Bang Bang

Bang bang you shot me down,
Heart break billion times,
Fall down on the hard ground,
Broken in million pieces,
You stepping on those pieces,
Bleeding out my emotions,
No heart, no soul,
Smiling away thinking you done no wrong,
Laying down there tears coming down my face,
Looking up my love my life,
Betrayed man thought was the one,
Bang bang you shoot your baby done.

Doomsday

Hell on Earth,
Humans no hearts,
Want make difference doesn't change their own lives,
We all monsters,
We all sin in this tiny world,
Breaking all the commandants,
Honor you're mother and father,
Father doesn't even respect his own blood,
Next generation will never see the beauty,
No peace on Earth,
Unseen future,
We are doomed from beginning of time,
Moon shine one more night,
Rain falls 14 days and 14 nights,
Fire burning through the trees,
Darkness creeping on us.
