I want to lose
Because without losing the world
I can not win you"

Wise Soul

Come aside my friends
We can love each other
We can understand each other
We can spare our conflicts
We can fight against evils
We can collect fortunes
We can embrace peace
Our wisdom is our wise soul
We are founders of love!
We have created things
But we are created from nothing!
Let's live beyond desires
Let's die like flowers
Spreading fragrance round the world!
Let's observe our being
That is vast as an ocean
Let's seek the rings of bliss!
Inside the Grievances of happening!
We are the Masters of kindness
The teachers of unknown lessons
Students of consciousness
We are the children of thoughts
We are the gods of dreams
Our goddesses are sleeping
Their breasts are singing
The song of loneliness
How charming and wonderful
How sweet and bitter
The truths we learned
From the freedom of airs
Come aside my friends!

Within Your Arms

Within your arms

Oh! My beloved
My eyes have never slept
Waiting for the moment of love!
My eyes have never stopped to seek you!
You are the last desire
That has covered my being
You are the last dream of nights
That has awoken my soul forever!

Oh! My beloved
I have forgotten myself
To remember you constantly!
I have lost everything
To go on the way of wandering
Where you are eternal!
I am restless beyond bliss
To find rest within your arms
Neither I am near
Nor I am far from the world
But no one can understand
What I am for, why I am for!
Come aside the shores of my tears
There is an everlasting universe!
Oh! My beloved!
