Burn

The burning in my heart hurts so bad
And your just standing there watching me die
You don't try to save me, for that I'm almost glad We may lose, but at least we try

Keep the memory of that night
Of your heart beating with mine
When everything felt so right ‎
As, together, we crossed that line

we had a dream romance but now the tears are falling down we missed our dance
I feel your love as I drown

But this is not just a phase
I don't want to go our separate ways ‎

Dream

Good night ‎
Sleep tight ‎
I love you just right
Even when we fight ‎

I hope your dreams are good ‎
As I know they should

You're in my heart and in my dreams
You must know what this means

That when the sky is gray and the flowers die Its just my heart as it tries to get by When you're far away I always cry
My tears flow out from their vicious lies

You save me from this pain
Your heart is my domain ‎

Forgive The Regret

I filled with regret
When I saw your face
You were so upset
For your anger I braced
But it never came
You saw me through your tears
Saw I couldn't hide the shame
That I would bear for years
Because of it I still live
Because of it you forgive

Samantha Garnett

Go On

We can never deny
We can't hide the scars
We have to try
The past is ours
We can't just quit
We'll the future we've drawn
We will make it
We must go on

Samantha Garnett

Goodbye

Looking in when your out its your sin that they shout

feel their hate burning your soul its too late they've taken their toll feel the bite of your blade as it cuts through your skin see the increasing shade and watch the world just spin say your final goodbye ‎ send your soul to the sky

Samantha Garnett

Hate Me

‎ I'm trying to smile you know I'm still lost I'm walking another mile hoping our paths are crossed

I could have been better
I wasn't what you need I've tried to send this letter but you've heard this plead you don't deserve this just, please, hate me.‎

Leave this abyss let yourself be free

I promise I won't reach for the knife you will always be the best of my life

Samantha Garnett

I Apologize.

I've made my mistakes, caused my troubles
Why I have done these things
I haven't a clue, yet I know I pay
I have driven hatred into this world
To which you offered peace and safety
Yet I wanted chaos and confusion
For only a moments time
Weary and hastily I got these things
With a whirl wind of consequences
I did not mean for things to end this way
For them to be in such an up roar
My heart pleads with you
Do not forgive me but understand I am lost
In a world I myself created
To weald my fantasies reality
Though I know they are not I have trapped myself within them
Forgive me not for the heartache
Forgive me not for the troubles I've caused But know I apologize

I Swear

I swore I would never Give my heart away
All my ties I tried to sever
Now I can pray
That I won't get hurt again
But I can feel his love
This bond between us like a chain
Now he gives me a shove
To break me from my shell ‎
I've fallen under his spell

Samantha Garnett

Im Sorry

The marks color my side both new and old I'm sorry I know I lied my heart just feels so cold

I keep myself from bleeding as I said I would ‎ but you know I'm needing I wish you understood the scars remind me of that feeling the one that left me in a daze it always sent me reeling I don't think its just a phase the world is starting to get hazy

I think I'm going crazy

Love's Glow

At first you were shy
So you went with the flow
As I pretended to be sly
How could I have know ‎
That you could defy
With one gentle blow
My fear of guys
From long ago
But when I look in your eyes
I feel my heart glow when we say goodbye
Instead of hello
I feel I may cry
But I won't sit in my woe
I'll feel myself fly
Cause our love grows

My Awesome Amazing Rainbow Sock

Sitting on my bright green clock
Is my amazing rainbow sock
It will just sit there and mock
Like an mean old jock
As still as a rock
On my bright green clock
But it I will never walk
I only have one amazing rainbow sock

Samantha Garnett

My Mate

I saw it in your eyes
On our first date
We cut out the lies
Because we knew it was fate
I was your prize
For which you'd wait
Even if problems arise
Our love is great
Never to meet a demise
You became my bait
But to my surprise ‎
You, in time, became my mate.‎

Samantha Garnett

Please

Please don't leave me
Please stay or you I'll miss
Please hear my plea
Please just one more kiss
Please don't deny
Please you can see my woe
Please don't make me cry
Please you don't have to go
Please don't leave me scared
Please I know you must have cared

Quack

I was making a snack
When I heard a quack
I put down my Mac
And looked out back
All was black
I still heard the quack
I ran to the shack
Down by the track
But I heard a crack
When I ran into the plaque
It was such a whack
That I fell onto a sack
That held my brother Zach
And his friend Jack
The have a knack ‎ Cause their brains lack
To play on the rack
So I walked back
And grabbed my snack
And as quick as a smack
I heard that quack

Samantha Garnett

Reality

This pain in my chest
Eating away at my soul
This cant be just a test
Falling into this black hole
Being destroyed by this depression
Waiting to feel numb
Weigh down by this confession
What am I to become
I feel their pressure
The clear look of hate
I need to find shelter
I need my mate
They make me feel so low
Lower then I'll ever show

Samantha Garnett

Strange Lovers

We're never really normal
Never just the same
Our love isn't very formal ‎
And yet it still remains ‎

Samantha Garnett

The Bell

I swear mate
For you I'll hold on I promise you I'll wait
We'll make it to the dawn
Of our new life
To you I tell
I will be you wife
The day we hear the bell

Samantha Garnett

The End.

tears are falling down sinking into darkness no heart to be found
I shouldn't have made that promise

Now I have to break it Taking one last breath
Its just time to quit
Time to give into death

I've always been so worthless
I've just given up
I have no purpose
Just to drink from this poisoned cup

The pain inside just grew
Now its all I ever feel
I don't know what else to do Except put an end to this ordeal

There's no reason to pretend
Everyone knows this is the end

Samantha Garnett

To Be Free

For death I am pining
I want to be free my light has stopped shining ‎

watch the hands of the clock see them creep by my heart has its lock to guard from this lie

I cant hear the song the one of my life
I guess I was wrong when I lost my knife

this scar I sewed shut is now an open cut

Samantha Garnett

Why's This Gotta Be So Hard...‎

Pain burning through Tears falling down
The hurt only grew
Causing me to drown

The happiness gone
Replaced by torment
Fighting for the dawn
All my will spent

So please don't cry
Its my wish to die
