Because Of You

If only you could see the pain that fills my heart, making life and I so far apart.

The reason these salty drops leak down my face,
dripping down my cheek like a race.

If only you would know why my blood leaks from my body,
making life harder on me.

Life is not what its all cracked up to be,
Its nothing but pain and agony.

I bleed to be free,
I cry to let my feelings speak.
My heart beats endlessly for you my dear,
years after years.

Let Me...

Let me be your light house,
and i'll let you be mine.

Let me guide you on the right path,
I'll lead you to my heart.

Let me show you how to love,
cause im falling for you.

let me be the one,
and i'll never leave your side.

Loving You

When i see your smile,
my heart beats apon miles.
When your arms are around me,
i can be anyone i want to be.
When i look in your eyes,
I swear i could fly.
Im loving you,
hoping you love me to.

Miles Apart

We may live miles apart,
but are hearts still remain the same.
Are love is like a piece of art,
making its way in a frame.
